PREMIER, SHOT, OFF TO AFRICA

OVER MILLION CHICAGOANS ON VOTE LIST

Rival Camps Keep Up War of Words.

When the election board last night finished its three days' hearings of suspect cases there were approximately 1,050,000 names left on the Chicago poll list.

This is 15,000 less than were qualified to vote in the 1924 presidential election eighteen months ago. The presidential registration always is the peak, and there is little interest in Tuesday's primary in the Democratic party.

The final result also is about what was predicted. The ultimate figure became known when the board closed its night session with a resolution that struck off approximately 20,000 men and women who failed to respond to suspect notices sent to them last week.

A total of 21,700 suspect notices were sent out. About 17,000 were returned by the postal authorities as undeliverable at the addresses to which they were mailed. Only 681 persons responded in person. Of that number 631 were pronounced qualified and their names were left on the books.

Last night's work, coupled with the precinct revision, placed the total number of erasures since the registration of March 23 at approximately 234,000.

RIVAL CAMPS BUSY

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Getting down to brass knuckles, the rival Crowe-Barrett-Thompson and Deneen-Lundin group sailed into each other with such blithe abandon last night that they almost knocked each other through the ropes.

Senator Charles S. Deneen came back to town for the finish. He was to have issued a statement for breakfast consumption this morning, but the lads at headquarters piled so much work on him that he was fain to put it off for a day. But in the campaign booklet sent to the voters, the Deneen camp gave some burning commentaries upon the "two party hitch between Crowe-Barrett & Co., and the Brennan Democrats."

Goes Back to Teddy's Year.

The Crowe-Barrett camp enlivened the day by digging into the newspaper files of the Bull Moose year, 1912. Homer K. Galpin, the C-B-T chairman, compiled excerpts from utterances of Theodore Roosevelt on Mr. Deneen, then governor, and said "Deneen played with Lorimer in 1912 as he is with Lundin and Small in 1926."

Meantime, to cap the festivities, James A. Patten, millionaire wheat king, who for years was rated as a Deneen supporter, came out with a statement that he was for the Crowe-Barrett ticket, in the main. He commented on the Deneen-Lundin-Small alliance, and said he is going to vote for Joseph P. Savage for county judge, because of the fear of any possible Small-Lundin smear on the election machinery. At the same time Mr. Patten took a slam at the sanitary district.

Can't Boost for Either.

"As an old fashioned Republican," said Mr. Patten, "I cannot be very enthusiastic about either faction in this primary election. It appears to me, however, that Senator Deneen's alliance with Gov. Small and Fred Lundin, if ratified by a majority vote of Chicago Republicans, carries greater possibilities of permanent lowering of Republican standards than does the success of the Crowe-Barrett ticket.

"An alliance of Chicago with the Small-Lundin state organization, including, as it intends, control of the next legislature by Small for his own purposes, is a menace to Illinois Republicanism. For that reason I believe the Crowe-Barrett ticket in the main should be nominated, although I do not approve of the present management of the sanitary district."

"Bipartisan"—Deneen Cry.

The Deneenites dwelt at length on bipartisanship as an issue.

"Of the nine trustees of the sanitary district," they said, "three, elected as Democrats and controlled by Brennan, and four, elected as Republicans and controlled by the Crowe-Barrett faction have formed a bipartisan combination which has dominated the district for four years. Under that bipartisan combination, annual appropriations have jumped from $19,000,000 to $42,000,000. The district's pay rolls are crowded with needless employés. The scandals of its administration are familiar to the people.

"On the county board the same bipartisan combination controls ten of the fifteen members.

BULLETIN.

LONDON, April 8.—(AP)—A dispatch to the Herald, the labor organ, from Chiasso, Switzerland, says guerilla warfare is raging between the Fascists and anti-Fascists in the province of Palermo, Sicily.

The newspaper says there was a pitched battle Tuesday around the village of Capaci. The Fascists captured twenty prisoners, including the mayor and a priest. The casualties are not known. The anti-Fascists retired into the mountains.

ROME, April 7.—The near tragedy in Piazza del Campidoglio this morning, where an eccentric Englishwoman, daughter of a peer, shot and tried to kill Premier Mussolini, has lifted the dictator on the eve of his departure with his battle fleet for Africa tomorrow to the pinnacle of superb leadership in the eyes of Italy.

The whole nation is exalted to an ecstasy of hero worship which no other people just now can approach.

As the dramatic instincts of Sig. Mussolini usually impel him to react to the enthusiasm of his public, there is a keen interest in the Tripoli adventure.

Visions New Roman Empire.

The dictator already has visioned an Italy extending to the limits of the old Roman empire, which included all northern Africa. He has asserted that Italy must get new territories for its surplus millions. Any extension of the borders of Tripoli would conflict, however, on one side with Great Britain in Egypt and on the other with France in Morocco.

The journey to Tripoli is being attended with great military pomp. Premier Mussolini announced today that he will proceed aboard the Conte di Cavour, flagship of the battle fleet, in the morning and there will receive the new Fascist directorate. Fleets of airplanes and seaplanes will accompany the fleet to Gaeta, the Tripoli port of destination. The fleet itself will be made up of a division of battleships, destroyers and submarines.

Mobs Wreck Newspapers.

Notwithstanding the generous commands of Premier Mussolini that there be no acts of vengeance as a result of the effort to assassinate him this morning, mobs of young Fascists were busy in Rome and elsewhere throughout Italy immediately after the shooting.

Shouting crowds of rioters broke into the offices of three of the remaining few newspapers which oppose the policies of Mussolini. The mobs wrecked the offices and printing machinery and with the furniture and documents of the offices started huge bonfires in the streets. The newspapers wrecked were Il Mundo, an anti-Fascist daily; Il Risorgimento, a Constitutionalist organ, and La Voce Republicana, the organ of the Republicans. From all these places the mobs marched away waving broken chairs or other pieces of furniture and shouting vengeance for Mussolini.

Victims of Mobs.

While these developments matured other serious things gave further evidence of the determination of the Fascists to brook no interference with, or questioning of, their projects. In Cannes, John Amendola, chief of the Aventine opposition to Mussolini, died an exile as the result of a beating he received from a Fascist mob in Italy a few months ago. In Naples the Jewish lawyer for the widow of Giacomo Matteoti, Sig. Modigliani, was seriously wounded by a Fascist mob. Sig. Matteoti was the Socialist deputy who was kidnaped and murdered on June 10, 1924, by a Fascist group. The murderers were practically freed at Chieti, Italy, in a mock trial a few days ago. Sig. Matteoti's widow, terrified by Fascist threats, was forced to refuse to testify against the criminals.

The escape of Premier Mussolini from death today was not due entirely to luck, but mostly to his alertness and presence of mind.

Cheered by Crowds.

The attempt to kill Sig. Mussolini came as he was about to step into his automobile, after having addressed the international surgeons' congress at the Capitol building. When the premier appeared on the sidewalk in the Piazza

Rudolph Modell, clothier, living at 826 South Hermitage avenue, requested yesterday through his attorney, Charles E. Erbstein, that his blood and that of his pretty young wife, Mrs. Marcella Modell, and of her five months old child be tested in order to determine the baby's parentage.

Never before in the history of Illinois courts has such a petition been filed, and Mrs. Modell's attorney, William L. Kelley, will bitterly oppose Attorney Erbstein's motion, he declared. However, such tests have been tried in California and Missouri, it was said.

Asks Court to Appoint Doctors.

The petition, as presented to Superior Judge Joseph Sabath, asked the appointment of three reputable physicians to make the blood tests. Such tests can determine whether or not Modell was the father of the child, Attorney Erbstein said. An examination of Modell and the child for physical characteristics may give other proof as to whether or not Modell is the father.

The Modells were married in September, 1924, at Crown Point. Mrs. Modell later filed suit for separate maintenance, charging cruelty. She said her husband deserted her in November, 1925.

Modell's petition asserts that he was wed only after the girl's suggestion that they have a trial marriage. She told him, he said, that a girl friend of hers had entered into such a trial marriage, having an agreement with her husband that an annulment of the ceremony would be obtained after a year.

Denies Paternity of Child.

Later, Modell found that his wife had no intention of seeking an annulment of the marriage, he said. The last time he saw her was in October, 1924. Yet thirteen months later, according to the petition, a child was born to her. Modell asserted that he is not the father of this child, and the blood test was asked.

Mrs. Modell replied that she and her husband had often met since October, 1924. The meetings were clandestine, she said, because his parents objected to the marriage.

Bryan's Daughter Enters Florida Race for Congress

Miami, Fla., April 7.—[United News]—Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of the late William Jennings Bryan, announced today she would enter the race for a seat in congress. Mrs. Owen will seek to replace Congressman W. J. Sears.

FLAMES DAMAGE COLONIAL HOME OF SEN. BARBOUR

State Senator James J. Barbour's colonial home at Juneway terrace and Sheridan road was badly damaged by fire last night. The flames started on the top floor of the building, which is a two and one-half story structure, and swept downward.

Battalion Chief Thomas Kenny and his men, by prompt work, saved the interior from total destruction. As it was, the damage was estimated at $3,000 to $4,000 and the damage to furniture, fixtures, and clothing at a like amount.

Senator Barbour was in Galesburg, Ill., on a mission for the attorney general. Mrs. Barbour was at a church in Evanston. The janitor was not at home and a Jap houseman had left the building an hour before the fire started. The only explanation of the origin of the fire seemed to be crossed wires.

All Aboard! Boys Start Ferry in Flooded Street

Two small boys started a ferry service yesterday at Meade and Berteau avenues where the water, due to recent snows and rain, is knee deep at the intersection. The boys had on hip boots and a coaster wagon and they were hauling pedestrians across the flooded street. "Business is good" remarked one of the ferrymen as a cash fare stepped into the wagon to be hauled across the street.

Five Drowned in Los Angeles Flood Waters

Los Angeles, Cal., April 7.—[Special.]—Five persons were drowned on thoroughfares or in houses of flooded sections of Los Angeles as the result of a two days' downpour, according to reports today. One woman, with her small son, was crossing a bridge over a ravine in the Belvedere section when a wall of water tore the child from her grasp. The woman was drowned. The child was saved.

Two boys were reported drowned when a foot bridge over the ordinarily dry Arroyo Seco fell into ten feet of water. Two other boys got out of the water, one making his way to precarious safety on a small island, from which firemen late tonight had been unable to rescue him. The island may be inundated at any time.

Two persons are reported drowned in houses in the vicinity of Whittier boulevard and East Sixth street, where the waters rose five feet while police in rowboats were trying to warn all residents to flee.

Storm on Florida Coast.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 8.—(AP)—Total paralysis of telegraphic service on the east coast of Florida, south of Fort Pierce, was reported today, due, officials of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., said, to high winds sweeping the Atlantic seaboard. At Daytona Beach a heavy rain and thunderstorm was reported.

FEAR FLOODS IN TWO STATES.
[By the Associated Press.]

Rivers and streams throughout Illinois and Indiana were running bankful last night, swelled by heavy rains.

The lower Wabash river, which forms the Indiana-Illinois state line from Terre Haute to the Ohio river, reached 15.2 feet at Terre Haute, four inches below the flood stage.

Springfield and Decatur, Ill., on the Sangamon river, also viewed the thaws and rainfall with alarm. Two inches of rain at Decatur brought the Sangamon up four feet, and bottomlands were under water, while Danville, Ill., near the Indiana border, reported the lowlands flooded.

Trio Ejected From Cafe Shoot it Up for Revenge

Three men who were ejected from the place one day last week, entered the Monroe cafe, 1659 West Monroe street, early this morning and shot Walter Mazark, clerk in the hotel attached to the restaurant, three times. In all they fired about twenty shots. More than a dozen patrons of the place fled in panic when the bullets began to fly. The trio escaped. Mazark was taken to the County hospital with two wounds in the right arm and another in the leg.

BULLETIN.

Boston, Mass., April 8.—(AP)—Theodore D. Robinson, assistant secretary of the navy, this morning announced that he had talked with St. Mary's hospital in Rochester, N. Y., and that the youth who was brought to the hospital a few hours earlier was his son. A doctor and a nurse informed Mr. Robinson his son had been suffering from amnesia, but was now conscious.

Rochester, N. Y., April 8.—[Special.]—Douglas Robinson, 20 year old son of Theodore Douglas Robinson, assistant secretary of the navy, who has been missing from Harvard university since Friday, was found here early today, suffering from amnesia and unable to explain where he had been since he left Cambridge.

He was picked up on Fitzhugh street, where an ambulance had been called after police had been notified that a man had been struck by an automobile. When the ambulance physician examined the young man, however, he discovered that he was not injured. The young man was taken to St. Mary's hospital.

Cards Bears His Name.

He told Police Lieutenant H. J. Burns that he was the son of the assistant secretary of the navy and numerous cards bearing his name and that of his father were found on him. Lieut. Burns sent a telegram to Mr. Robinson in Boston informing him of the finding of his son.

Lieut. Burns said that Robinson seemed to be in a daze. He did not know how he came to Rochester or when. In a diary found by the lieutenant was a note under the date of Jan. 2, headed with the name Jane Kelly, Rochester, saying that Robinson would be in New York about the last Thursday before April 30 and would be at the home of a Willis Johnson.

Unable to Remember.

Questioned about this notation, the young man said that while the diary was his, he could not remember having written that note in it. He said he could not remember any Jane Kelly or Johnson. Young Robinson's father is a nephew of the late Theodore Roosevelt and a son of Mrs. Corinne Roosevelt Robinson.

STABS ESCORT OF GIRL; SAVED AS MOB THREATENS

Loop pedestrians witnessed the stabbing last night of Clifford McGrath by Antonio Paris, a Mexican, 625 West Madison street, and then chased Paris two blocks, intent upon mobbing him, but the arrival of the police saved Paris.

Miss Dorothy Mercier, 22 years old, 11825 South Michigan avenue, had an engagement with McGrath at State and Adams streets. On the street car that brought her there Paris annoyed her with his attentions and as he alighted with her she told McGrath what had happened. McGrath started for Paris, who drew a knife and cut him on the neck.

A crowd was bearing down on Paris, who ran north to Monroe street and west to Dearborn street, where a police flivver containing Policemen Dorach and Muldenhaur seized Paris.

SENATORS TOLD OF LOOT, GRAFT, RUINED YOUTH

3 Billion Alcohol Leak Charged.

BY JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—The five United States senators constituting the committee investigating prohibition in this broad land listened tonight to a great mass of sworn testimony on the defects of the Volstead act. The night session lasted until nearly midnight. An earlier session during the day was occupied with testimony on the ordeals of enforcing the law.

Tonight Alfred J. Talley, former judge of the Court of General Sessions, New York City, swore that his court experience convinces him that prohibition is "the greatest single menace confronting the United States and the greatest cause of lawlessness among the most lawless people in the world," and that "for every saloon abolished three speakeasies have sprung up."

Bryan's Death Cited.

Hiram Maxim startled everybody at the hearing when he said William Jennings Bryan died of eating candy; that he ate candy to supply a natural craving and need for what was the equivalent of that which alcohol would supply to his physical system.

Representative William S. Vare [Rep., Pa.], candidate for the nomination for United States senator against Senator Pepper, testified that the best proof of the failure of the Volstead act is the mounting figures on arrests for drunkenness in Philadelphia.

Dr. William C. Woodward of Chicago, representing 90,000 physicians of the American Medical association, pleaded for modification of the Volstead act, "not in the interest of the medical profession, but of the sick."

Buckner's Startling Story.

The disclosures of Federal District Attorney Buckner of New York on the enormous quantities of industrial alcohol—much of it poisonous—that is diverted to bootleggers and to the stomachs of the American people, were the sensation of the daylight sitting and have, indeed, by their boldness and their particularity stirred the senators as no other testimony taken by them has stirred them.

Mr. Buckner testified that sixty million gallons of industrial alcohol are annually diverted criminally to the use of bootleggers who are doing a business of three billion six hundred million dollars a year in illicit drinks.

Startling Night Session.

The outstanding feature of the night session was ex-Judge Talley's testimony. After reviewing the refusal of New York county grand juries to indict for liquor law violations, mentioning a staggering increase in the number of juvenile criminals tracing their downfall to booze, and citing the country's mounting murder record since enactment of the prohibition law, Judge Talley summarized in the observation that "the conclusion is irresistible, present conditions are traceable to the disrespect for all law engendered by the operation of one law."

"Do you mean the eighteenth amendment?" queried Senator Means [Rep., Col.].

"Yes, and the Volstead act," answered Judge Talley.

"Do you favor repeal of the eighteenth amendment?" asked Senator Means.

Benefited by Repeal.

"I believe the country would be immeasurably benefited by its repeal," asserted the judge, "but I am not so sanguine as to hope for that just now. However, I believe enactment of any of the bills now under consideration would help a great deal."

"How would the Edge bill fixing the limit as 'intoxicating in fact' help?" demanded Senator Means.

"I am not prepared to argue the point—I am ready to trust to the judgment of congress."

"You remind me of Gov. Lowden of Illinois when he appeared before the house agricultural committee," said Senator Means. "He painted a terrifying picture of the farmers' plight, but when he was asked to name a remedy he said, 'I prefer to trust the judgment of congress to find a solution.'"

"I am not afraid to suggest a remedy," answered Judge Talley. "I believe the immediate remedy is to supply beer and light wine. If the country could get beer and light wine openly it wouldn't care a whoop for hard liquor."

Prohibition, the judge said, has "essayed to do an impossible thing—to interfere with and dictate the personal habits and preferences of humanity; it has destroyed our sacred bill of rights, made us the scorn of other nations, and made sneaks and hypocrites out of a once fearless, straightforward, and chivalrous people; a law without a sanction, a law that cannot be enforced and that is wantonly and derisively violated in every state, city, and hamlet in the country.

Menace to Youth.

"It has made," he said, "potential drunkards of the youth, not because intoxicating liquor appeals to their taste or disposition, but because it is a forbidden thing, and because it is forbidden makes an irresistible appeal to the unformed and immature. It has brought into our midst the intemperate woman, the most fearsome and menacing thing for the future of our national life.

"It has brought the sickening slime of corruption, dishonor, and disgrace into every group of employés and officials in the city, state and federal departments that have been charged with the enforcement of this odious law."

"I have devoted myself to a study of prohibition—I am a native of Maine, dry 50 years before enactment of the eighteenth amendment—and I have never known prohibition to be anything but an abject failure," declared the aged Maxim. "It is an unqualified failure and a colossal calamity. If hanging was the punishment for bootlegging, the liquor would still come in."

Drunks Met Him at Dock.

Shouts of laughter greeted Mr. Maxim's assertion that after three months in England, during which he saw only two drunken men, the first man he saw at the docks in New York—"he came to meet me, was drunk, and so was the man that was with him."

Representative Vare asserted that, according to Philadelphia police statistics, arrests for drunkenness in that city have grown from 20,493 in 1920 to 58,617 in 1925, even under the rigid enforcement attempted by Gen. Smedley Butler, the marine officer chief of police.

Similarly, cases of acute alcoholism in Philadelphia increased from 2 cases in 1913 to 238 in the first eleven months of 1925.

Reed Stops Means.

Senator Reed [Dem., Mo.] interrupted Senator Means when the latter sought to convince Mr. Vare that passage of the Edge "intoxicating in fact" liquor bill would nullify the state prohibition laws in at least nineteen states where they exist, and asked the Pennsylvanian if he believed "this country can thrive half wet and half dry."

"Maine was dry for 50 years and there was no complaint," declared Senator Reed. "Yes, and before the eighteenth amendment other states were half wet and half dry. Now if the Volstead act said intoxication was a matter of fact and if a person was tried in the federal court he would be tried under the laws of congress. If he was tried in the state court he would be tried under state law. Is there any interference with state rights in that—would that threaten the constitution

BUCKNER'S TESTIMONY

Summarized, the testimony of District Attorney Buckner at the morning session was:

The quantity of illicitly diverted liquor is increasing at the rate of twenty million gallons a year.

Twelve hundred drug stores in New York City are selling 480,000 gallons of whisky a year, and that is precisely twice as much as could legally be sold if all the prescription blanks which the law allows the 5,100 physicians in that area were legitimately used.

Analysis of 50,000 samples of bootleg whisky captured by federal agents in New York City in two years showed the captures not to be whisky at all but redistilled denatured alcohol with traces of the poisonous denaturing fluid still in it.

Bootlegged to Canada.

So large and so flagrant is the diversion of industrial alcohol from legitimate channels that now it is being bootlegged into Canada, where the tax on alcohol is very high.

Thirteen months ago, when Buckner took office as United States district attorney for the southern district of New York, he found the fifth floor of the federal building in New York City a seething mob of bartenders, waiters, liquor peddlers, petty bootleggers, fixers, and bond sharks openly trafficking with justice. The very air of the building was the air of pollution. They tried to bribe the jurymen even in the building.

Buckner's Testimony Sensational.

Those six paragraphs are only specimen paragraphs in the thousands of words of sworn testimony which Mr. Buckner released today upon the United States senate committee that is investigating the rise and fall of prohibition.

Buckner's two hours were the most tremendous two hours on prohibition that the government officials and expert investigators crowded—almost to the point of fainting—in a committee room of the senate's marble office building ever have heard.

Concisely, and yet colorfully, Mr. Buckner released, with hardly a reference to notes, epigrams, flashes of description, epitomes of policy, statistics, and definition.

"I regarded the national prohibition law as a declaration of war against the liquor traffic. That is fundamental. But most of the country regarded it as a treaty of peace—one part of the population not to buy and the other not to sell liquor. And that is the fundamental misconception."

Here is his warning to senate and country:

"You will never enforce the prohibition law, gentlemen, until people begin to go to jail. I think it could be enforced if they went there."

His Padlock Record.

Mr. Buckner, who has in thirteen months padlocked 500 buildings in New York City where liquor was being illegally sold, emphasized and again emphasized his faith in the padlock as the weapon that hurts.

"My policy," he said, "although I did not originate it, is a special padlock court sitting one week a month. Stop the arrest of waiters, of the man selling a glass of beer over the counter, but padlock the premises of the owner. Petty arrests are not in the interest of prohibition."

Then came, amid narrative and statistics, these deductions, which here are given apart from their context:

"I have no doubt the prohibition law could be enforced if we had the right kind of machinery.

"In the present congested state of the federal courts—due to prohibition violations—a federal judge is worth his weight in platinum to enforcement.

"If the class of enforcement agents were improved by paying living wages, and morale and dignity thus were increased, then juries in turn would be brought up to a sense of responsibility.

Salaries Too Small.

"An enforcement agent who is supposed to stop at one source ten million dollars a year of illicit liquor business on a salary of $2,000 a year is not the man for it, and yet it has been done.

"We don't investigate unless we suspect.

"I think they could enforce the law if they would just pay for it.

"The bootlegger generally is ruthless.

"There is never any standard of ethics in an outlaw trade and no chamber of commerce among bootleggers.

"A conservative pharmaceutical bootlegger—that is, the law defying but supposedly respectable druggist—will not dilute too copiously.

Tells of Huge Bribes.

Mr. Buckner's most desolating testimony concerned the fearful rotting of the moral fiber of officialdom as a result of the enormous bribes offered underpaid men. But when you can get honest men the results they obtain are amazing.

Thus he unfolded what honesty can do on a $2,000 a year salary:

"On Sept. 1, 1926, Gen. Andrews brought to New York City John A. Foster, who had been in the internal revenue service for a quarter of a century, to attack the illicit alcohol traffic at its source. Foster in turn brought from Philadelphia twenty-one picked men in whom he had confidence. He stationed them in thirteen denaturing plants in New York City and Brooklyn. They were merely to 'nose around' and 'stand around' the plants, but with their eyes open, and to do that for only 60 days.

Plant Output Dropped.

"We had the most shocking results! I do not mean shocking as applied to the prohibition inspectors, but to the operators of the plants.

"For, gentlemen, the output of the plants decreased 300,000 gallons a month, or at the rate of 3,600,000 gallons a year, which is capable of making 10,800,000 gallons of bootleg whisky.

Here Senator Reed of Missouri swiftly interjected, "It's $10 a quart out in my country."

The witness resumed:

. . . "At the current bootlegger rate of $5 a quart, that quantity represented 216 million dollars' worth of gross business in bootleg whisky.

"Thus each of those twenty-one $2,000 a year men had stopped more than ten million dollars' worth of illicit business at the source, just by 'standing around'—but with his eyes open."

The witness testified that illegal diversion of alcohol intended for the industries shot up from forty million gallons a year in 1924 to sixty million gallons a year in 1925.

"I know," he said, "of no developments in chemistry or the arts that would legitimately account for this shocking increase in production."

Calculations by himself and his experts show that the illegally diverted alcohol produced bootleg whisky to the value of three billion six hundred million dollars in 1925.

Shocking, He Says.

Again he used the words, "these shocking figures." Some denaturing plants, he said, never denatured the pure alcohol assigned to them at all, but sold it to bootleggers. This they accomplish through collusion and bribery.

That statement brought his disclosure of contrary operations at a plant near New Brunswick, N. J. This plant had a still for redistilling denatured alcohol at the rate of 4,000 gallons a day, "and," the witness added, "they were doing it. On their tracks were ten carloads of completely denatured alcohol waiting to be redistilled. It was. The prohibition inspectors followed it and found it after it had been redistilled, and this chemical company was doing a business of $75,000,000 a year.

Another trick:

Mr. Buckner was most pessimistic about the federal courts, whose dockets are clogged with petty cases of violation which make for unconscionable delays.

Taunted for Delay.

"I have," he said, "found very few cases against men higher up—the organizers of the illicit traffic. I tried one of them and lost it largely because the defendant's lawyer taunted the government with having waited four and a half years to try the case. 'If,' said the lawyer, 'there was anything in it they would have tried it long ago.'"

Senator Walsh asked:

"Are juries disposed to let defendants off on flimsy excuses?"

Mr. Buckner—"Our best judgment is that the strongest element in acquittals—when our case is good and the defendant is a subordinate—is that juries say 'Look at all the money his boss is making while he is only an underling. Why don't they go out and get the boss?' So they acquit.

"The second largest cause of acquittals is prejudice against the prohibition agent on the strength of his demeanor, his overzeal or his personality."

Mr. Buckner's general conclusion is that trial courts are not the kind of courts that will make the Volstead law enforceable.

Vigorously he emphasized the lack of facilities for handling prohibition cases in the federal court of his district—one United States commissioner 13 months ago without a stenographer or court attendants; 85 per cent of the cases being thrown out for lack of evidence; witnesses forgetting overnight, and work five months behind. Altogether an utter lack of federal machinery when Buckner took charge in New York.

The police department of New York City and prohibition agents, he said, were then bringing 50,000 cases a year to the federal court, and five, six, or eight months later, when cases got on the docket, there would be no way of identifying people. Officers could not remember whether so and so was the defendant or not.

Many Bonds Forfeited.

Between $350,000 and $400,000 worth of bonds were defaulted, "and," said Buckner, "one bonding company had the temerity to tell me that companies were not expected to make good but merely help the government clear away cases so that the courts could be cleared and the Tombs prison not be so crowded that it would become a public scandal. Always it was the petty arrest, not the important man. Prohibition agents were being rated for the number of arrests they made and not for the number of convictions they obtained."

Senator Reed—"Who made that rule?"

Mr. Buckner—"General Andrews' predecessor."

"That was Roy A. Haynes."

"Yes."

Sources of Trouble.

Asked as to the element causing him the most trouble, Mr. Buckner said:

"Naturally it is the people who furnish the supply, aided by prohibition agents who let a big supply of alcohol get into illicit channels. Of course, the people that buy the stuff are the original source of trouble."

Senator Means—Is the foreign element notably an offender either as to the traffic or the consumption?

Mr. Buckner—I don't know. That is not so marked as to be a matter that has reached me as yet.

The witness said that 50,000 offenders brought into the federal court yearly would be a very small fraction of the total offenders in New York City.

Senator Reed — The total number would be millions, wouldn't it?

Mr. Buckner—I won't commit myself. . . . To show you that we successfully try a prohibition case once in a while, our largest higher-up prohibition case was a mail order house distributing illicit liquor into fifteen states of the west and the south. On the fourth day of the trial, the defendants were so impressed by our evidence that they took eighteen and twelve months, respectively.

Dr. Woodward Testifies.

Dr. William C. Woodward of Chicago appeared on behalf of the American Medical association, of whose bureau of legal medicine and legislation he is secretary. He represents 90,000 physicians.

"Under the Volstead act," he said, "a physician cannot prescribe for a patient, in any ten day period, more than a pint of whisky or a quart of wine. This limitation, the medical profession contends, is arbitrary and unreasonable. It was written into the law without scientific or professional sanction or advice.

"It allows one pint of whisky or one quart of wine for a month old infant, or for a patient suffering from a cold or for a teetotaler, to whom a physician desires to prescribe alcohol; but it allows no larger dose for an adult, or for a pneumonia patient, or for a drunkard threatened with delirium tremens.

"The amendments proposed by Senator Edge will abolish the limit on the amount of liquor that may be prescribed for legitimate medical purposes and on the number of prescriptions that may be written. That will not, however, leave the physician unrestricted in prescribing liquor. Every prescription calling for whisky in excess of one pint for any one patient in thirty days must be reported immediately to the prohibition administrator. He can then inquire into the necessity for such prescriptions. If he finds them unnecessary he can revoke the physician's permit."

CITES BRYAN'S DEATH IN SHOWING FOOD VALUE OF ALCOHOL

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—"William Jenning Bryan died of eating sweets for the very purpose—whether he knew it or not—of producing alcohol in his system," was the sworn statement by Hudson Maxim, inventor of smokeless powder, which brought to a close the sitting extending far into the night of the United States senate's committee investigating prohibition enforcement.

"The teetotaler," said the aged scientist and inventor, "craves and eats candies and starches for the alcoholic stimulation which they produce in the human system."

"Alcohol is the medicine par excellence," Hudson declared. "There has always been alcohol in the blood of the white men who have conquered all the laws in the seven seas."

PLASTERERS PUT TEETH IN DEMAND FOR WAGE BOOST

Vote to Enforce Five Day Week Request.

A forerunner of turbulent spring building conditions developed last night when 1,500 members of the Plasterers' union met in their hall at Van Buren street and Marshfield avenue and voted to enforce their demands for a five day week and a wage boost from $1.50 an hour to $1.75 an hour on May 7.

The action of the plasterers was unexpected. It followed an urgent appeal made by Edward O'Rourke, business agent, that the employers' offer of a $12 a day agreement for a three year period should be considered and accepted

Plan Adjustment Meeting.

It was announced that the international officers of the union will be called in immediately in an effort to adjust the dispute. The present status of the negotiations, it was said, is the result of agitation of "floaters" who have been working until recently on Florida building.

When exorbitant wage scales there unloosened the bottom of the building boom the "floaters" hurried to Chicago and began agitating the shorter work week and a substantial wage increase.

Employers Against Increase.

Employers already are on record against granting any wage boosts to the plasterers, pointing out that the plasterers occupy a keystone position at present and that granting them an increase would virtually mean a wage increase for Chicago's thirty-two building trades.

TRIES TO SLAY WIFE; DISARMED AS HE AIMS GUN

John Bradley, 1126 East 62d street, who has been separated from his wife, Edith, for some time, decided last night that he would kill her and her 14 year old daughter by a former marriage. He went to their home at 602 Arlington place and obtained entrance to their flat. Just as he was aiming a revolver at his wife's head, Charles Youngblood, who also lives at the Arlington place address, rushed in, disarmed Bradley, and knocked him down. A riot call brought Sergts. Paul Mielke and William Taup and Patrolman Mahoney. They arrested Bradley, who admitted he had gone to the flat to kill his wife.

After they returned to the station Youngblood followed. As he entered Sergt. Ray Gilso of the detective bureau recognized him as a man with a long record. Gilso had been in a squad which in 1920 arrested Youngblood in a flat of Mrs. Hattie Rink at 2038 Park avenue with nine others and recovered a large quantity of stolen goods.

Claims Third Bride

Gordon C. Thorne and Miss Ann Alston Clore, daughter of Mrs. Frank Gwillin, 549 Oakdale avenue, were married last evening at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Catherine Thorne, 3100 Sheridan road. Only a few relatives and close friends were present.

The bride, who wore white satin and carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley, was attended by Mrs. Charles Haynes. J. E. Mack acted as best man for Mr. Thorne. A reception followed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Joseph A. Ainslie of the Argyle Community church.

It is Thorne's third marriage. His first wife was Virginia Milner, daughter of James C. Milner, president of the National Car Truck company. Later he married Helen Maginnis. He is the son of the late William C. Thorne, vice president of Montgomery Ward & Co.

Peking, April 8.—[Thursday.]—[U. N.]—The army of Gen. Chang Tso-Lin attacked Huangtsun, 20 miles southeast of Peking, early this morning. SEEK MRS. O'LARRY HERE.

Officials of the Kalamazoo, Mich., state hospital yesterday asked the Chicago police to search for Mrs. Thomas O'Larry who formerly lived on Sixty-fourth street near the Michigan Central railroad. Her brother, Charles Staats, is in a serious condition there, the message said.

BIND MANAGER; ROB PRUDENTIAL BRANCH OFFICE

Three robbers invaded the offices of the Prudential Insurance company at 1521 West Sixty-third street yesterday evening and obtained nearly $3,000. They left Franklin A. Baldwin, manager, securely tied hand and foot, after taking $160 from his pockets.

Baldwin was alone in the office when the robbers came in. He was about to put his books away for the night. They pointed revolvers at him and took the contents of the safe which he was about to lock.

The manager was left on the floor, his legs drawn up and tied together and a loop made to the rope which bound his hands behind him. For half an hour he wiggled about until he was able to knock the telephone from a table.

Into the overturned transmitter he shouted "Help! Help!" A Prospect exchange operator heard him and reported the call to the Englewood police.

RAIDERS SEIZE BREWERY NEAR CICERO SCHOOL

Parents' Protests Bring Agents to "Garage."

Prohibition agents under Capt. R. Q. Merrick, assistant administrator in charge of enforcement, yesterday seized a wildcat brewery on what is alleged to be school property at 5333 West 22d place, Cicero.

The plant, which contained eight vats, each with a capacity of 2,000 gallons, together with complete modern brewing paraphernalia, has been doing a flourishing business in what was supposed to be a garage.

School Patrons Complain.

Shortly after Administrator E. C. Yellowley began his current drive on stills in Cicero, patrons of the Sheldon school complained, it was said, that the lives of their children were endangered by beer trucks which were forced to roll through the school yard in coming for and leaving with their foaming loads.

Following up the tip, Prohibition Agents Edward Daugherty and Jacob Maas were assigned to pose as school supervisors and watch the activities of the wildcat.

Three Are Arrested.

They arrested William La Voie, who was in charge of the place; John Fleming, 2028 Indiana avenue, and George Wallace, 2519 South Halsted street.

While the raid was being made in Cicero, deputy United States marshals under the direction of Tnomas Smith were pouring out 140,000 gallons of beer seized two months ago in a brewery on the outskirts of Aurora.

Grand Jurors Will Fish Soon for Loan Sharks

Loan sharks whose demands have driven many victims into the hands of the United Charities are under investigation by the state's attorney. The loan concerns are alleged to be operating in a vicious circle, with chains of offices in twenty or more cities. Their method is to purchase the wages of workers before the workers earn them and then to exact a toll of 20 per cent and more a month interest.

Several victims during the day told their experiences with the sharks to Assistant State's Attorneys Robert E. McMillan and Joseph Nicalai. Stenographers took down their statements and when the reports were read to the prosecutor he asserted there would be grand jury action.

Concerns Facing Inquiry.

Union Purchasing Co., 312 South Clarke street; Illinois Finance Co., 10 North Clark street; Illinois Finance Adjusting Co., 22 East Van Buren street; Account Brokerage Co., 111 West Jackson boulevard; Salary Purchasing Co., 312 South Clark street, 325 West Jackson boulevard and 440 South Dearborn street; Central Finance Co., 160 North Wells street; Englewood Finance Co., 63d and Halsted streets; Burnside Finance Co., 9246 Cottage Grove avenue; Cook Purchasing Co., 9320 Cottage Grove avenue, and others.

Several of these admittedly are owned by the same group of men. But so involved are the affairs and organization that no one could say whether the several so-called "salary purchasing" companies are one or several concerns.

Acts to Aid Charities.

State's Attorney Crowe started the investigation some days ago, it is learned, at the instance of the United Charities, into whose legal aid department the victims have been flocking.

Miss Irene V. McCormick, attorney in the legal aid of the charities, brought in the victims and a bundle of evidence which convinced the prosecutor, he said, that grand jury action is the only thing which will stop the sharks' practices.

The prosecutors said all of the concerns are operating apparently just outside the state usury laws. The legal percentage which loan sharks may charge is 3½ per cent per month. The group of new sharks operating mostly on small salaried men are known to have charged in one case at least as high as 70 per cent.

Miss McCormick, who has been investigating for months, says there is undoubted evidence that the same group of men who are operating in Chicago have been operating extensively in many other cities.

Some Owned in Atlanta.

Thus the Union Purchasing company, the Ilinois Finance company, and the Account Brokerage company are admittedly being operated by R. D. King and G. H. Rosenbusch of Atlanta, Ga. And Miss McCormick has received requests for advice on how to deal with complaints similar to the Chicago ones from that southern city.

Also one shark is said to have made the statement that all the concerns were conducting chains of loan offices and that these extended in a vast system through 22 American cities.

The system employed is simple. The victim is loaned $25 at a time—no more. When he gets the $25 he gives a note for $27.50. He is required to pay the note in two weeks. When he pays the shark at once loans him another $25 and he gives another note for $27.50

The allegations are it was a system of all pull together. One victim borrowed $25 from the Union Purchasing company, 312 South Clark street. That was two years and four months ago. He was sent in turn to three other concerns. And for 23 months he paid each of the four $2.50 on the 12th and 27th of each month. In the end he paid $140 extra for each original $25 he borrowed.

AS FINE AS MONEY CAN BUILD
CHRYSLER IMPERIAL "80"
KNOW THIS GREAT CAR

THE changing conception of the final perfection of motor performance follows naturally and inevitably upon the acquaintance of owners with Chrysler Imperial "80" abilities. The soothing steadiness of sustained high speed in the Imperial "80" is, for instance, indescribable. Not that other fine cars do not ride well, but because Chrysler has gone so much further in the creation of balance, in the insulation of the body and mechanism, in the perfection of motor operation that only a ride in the Imperial "80" itself can make its supremacy completely understandable. Nothing but long years of seeking, trying and building wisely could have produced this glorious realization.

You Spend Too Much For Furniture—when you buy too often

The dearest furniture you can buy is furniture that does not last, or else gives so little satisfaction that you soon want to replace it with something better.

Constant replacement costs you far more, in the end, than it would have cost in the beginning to buy some really beautiful and durable piece that would have given you lasting joy.

Here is a very good rule:

Do not buy too much—(an overcrowded room is always a mistake)—buy only quality furniture—avail yourself of authoritative advice—and take plenty of time to choose.

Only in that way can you make sure of permanent satisfaction and real economy.

Every Colby salesman is especially trained, not merely to sell furniture, but to help you choose exactly the right piece at the right price.

That is what has been known for many years as "Colby Service." If you are not familiar with it, come in and let us show you what we mean. You will not be under the slightest obligation to purchase.

PUBLIC CAREERS OF 3 CANDIDATES FOR SHERIFF TOLD

Carr, Peters, and Arnold in Primary Race.

Below are given brief biographical sketches of the candidates for sheriff in the county primary election next Tuesday. This is the continuation of a series of articles on the records of the candidates.

Patrick J. Carr.

Patrick J. Carr, candidate of the regular Democratic organization for the office of sheriff, has no opposition in the primary and he expects to succeed Peter M. Hoffman in this difficult post. He is the present county treasurer but under the law cannot succeed himself in that office. He is the first man to hold this office for two terms.

In 1921, when Harry Gibbons, then county treasurer, died, Mr. Carr was appointed to serve out the term by the county board. He was elected to the office in 1922, making six years on that job.

His political experience began in the 13th ward under the tutelage of the late Alderman Charlie [Cull] Martin. He was elected alderman of the old 5th ward twice and in 1914 was elected to the sanitary board, serving as chairman of the real estate committee. He was defeated in 1920 for reëlection.

During his six years as treasurer Mr. Carr has paid over in interest to the city $6,562,117, a greater amount, it is said, than all of his predecessors.

He is jovial, helpful, industrious, a great mixer and interested in sports. His Christmas parties for poor kids have become famous. He was once a newsboy, with a stand at 35th and Halsted streets, when he was only 9 years old.

Charles J. Peters.

Charles J. (Doc) Peters, Republican candidate for sheriff on the Deneen ticket, has the advantage of having been born in a log cabin. This was in 1876 in Hobart, Ind. His name is also an advantage to him in the sheriff race, for Deputy Sheriff Charles W. Peters has held that office for many years and is the expert on whom each incoming sheriff depends to keep out of trouble.

"Doc" Peters was appointed state grain inspector early in the administration of Gov. Small and holds that post at present. He was committeeman in the 35th ward for the Lundin organization for two terms. In 1922 he was the Lundin-Thompson candidate for trustee of the sanitary district. He won nomination but was defeated in election.

Mr. Peters served for several years as chief clerk for Thomas M. Hunter, bailiff of the Municipal court, and depends upon this experience as his chief training for the sheriff's job.

He is a member of the Mystic Shrine and seven other fraternal orders, also the German club and Teutonic Maennerchor. He is a member of an expert bowling team.

George B. Arnold.

George B. Arnold, Republican candidate for sheriff on the Crowe-Barrett ticket, is at present the state director of labor, with offices in Chicago and Springfield and thirteen branch offices and 450 employés. He is 60 years old, but active and vigorous. He worked for the Chicago elevated railroad for 23 years, several years as a motorman, and is a charter member of Division 308, Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employés. He was business agent of this organization for six years.

Mr. Arnold describes himself as an "original Thompson man" in politics. He was affiliated with the old Lorimer organization. He was made a member of the school board during the Thompson administration and served as chairman of the committee on finance. He resigned from this position after three and a half years to accept his present appointment from Gov. Small.

POLITICAL NOTES

Senator McKinley was indorsed yesterday by a group of labor leaders, including Daniel G. Ramsey, former international president of the telegraphers; Dan J. Keefe, former president of the longshoremen; James D. Dunlap of the locomotive engineers; Dan G. Smith of the switchmen, and Jerry McCarthy of the teamsters.

Senator McKinley said yesterday that William Hale Thompson prefers to talk about the world court rather th than about his own war record as mayor, just as Senator Borah prefers to discuss the same issue in preference to his own efforts towards the recognition of Russia, "where women and children are chattels of the state and where life is not safe nor property secure."

Robert Helgren, president of the Railway Employés' Nonpartisan league, announced the indorsement of Frank L. Smith by that organization yesterday. Newton Jenkins, Republican candidate for senator in 1924, also indorsed Smith.

Vice President Dawes, Mrs. Dawes, and three members of their capital household will vote absentee ballots sent them by Daniel A. Carey of County Clerk Sweitzer's office yesterday.

Republicans of the 49th ward will hold a testimonial dinner and dance at the Edgewater Beach hotel tonight for their ward committeeman, Harry A. Newby, Crowe-Barrett candidate for county commissioner.

Joseph P. Savage, Crowe-Barrett candidate for county judge, was indorsed yesterday by the Chicago Jewelers' association and the Chicago Furriers' association.

Henry P. Chandler, head of the committee of 200, in a speech at Western Springs yesterday urged voters to give close attention to the fitness of candidates in the primaries. He said there is no logic in condemning Gov. Small and then voting for candidates who exemplify the same principles of spoils politics.

QUAKE IN AZORES.

LONDON, April 7.—(AP)—Horto, on the Island of Fayal, in the Azores, reports that an earthquake was felt there yesterday evening, causing some damage. The shock lasted 22 seconds.

OVER MILLION OF CHICAGOANS ON VOTING LISTS

are elected by the twenty Circuit judges. Twelve of the judges are Republicans. Three of the Republican judges, viz., Kickam Scanlan, David M. Brothers, and William V. Brothers, his son, it is generally known, voted with the eight Democrats for Michael Igoe, a Democrat, and Louis J. Behan, who is a partner of Homer Galpin and is a Republican.

"Mr. Igoe, Mr. Behan, and Mr. Kelly, who, with Mr. Igoe, is active in the Brennan Democratic faction, organized the south park board and control it. Mr. Kelly is now on the pay roll of the sanitary district as chief engineer."

Recalls Roosevelt's Words.

For the Crowe-Barrett camp, Mr. Galpin plucked a few buttercups and tossed them at Mr. Deneen, as follows:

"Deneen's position is the same as it was in 1912, and his relations with Small and Lundin are the same as his relations were at that time with Lorimer, as is evidenced by the statement of Theodore Roosevelt Oct. 12, 1912, when he stated:

"'I wish to call the attention of the people of Illinois to the fact that Gov. Deneen has made false statements to buttress his position, and has also made admissions about his actions with Lorimer, which show that he is unfit to occupy any position of trust in the government.

"'During the convention I became convinced of his shuffling and double dealing. I grew to feel a very hearty contempt for him and entirely to distrust his sincerity and loyalty to the people's cause.'"

HINDENBURG, 60 YEARS IN ARMY, REVIEWS 180 MEN

BERLIN, April 7.—President von Hindenburg today held a miniature review of 180 soldiers in the front court of the German White House in commemoration of his sixtieth anniversary of military service. He entered the German army as a second lieutenant.

Lord D'Abernon, the British ambassador, in the name of the diplomatic corps, and Gen. von Plessen, aide de camp of the dethroned and exiled kaiser, congratulated the president of Germany on his military anniversary. Great masses of German citizens tried to press through the cordons of police in an effort to express their devotion to their president and leader, who, despite the loss of the war, is a hero to them.

WHITE MAN TRIED AS ATTACKER OF NEGRESS INSANE

Lexington, Ky., April 7.—[Special.]—Charles Merchant, young white man accused by a negro girl of rape, was found to be of unsound mind by a jury today and ordered confined in the Eastern Kentucky hospital.

After several alienists had testified in the rape trial today, the state asked for a lunacy inquest which was granted. A new jury was summoned and the hearing lasted an hour. After deliberating forty-five minutes the jury found Merchant to be unsound mentally.

Merchant was the first white man to face a charge of raping a negress in Kentucky. A conviction would have meant hanging or life imprisonment.

SNOW MAROONS WOMEN 7 DAYS IN SMALL SEDAN

West Branch, Mich., April 7.—(AP)—Marooned for seven days within a mile of their destination, their small sedan all but covered by deep drifted snow, Mrs. Arthur Webster, of Detroit, and Miss Gertrude Oatman of Highland Park, were rescued late yesterday by a searching party.

The two women started a week ago yesterday from West Branch for Horseshoe Lake, 21 miles northwest of here. After going a few miles they were caught in a blinding blizzard. With only a mile to go, the sedan ran into a great drift that blocked the highway.

Having planned a stay of several days at the lake, Mrs. Webster had made liberal purchases of groceries before leaving West Branch, and so they did not want for food during their seven days imprisonment. Thirst was quenched by eating snow. There were several blankets and robes in the car and the motor was started occasionally to provide more warmth.

Dunne Says His Group Pioneered in Wet Issue

Former Gov. Edward F. Dunne fired the opening gun for the Dunne-Harrison-O'Connell Democrats in their first invasion of the loop yesterday. The meeting was held at the Olympic theater. The former governor charged that the Democratic party in Illinois under Brennan has been grossly mismanaged and that it was not until the Dunne-Harrison-O'Connell Democrats came out against the Volstead act that Brennan had courage to do so.

McKINLEY, SMITH TRADE WALLOPS AS VOTING NEARS

Senator Answers Charge of Huge Campaign Fund

BY FRANK BUTZOW.

United States Senator William B. McKinley and Republican State Chairman Frank L. Smith crossed each other's trails frequently yesterday in the windup of the G. O. P. senatorial campaign in Cook county. Smith continued his assault on McKinley's vote for the world court. The senator, with considerable spirit, discussed Smith's charges that large sums of money are being used to renominate him.

Both candidates carried their campaign into Evanston. Meanwhile, war veterans in the Speedway hospital issued a second indorsement of McKinley, declaring that they resented charges from Smith headquarters that the first indorsement had been obtained from mental irresponsibles in the psychopathic ward. Several hundred patients signed the second indorsement.

Smith Commends Coolidge.

Smith commended President Coolidge for refusing to send American delegates to the Geneva conference to discuss the American reservations to the world court resolution and expressed the hope that America would be black balled by some of the European nations to prevent our adherence and ultimate membership in the league of nations.

"Before any nation passes upon our application for membership in the court it will get instructions from the league what to do," Smith said.

"My attention," Senator McKinley said, "has been attracted to statements put out by Allen Moore, campaign manager for my opponent, charging me with spending large sums of money in my campagin.

"The charge of extravagance is false, but what money I have spent has been my own money. I know that the same cannot be said of the money which has been lavished throughout the state from Allen Moore's office in the state central committee headquarters in the Congress hotel."

Recalls Utilities Promise.

In the campaign six years ago when Smith and McKinley were opponents for the same nomination, Smith made speeches promising to abolish the state utilities commission, but the only thing that happened was an enlargement of the commission with Smith as its head, McKinley said.

"As chairman of the Illinois commerce commission, a position to which my opponent was appointed by Gov. Small, and which he still holds under the governor, Frank Smith must in this campaign carry whatever reflection follows the contributions to his campaign by the public utilities under his jurisdiction," Senator McKinley declared.

Colored Workers for Senator.

Walter L. Cohen, colored comptroller of the port of New Orleans, whose appointment by President Coolidge caused a flurry in the senate, arrived in Chicago yesterday to work for McKinley in the colored belt of the second, third and fourth wards. McKinley left last night for a two day trip into the downstate before returning to Chicago to finish the campaign.

Smith speaks today at the Cort theater, followed by several ward meetings tonight. He will speak at Waukegan tomorrow night. Attorney General Carlstrom will speak for Smith at Aurora this afternoon and at the Palmer house tonight.

Trude Beats Savage 4 to 1 in Bar Primary

Municipal Judge Daniel P. Trude, Deneen-Lundin candidate for county judge, won over Assistant State's Attorney Joseph P. Savage, Crowe-Barrett entry, by a vote of 1,691 to 398—over four to one—in the referendum of the Chicago Bar association, which ended yesterday.

County Judge Jarecki, without serious opposition in the primary, received 1,832 votes from the lawyers to 84 for his opponent, John J. Byrne.

*Sitting judges. †Former judges.

An analysis of the foregoing shows that nine of the first twelve places went to Deneen candidates and two to Crowe-Barrett candidates. Harry C. Moran, unattached, broke the two slates and landed in sixth place.

Twelve candidates for the Municipal bench will be nominated by each party in the April 13 primaries. Nine of the first twelve on the bar association's list are Brennan Democrats, while the remaining three are on the Dunne-Harrison-O'Connell slate.

On the Republican side four of the ten sitting judges landed in the first twelve selected by the bar association. The two sitting Democratic judges, James J. O'Toole and Frank T. Sullivan, were respectively sixth and eighth in the Democratic poll of the lawyers.

Four former Democratic judges who went down to defeat in the Coolidge landslide two years ago topped the Democratic list—John J. Rooney, Joseph Burke, John F. O'Connell, and Peter H. Schwaba.

Judge George B. Holmes, Deneen candidate, led the Republican list, with Judge Robert E. Gentzel, Crowe-Barrett candidate, a close second.

The vote of the bar association was canvassed by the following committee: George H. Meyer, chairman; Edward B. Lucius, vice chairman; Russell B. Burt, D. Francis Bustin, James H. Deming, Sigmund Albert Fink, William C. Greatman, Ira W. Hurley, Harold D. Huszagh, Walter P. Murphy, Raymond C. Schnell, William L. Sullivan, George M. Sundheim, Luther W. Tatge, and Ray W. Ulman.

MUSSOLINI IDOL OF ITALY AFTER ATTACK ON LIFE

dei Campidoglio a group of Roumanian students, amid loud cheering, started singing the famous Fascist marching song, "Grovinezza," in Italian. Premier Mussolini turned and looked over his shoulder, preparing to acknowledge the Roumanians' tribute.

He was confronted with the muzzle of a small revolver, held two feet from his face by a middle aged gray haired woman. Instinctively he jerked his head back, just as the weapon was fired.

The bullet struck him in the nose, piercing both nostrils. Blood gushed from the wound and the premier put his hand to his face to stop the flow of blood. The famous Italian surgeon, Dr. Giuseppe Bastianelli, who was with him, held a handkerchief to his nose to prevent a hemorrhage.

Police grabbed the woman and shielded her from an infuriated mob which sought to kill her. She revealed that she was Violet Albina Gibson, daughter of the late Lord Ashbourne of England and sister of the present Baron Ashbourne, who lives in France.

Despite the flow of blood, Premier Mussolini tried to calm the angry crowd.

"It is nothing—please be calm. Above everything, I beg of you, do not allow the nation to take reprisals against foreigners," he appealed.

Goes About Day's Work.

After the wound was dressed by Dr. Bastianelli Premier Mussolini resumed work in his office for a last busy day before leaving Rome for Tripoli. At his home Premier Mussolini received numerous friends, including the Duke D'Aosta, and received a flood of letters and telegrams. He gave strict orders that there should be no violence because of the attempted assassination.

At 5 o'clock this afternoon the premier appeared on a balcony of the Palazzo Chigi, looking pale and wearing a pink bandage over his nose. He was wildly cheerd by a crowd which packed to overflowing the big square in front of the Tribuna office.

"I am here in order that you can hear my voice and assure you that my heart has not beat the slightest bit faster because of what has happened today," declared Premier Mussolini. "No danger can halt the march of fascism. I wish this demonstration——" but the crowd interrupted with shouts of:

"No! No! No! We want lynching and blows of clubs."

Half Mad, Says Relative.

PARIS, April 7.—"Violet, poor creature, is half mad," Lady Ashbourne told THE TRIBUNE correspondent at the Chateau Compiegne, where she lives with the present Baron Ashbourne, the eccentric brother of the woman who tried to kill Premier Mussolini today.

"We have not seen her in more than a year, but we have heard disquieting reports. Years ago we tried to keep her in an asylum, but it is impossible to keep the harmlessly insane under lock and key in Italy.

"I am sure her act was not based on political animosity of any kind, for I know in sane moments Violet admired Premier Mussolini, but she is devoutly religious, to a point of being mystic, and her imagination is so unstable I am inclined to think she would just as soon have tried to kill the pope, Catholic though she is.

"It is even possible that, suffering from a recurrence of her suicidal mania, she wanted to kill herself in Premier Mussolini's presence, and shot him by mistake."

Family of Eccentrics.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

DUBLIN, April 7.—Violet Albina Gibson is a member of an eccentric family. Her father was former lord chancellor of Ireland and a strong supporter of the Unionist party and Protestant church. Some members of the family departed from the family traditions, becoming some Roman Catholics and some Christian Scientists.

The present Lord Ashbourne, who succeeded to the title some years ago, became an ardent Gaelic leaguer. He devoted himself to the reintroduction of the ancient Irish costume and for years himself has worn it on all occasions. He is at present in Dublin attending the annual convention of the Gaelic league, and he is the only member of that body wearing Irish kilts.

Lady Violet is noted for her eccentricity. Some months ago it was reported that she had attempted to commit suicide in Rome.

Fascist's Foe Dies.

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LUGANO, Switzerland, April 7.—The death of John Amendola in Cannes today removes the last important leader in Italy opposed to Premier Mussolini. Sig. Amendola, who headed the organization known as the Aventinists, died as a result of beatings received from the Fascisti last summer. When half way recovered Sig. Amendola told THE TRIBUNE correspondent:

"They have got me. I will be dead in three months. I will not recover from the internal injuries."

REV. C. B. M'AFEE, STRUCK BY TROLLEY, REPORTED RECOVERING

The Rev. Cleland B. McAfee, professor of theology at McCormick Theological seminary, was injured when struck by a street car last Sunday, it became known yesterday. He is confined to the Alexian Brothers hospital, but has practically recovered, it is said.

FRANCE SEEKS TO CUT DEBT OFFER TO BRITAIN 50%

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, April 7.—Raoul Peret, French finance minister, intends to proceed to London next week to discuss the French war debt with Winston Churchill, chancellor of the British exchequer, and seek a reduction in the tentative accord, which Joseph Caillaux made in August for payments of £12,500,000 [$62,500,000] annually.

The British chancellor notified the French finance minister that he would like a meeting prior to April 26, as he must answer questions in the house of commons on the status of the war debt pourparlers and must include the subject in the budget speech he will make on that day.

M. Peret conferred with Premier Briand and decided to go to London next week.

THE TRIBUNE is informed that the French government believes £6,000,000 [$30,000,000] is the highest annuity it can afford to offer, this being about 25 per cent less than the $40,000,000 Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon offered as the first five year's annuities to the United States.

Open Monroe as Through Street, Is Plan of Sloan

Authority to open Monroe street from 5th avenue to the western city limits, thus creating another through street from Michigan avenue to the western suburbs, will be asked soon by the board of local improvements, John J. Sloan, president, announced yesterday. Garfield park may be crossed on an elevation, Mr. Sloan said. He took issue with Ald. A. J. Horan [24th], who favors a detour through the park, using one of the existing parkways.

FOR Acid Stomach
PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water at any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

Better Than Soda

For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

EFFICIENCY BODY URGES VOTERS TO O. K. BOND ISSUES

Only Two Minor Projects Opposed in Report.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The bureau of public efficiency gave its approval yesterday to all bond issues to be submitted to the voters next Tuesday, except two small ones. These exceptions are $250,000 for stop and go lamps at about 100 street intersections in the outlying districts and $300,000 for the purchase of twenty ward yards and ten ward offices for the street cleaning bureau.

"Small improvements of this kind are not proper objects for a bond issue," said the report, though the experts do not question the need for more traffic lamps.

On the bond issues for all the other improvements, totaling $18,500,000, the bureau advised the public to vote "Yes." These projects are summarized as follows:

STREETS.
Widening and improvement of Ashland avenue	$1,635,000
Widening and improvement of North Western avenue	1,000,000
Widening and improvement of Twenty-second street, east of Michigan avenue, and Indiana avenue between sixteenth and Twenty-third streets	450,000
Widening and improvement of Twenty-second street between Michigan and Archer avenues	1,400,000
Widening and improvement of North La Salle street between Washington and Eugenie streets	4,200,000
Widening and improvement of portions of Clinton, Jefferson, Desplaines, Polk, and Taylor streets	1,000,000
Widening and improvement of South Halsted street from Vincennes avenue to city limits	850,000
Widening and improvement of 95th street from State street to Western avenue	450,000
Widening and improvement of Milwaukee avenue from Edmunds street to city limits	560,000
Opening, extension, widening, and improvement of Peterson avenue between Caldwell and Ridge avenues, and of Ridge avenue from Peterson avenue to Clark street	830,000
Opening, extension, widening, and improvement of Kimball avenue between Diversey and Wellington avenues	170,000
LIGHTS—FIRE STATIONS.
Extension and rehabilitation of the street lighting system	$2,000,000
Purchase of sites and construction and rehabilitation of fire stations, and purchase of fire boat	1,475,000
BRIDGES.
Completion of East 100th street (Calumet river) bridge	$ 200,000
Construction of 106th street (Calumet river) bridge	1,500,000
Construction of new abutments for Fullerton avenue and Diversey avenue bridges	600,000
Plans for new bridges to be built in connection with straightening of Chicago river	200,000

The Chicago Association of Commerce and the Greater South Side Chamber of Commerce also have given their indorsement to the bond issues.

The bureau of public efficiency further recommended approval of the zoological park act, which will be submitted to county voters with the bond issues. This act provides for the collection and display of animals by the trustees of the forest preserve district, who are the members of the county board.

The board, subject to approval of the voters, has entered into a contract with the Chicago Zoölogical society for construction and operation of a zoo on a tract of 172 acres west of the Des Plaines river and south of 31st street.

HINT COOLIDGE O. K.'S UNSEATING OF BROOKHART

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—President Coolidge was reported today to have taken sides against Senator Brookhart [Rep., Ia.] in his pending election contest. The reports were that the President had indicated to Senator Butler [Rep., Mass.], chairman of the Republican national committee, that the majority report of the elections committee which recommended the seating of Daniel Steck, Democrat, should be approved.

Senator Butler has been credited with favoring the seating of Senator Brookhart for political reasons. He and other Republican leaders have reasoned that to eject Brookhart would place the Democrats one seat nearer control of the senate.

THE FEDERAL ANTI-LYNCHING BILL.

Briefly stated, the anti-lynching bill introduced in the senate by Senator McKinley of Illinois provides as follows:

If any state or governmental subdivision of a state fails, through its legally appointed officials, to do everything in its power to prevent a lynching or to punish persons guilty of lynching, the federal government shall have the right to try and punish such state or local officials as are responsible. If a state court fails to punish persons guilty of lynching the federal court shall have jurisdiction to try and punish those persons in accordance with the laws of that state. The federal government shall have the right to compel a levy of $10,000 against any county in which a lynching takes place.

On the question of lynching, per se, there can be no argument. No person claiming any degree of civilization believes in lynching. It is a savage vestige. The 3,559 lynchings that have taken place within the last 16 years are, as proponents of the McKinley bill say they are, a blot upon the reputation of the United States as a law abiding republic.

Lynchings must be stopped, but the federal authority should not be called in to perform what is by right a state function.

Statistics show that the number of lynchings has declined rapidly within the last few years. Whereas the average number of lynchings per year during the period from 1889-1918, as compiled by proponents of the McKinley bill, was 107, the average number for the last seven years has been only 48.

The greatest statistically recorded number of lynchings in any one year was 226—71 whites and 155 Negroes—in 1892. The number of lynchings last year was 18, and in 1924, 16, all Negroes.

Public sentiment in the south, where the great majority of lynchings have taken place, is turning strongly against this form of barbarity. It has been shown that only a small percentage of lynchings have been caused by crimes committed by Negroes against white women. This has undoubtedly done much to bring that change of sentiment about.

State control is winning against the lynching mob. To invoke federal interference is to surrender one more right of that state government in which the strength of the nation lies. The McKinley bill has performed a service in focusing national attention on the evil of lynching, but it seeks the remedy in the wrong quarter.

EQUAL JUSTICE IN KENTUCKY.

A few weeks ago Kentucky turned out several hundred of its national guardsmen in order to guarantee a fair trial to a Negro accused of killing a white man and his two children and violating his wife. The state expended great effort and considerable money in order to prevent the lynching which seriously threatened. The Negro was tried and hanged, as provided by the law.

Kentucky yesterday ended another trial in which a white man was charged with the mistreatment of two young colored girls, one of whom, only twelve years old, he is alleged to have raped. The youth was found insane on the evidence given and sent to an asylum.

This second trial was Kentucky's opportunity to show that orderly justice will proceed at equal pace in every case, regardless of race and color. It is not a question of the punishment. A jury said the Negro should be hanged. The white was held mentally incompetent. What counted was the manner of the prosecution, whether it was pressed as vigorously, as convincingly, in the case of the white man as it was in the case of the Negro.

GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE.

Superior Judge Lewis granted a divorce the other day to a woman who complained that her husband had insisted upon helping bring up the children. The husband had claimed the privilege of spanking the offspring when occasion warranted. The wife said that and all other matters pertaining to the children were her business exclusively.

"If our American mothers cannot take care of their children, then God help the nation," Judge Lewis observed in upholding the wife. "Fathers must not interfere with the raising of children."

Hereafter when Junior sets up a howl for a glass of water at 3 a. m., the father who wishes to avoid the divorce court will remain snugly abed. If he so much as stirs from his pillow he violates the marriage vow. He may, if he feels the matter is urgent, awaken his wife, who somehow can sleep through these things, to advise her of the situation but he can make no recommendation. She alone may have direct contact with the child. The husband can probably switch on the light with impunity and he may even tell the little woman where she put her slippers, but there the line is drawn. If she wants something to throw over her shoulders she must find it herself.

There is a great deal to be said for this decision but there are several husbands which this department is acquainted with who will refrain from saying it.

GOVERNMENT AND COAL.

President Coolidge believes congress, before its adjournment, should enact legislation which would enable the President to appoint mediation boards in cases of disagreement between operators and miners in the coal industry and to create a federal coal administration should the country be threatened with a shortage.

We thought the recent settlement of the anthracite strike had proved just the opposite necessity. President Coolidge wisely kept the hands of the federal government away from the question. Coal consumers stuck to their guns, and the anthracite industry was forced to come to time or go out of business.

The anthracite settlement was a settlement on an economic basis, not on a political basis. Government intervention always brings politics into an industrial question and politics has no place there. The assurance that a government appointed board of arbitration will be set up is an invitation to operator and miner to let George settle their troubles.

The results justified the anthracite policy. We have more confidence in it than in a board for intervention.

A NOTABLE WILL.

When the will of Mrs. Anna M. Richardson Harkness was filed for probate, it was disclosed that she had given $20,000,000 to a fund for general charitable purposes. The will directs the trustees to dispose of the whole sum, principal and interest, within thirty years, and leaves the trustees free to choose the beneficiaries.

Mrs. Harkness' will was wisely drawn. She was not led by vanity or a yearning for immortality to create great endowments. She realized what many men and women have failed to grasp: that the world does not remain forever as it was on the day they made their wills. Institutions which today have the greatest usefulness in a few years are no longer needed. We know now that there are better ways of caring for dependent children than in great orphanages; but many orphanages must continue to operate as they always have because dead men say they must go on unchanged. Similarly, dead men prevent institutions which should merge from merging. Art collections which should be broken up are held together by a dead hand. Makers of wills too often show no confidence in the good taste and good sense of future generations.

The future is hidden even from the wisest of men. The wisest benefactions are those with the fewest strings attached.

LAW IN CHICAGO AND IN MILWAUKEE.

David Stark picked the pocket of a citizen of Chicago nearly two years ago. Stark has not been tried yet. He was brought back to Chicago just a day or two ago after jumping his bond and trying to hide in New York. Court records show that Stark has been granted fifteen continuances. Were it not for the perseverance of Stark's victim, William B. Austin of 1245 Astor street, the case would have been given up as hopeless and forgotten long ago.

Contrast to the case of Stark a Milwaukee case, just concluded, in which four men attempted to rob a loan office. They were caught by the police and one was wounded as they made their getaway. Their $15,000 worth of loot was recovered. And within 24 hours after the commission of the crime the four were on the way to the penitentiary. Malloy, the ringleader, received a sentence of from three to thirty years. His three companions were sentenced to terms of from three to twenty years. They are in penitentiary cells right now.

In Milwaukee they make laws work for the people. In Chicago the laws work the people that make them. Part of it is the laws themselves. Part of it is the officials who are supposed to enforce the laws. Part of it is the apathy of the people. Instead of working for honest citizens, the laws work for the criminals. No wonder crooks shun Milwaukee and flock to Chicago.

Editorial of the Day

THE FIASCO AT GENEVA.

[Manitoba Free Press, Winnipeg.]

The failure of the recent meeting of the assembly of the league of nations and the dispersal of its members with the work for which they were summoned not done puts a severe strain upon the structure of the league. In this case the spirit of pre-war European diplomacy triumphed over the league spirit, and the result is tragic. As things are, with Germany a member neither of the league nor the council and the whole matter thrown over to the September meeting of the assembly, the moral improvement in Europe due to the Locarno adjustments has vanished, and there has been a revival of the jealousies, fears, and hatreds of the period immediately following the war.

The world is quite well informed as to where the responsibility for the trouble lies. It is due to the inability of some of the parties to the Locarno pact to live up to the moral engagements of that bargain.

There is nothing in this performance by the signatories of the Locarno pact to encourage Canada to put her signature to the agreement and accept its responsibilities. While this spirit of intrigue, of jealousy, of double dealing prevails in Europe we can congratulate ourselves that we have assumed no special responsibility by which we pledge the lives and property of Canadians to the maintenance of order in that happy continent.

How to Keep Well.
By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, if matters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit, or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitations, and where a stamped, addressed envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make a diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

DEFICIENCY DISEASES.

THIS matter of deficiency diseases is not to be trifled with. Furthermore, the people generally are interested in the subject. Lest some think it merely a fad of human medicine I am supplying some facts abstracted from the minutes of a recent meeting of the Live Stock Sanitary association. This association sent out a form letter to veterinarians and farmers, asking about deficiency diseases in live stock. They got back reports on 41 deficiency diseases in live stock, several of which are known to be identical with similar deficiency diseases in the human subject.

The diseases were as follows:

CATTLE—Softening of the bones, goiter, abortion and sterility, rickets, salt sickness, alkali disease, back and loin disease, creeps, red water, sweet clover disease, cottonseed meal disease, and grand traverse disease.

HOUSE PETS—Rickets, goiter, black tongue.

Some of these troubles are due to poisoning rather than vitamin deficiency. Some are mentioned under several names. But even after such eliminations it is found that many remain. These prove that vitamin deficiency in humans is no fad. Furthermore, they throw considerable light on the question of how the human animal shall escape. For instance, black tongue in dogs is the same as pellagra in humans. Dogs that do not get enough meat develop black tongue. It can be prevented or cured by giving a diet sufficiently rich in yeast or in beef.

Hairlessness in pigs and big neck in sheep, dogs, chickens, and other animals is nothing more than a form of goiter. It can be prevented by giving animals a very little iodine in their food.

Nearly every animal is subject to something that corresponds to rickets. These diseases go by several names. They can all be prevented by either of two methods, or by both of them combined. One method is the feeding of good foods, grown and cured in plenty of sunlight. The other is by keeping the animals in the sunlight or by exposing them daily to the light from a quartz mercury vapor lamp.

Poultry especially are subject to polyneuritis, due to eating a diet that does not contain enough green stuff. Sometimes they get cereals from which the husk has been removed. In the human subject this disease is called beriberi, provided the sufferer lives in Japan or somewhere over there. If he lives in the United States he may complain of neuralgia, neuritis, weather pains, vague rheumatic pains, and swelling of the feet, for none of which does he know of a good excuse.

A committee of physicians appointed to prepare a report on vitamin diseases in humans could learn from this report on similar disease in live stock.

CHILD HAS ST. VITUS DANCE.

Mrs. V. B. writes: My little girl, 7 years old, has St. Vitus dance. Can it be cured? If so, what should be done?

REPLY.

St. Vitus dance is an infection that is very closely akin to rheumatism. It is nearly always cured, though heart disease is apt to follow in its wake.

The treatment generally starts with a period of rest in bed. Tonics are given in full doses. Then comes a period of quiet and rest in the open air. Tonics are continued.

Next comes carefully regulated hygiene. The heart must be watched.

Since the children are weaker than they seem, several months are required to bring them back to normal. Attendance in school must be interrupted.

SCALP MASSAGE.

R. M. writes: Please advise whether massaging the scalp every evening before retiring is helpful in promoting a strong growth of hair, or is it harmful in any way, as I have been advised to do so.

REPLY.

It is about the best hair tonic known.

SOUP DIET.

J. A. H. writes: Is it true that a steady diet of soup has a bad effect upon the stomach?

REPLY.

An exclusive soup diet will make you pot-bellied. That is about all.

SELLING FOR TAXES.

Chicago, April 2.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—A widower who was a resident and owner of real estate in Indiana, died in that state without making a will, leaving three married sons and two unmarried daughters. Taxes have not been paid and now the property is to be sold for taxes. Could any one of the above heirs buy the property at a tax sale and by so doing acquire the tax title to the real estate? E. Z.

Such a title could not be enforced against his co-tenants. If the parties cannot agree one of them should file a bill for partition.

LIFE INTEREST IN PROPERTY.

La Grange, Ill., April 3.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—My husband bought a home in Texas, without our consent. In the deed his mother has a clause inserted that she should live there until her death. We did not object to that and we have paid taxes and kept up the place for her. She is past eighty-one years old and recently became ill and helpless. We brought her to our home and now she objects to our receiving rent from the house, although she is living with us gratis. What claim has she on the home? F. E. M.

If the deed expressly gives her a life interest, the facts which you state would not terminate such right, but you can insist upon her paying rent while she is living with you.

CLUB OWNER DIES.

Chicago, April 4.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—I belong to a gun club of ten members which was purchased in the name of our former president who has since died. His widow is willing to sign it over to us.

1. What would be the proper way to have this done?

2. What would be the best way to have it registered so as to protect our individual shares? L. W.

1. In order to give a merchantable title to real estate, it would be necessary to probate his estate, for which purpose you should probably employ an attorney.

2. One way would be by incorporating, but we advise you to submit the entire question to an attorney.

FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 8, 1861.

WASHINGTON.—The steamer Pawnee, which has been lying at the navy yard since March 1, left for Norfolk in full war trim. Her ultimate destination was not revealed. Much alarm is felt here over the military preparations, but the administration maintains secrecy. It is asserted that the President is daily receiving large numbers of telegrams urging no surrender of Forts Sumter and Pickens or any other forts and offering volunteers. There is a report that Gen. Beauregard has told Maj. Anderson that he must evacuate Fort Sumter within forty-eight hours or be bombarded.

NEW YORK.—A law is now before the legislature to incorporate "The Metropolitan Cab company" of the cities of New York and Brooklyn. Should the bill become a law, it is the intention of the company to place in the two cities named three kinds of vehicles for the public accommodation: the coupe for the use of ladies; the hansom for the use of business men, and the four wheeler so constructed as to carry baggage for the convenience of the traveling public. The tariff will be the same for all—20 cents any distance within a mile; and 15 cents a mile for any additional distance; for one hour, 60 cents.

PARIS.—The Empress Eugenie is said to be in a state of perpetual terror about the condition of her soul. Her mind is tottering. At one moment she is setting out for a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, at another she is absorbed in all the mysteries of spirit rapping.

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—The total receipts of cotton at Memphis during the last year were 392,000 bales, nearly twice the quantity usually received.

PARIS. — The Bonaparte-Patterson case, it is said, is to be reopened on an appeal. Mme. Patterson alleges that she left in Baltimore important papers which she feared to bring to France, thinking they might be taken from her and which would fully establish the fact that her marriage was contracted in good faith on her part. This has been all she and her son ever desired to prove.

25 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 8, 1901.

LONDON. — The Yokohama correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing on the attitude of Japan toward Russia's Chinese policy, says: "Shipping companies have been ordered to hold their vessels in readiness for transport service. Cruisers on the reserve list have been commissioned for active service. All leave has been recalled and officers on the first reserve have been warned for service. There is much popular excitement."

CHICAGO. — Bronzed and scarred and burdened with trophies of the orient, 500 soldiers of the 30th volunteer infantry arrived in Chicago fresh from eighteen months' hiking rice paddies and fighting Filipinos. Friends crowded the railroad stations to greet members of the regiment who were recruited at Fort Sheridan.

MANILA.—Gen. Areola, two colonels, three lieutenant colonels, twenty-six other officers, and 800 privates in the Filipino rebel army surrendered at Nueva Caceres. Several other commands have surrendered at other places.

CHICAGO.—Expulsion was the punishment inflicted upon Patrick H. O'Toole by the Cook County Democracy. He was charged with going over to the enemy and working in behalf of Judge Elbridge Hanecy, the Republican candidate for mayor, at last Tuesday's election.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 8, 1916.

CHICAGO.—Mrs. Helen Muscarrello, wife of an Italian, was shot down in front of the saloon of Joe Zella, 445 West Division street. This makes a total of 188 Black Hand murders since the first of 1911. Of these nine were committed this year.

CHICAGO.—The city council unanimously passed the ordinance compelling "wet" restaurants to close at 1 a. m.

CHICAGO.—The farmers and milk producers won their fight with the distributors for $1.55 per hundred pounds for milk, an advance of 22 cents. However, all dealers except one agreed not to advance the price to the consumers, which will remain at 8 cents a quart.

BERLIN.—In the reichstag speakers bitterly denounced the United States for failure to maintain neutrality, especially showing their anger over the sale of arms to the allies. "Every new month brings record figures of the American boundless—one might almost say shameless—exploitation of the war," declared Dr. Stresemann, a leader of the National Liberal party.

MILWAUKEE. — Richie Mitchell won a draw verdict in his fight with Freddie Welsh, world's champion lightweight, after ten rounds of furious fighting.

SATTOMON.

Deep in the dunes stands Sattomon.
Old Indian name, as you see.
But the dwindling tribe has long since gone
And left the scene to me.
Snow unbroken in gully and glade;
Bare oaks marching in gaunt parade
Full of mystery.

Like friendly beasts the north winds roar,
But they mean no serious harm,
And behind a stout and sheltering door
The hearth is bright and warm.
The sparks fly up; the kettle sings;
The smoke spins delicate spirals and rings;
An easy chair and books and things
Weave a potent charm.

O good green cabin! There's nothing so sweet
When the work of the week is done,
As the peace of a snug and safe retreat
In the dunes from Sat. to Mon.

ED STONE.

WE HAVE READ all the biographies of the candidates and they all appear to be such super men and women that doggoned if we can make up our mind for whom to vote. Guess we'll go over and ask the fat faced Rush street worm.

Don't You Trifle with Us; the Colonel Opens All Mail.

R. H. L.: I have argued him into it. Yes, I have, too. I've convinced my unromantic but not unreasonable husband that I must be allowed to trifle. For four years no one has made love to me, and before the four year period . . . well, I'm modest. Do you know of any good looking men whose fancies have lightly turned to any interesting thoughts this spring? How about you, R. H. L.? Rawther oldish, yes, but, nevertheless, intrigante. Are you, in the least, susceptible?
EVELYN OF THE TITIAN HAIR.

R. H. L.: To those who have enjoyed following the heated controversy between S. L., Spirit of '76, etc., February Harper's has an article which may be of interest. It is "Perverted American History" by Harold Underwood Faulkner of Smith college, and surely hits the bull's eye.
YOUNG MOTHER HUBBARD.

We'll Drink One for Him.

R. H. L.: So you're going to Ireland! My boss is from Dublin and he'd like a souvenir. Please tell Snowshoe Al, he's priceless; I, with many Campbell ancestors, squandered the required buck and one-half on his Necklet of Storries Saturday and found it worse than a radio for causing one to lose sleep! I laffed and laffed! May the Swedes place him in the Hall of Fame! Toodle-OO!
ANNIE LAURIE.

LAURIE laments that our ex-mayor, William Hale Thompson, is not a good showman. "Mr. Thompson exhibited two alley rats," writes Laurie, "which he named after his two former boy friends, Doc Dillpickle Robertson and Fred Lundin, the terrible Swede. But the rats didn't give a good show because they had no cheese." Ah, Laurie, the cheese was there; Bill was the cheese.

Ah, but the Law Compelling You to Write 'Em Was Rescinded by the Last Congress.

RHL: I received another of those darned "Goodwill" letters today! What can you suggest as torture for these nit wits who are trying to revive these "Round the World Goodwill Chain Letters" and threatening with bad luck he who breaks the chain? The so-called "American Officer" who started this bunk should have his writing hand boiled in oil, paralysis germs shot into his arm, and have a tooth pulled (without anesthesia) for every letter he started. Those who keep up this imbecilic practice should forfeit their citizenship rights and be banished to Moronia. A. E. F.'ER.

R. H. L.: I saw an infallible sign of spring. I saw a gal wearing a great, thick, fur doodad around her neck. It must be summertime.
THE BRAZIL NUT.

BUT MA FERGUSON MIGHT NOT LIKE IT.

Dick: The recent caustic remarks regarding the Mexican war and the acquisition of some of our southwestern territory recall those aggravating months in the "regulars" down on the border in '17 and '18, where every man had enlisted for immediate overseas service and was beginning to regard the border country as the source of all evil and the sole reason for keeping him from France. One night "Stew," our second lieutenant, and I sat huddled up in our pup tent, many miles from headquarters, gloomliy contemplating the perpetual rain and rebelling with rancor in our hearts against an ungrateful government which would keep us on these silly patrols in weeks of drizzling rain and heartbreaking inaction. My thoughts were far away—trenches where rain would be an incident—shells bursting in the night—leading my gang of roughnecks—Oh, hell, Dick—just dreaming.

Suddenly "Stew," who never spoke till he had something worth saying, startled my reverie with, "Hell, they say we licked the Mexicans in '48 and took this country away from them. Let's lick 'em again and make 'em take it back." EL CAPITAN.

What, the Mercury! in Evanston!!!

R. H. L.: I went out to the Northwestern library in Evanston yesterday and saw three college boys and four co-eds fighting for the American Mercury April edition. The librarian had fainted from seeing so many students in the library at one time.

CLARA LAUGHLIN, in her new book, So You're Going to England (no, Clara, we're going to Ireland), has much to say about the genus 'Murikin. We have had more or less about 'Murikins in the Line and Clara tells how they act when they're touring England. A 'Murikin had been offered tea by a sweet little old English lady at a village inn. "No," said the 'Murikin, "I'm a 'Murikin. We 'Murikins don't drink tea. We work. And that's why we've got all the money over in 'Murika and why you're broke and have to borrow from us." Clara said she felt so bad she could have cried. Don't cry next time, Clara. Pour the tea down the back of his neck. But be sure it's boiling hot.

AGAINST A WORLD'S FAIR.

Chicago, April 6.—It seems an inopportune time to agitate for a world's fair now.

The city is instituting huge reconstruction problems in its street widenings, its subways, its sewage disposal plants and its outer parks. These will take several hundred millions to complete. Taxes are very high and must be higher to complete these necessary and essential undertakings.

It seems wrong to spend twenty to twenty-five million dollars on a temporary attraction while we do not know when the more important undertakings will be completed nor how much they will eventually cost nor how or when we can raise the money to complete same.

The tax payers will have to pay the bill and the only people who will receive real benefit are the hotel keepers and department stores and the real estate interests whose property adjoins the section where the fair will be situated, and who will, undoubtedly, benefit by the real estate bubble that the fair will create. It took the south side twenty-five years to recuperate from the collapse of values following the world's fair.

A fair in itself is a desirable feature for a city if there are no other more important projects starting or awaiting completion, but would it not be better to wait with the fair until the enormous essential and permanent projects now contemplated or building are built and financed before spending twenty or twenty-five million dollars on a temporary project which will benefit only a few and not attract, in the long run, nearly as many people as the wonderful permanent improvements contemplated and building? MILTON S. YONDORF.

AMENDING THE VOLSTEAD ACT.

Newark, N. J., March 31.—The contention that the Volstead act cannot be liberalized without violating the eighteenth amendment is so common as to be almost unanimous with all who oppose any modification, and up to the present time there has been nothing said by proponents to controvert this viewpoint. The latest doubter to express his views is Senator Borah in the senate on March 29, and yet he favors a referendum.

I will show that the Volstead act in section 20 of title III. violates the eighteenth amendment in expressly sanctioning transportation of liquor through the Panama canal or on the Panama railroad. The wording of the eighteenth amendment prohibits "transportation within . . . the United States and all territories subject to the jurisdiction thereof." The congress made the Volstead act applicable to all of our island possessions except the Philippines, although it had the power to include them.

It must certainly follow that if congress has the power to except in one instance and to exempt by its refusal to legislate in another, it may enact legislation to permit states to enact their own laws on the subject of "intoxicating liquors" or it may make exceptions in one or more states, or by naming states subject to the provisions of the Volstead act it may exempt others by the omission of their names.

The President and the senate, through the liquor treaties with a number of nations, have violated the eighteenth amendment by permitting the importation, transportation and exportation of liquors.

The Supreme court in the case of Cunard S. S. vs. Mellon [262, U. S. 100] in a most comprehensive opinion states most positively that foreign ships may not under the eighteenth amendment and the enforcing act bring in and take out again such liquors within the three mile limit. The treaties were made in 1924, after the Supreme court's action.

JUSTICE TO THE CUBS.

Rockford, Ill., April 4.—There is an abundance of glee on the part of every sport editor in Chicago when the Sox beat a hookwormed outfit like Shreveport by a count of 9 to 3. The fact that the Cubs can trounce the Seals, a cross-my-heart ball team, gets a couple of twits followed by an interesting article penned by a "Trib" sport authority giving the north side bunch little hope for this year.

The Sox were supposed to be good in 1925. The Cubs were supposed to be awful. There was a city series. The "awful" team won in a walk.

With a few exceptions, none of which are important, the Cubs and Sox will enter the 1926 schedule in two weeks with practically the last year lineups. Because the Sox beat Shreveport, they are supposed to be good. Because the Cub "Goofs" with Gabby Hartnett and other first liners in their lineup trounced the "regulars," the Cubs are supposed to be awful. JIM.

MORE OF THE SAME.

Chicago, April 4.—What the present Cub team needs is encouragement, not discouragement. The Cub team is by no means, the worst in the league. Their fielding ability is acknowledged. I believe that their hitting ability is about to be acknowledged. They may be the upset of the coming major league season. More power to them and their able manager, Joe McCarthy. [illegible]

CUB PROSPECTS.

Fort Smith, Ark., March 31.—At last Manager McCarthy is proving he knows a ball player when he sees him in action. By selecting Cooney and Brooks as regulars the Cubs have two positions filled that will meet the approval of the majority of fans, I'm sure.

Cooney is a "Buck Weaver" at his position and will prove the best fielding shortstop in both leagues. He will prove a dangerous batter when men are on bases, with his short hits, because he is steady. As for Brooks, I look for him to lead the Cubs this year in extra base hits, and, better than that, he will be leading Hartnett in home runs, because he is a more sure hitter and a steady man at bat. Our Cubs are going to be a fighting team, that will land in first four. FAN.

THE ACCIDENT ON 63D STREET.

Chicago, April 3.—The Voice of the People column on March 27 contained a communication from Joseph A. Bargets calling attention to a very serious accident which occurred underneath "the Pennsylvania viaduct at 63d street near State street."

The accident in question occurred in the New York Central subway, which has columns in the center of the street, while our subway has columns at the curb line only. The roadway under our subway is in good condition.

DID GRANT OWN SLAVES?

Lexington, Ky., April 3.—Twice within recent months the statement has come to my attention that Ulysses S. Grant was a slave owner and that he did not free his slaves until the emancipation proclamation did it for all slaves.

Now this was a new bit of information to me, and I was wondering whether it was a fact or merely a rumor.

CORN BELT AND DIXIE IN FARM RELIEF COALITION

Bloc to Test Strength of Administration.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—The situation pertaining to agricultural relief legislation has now developed into a trial of strength between the corn belt and allied forces on the one hand and the Coolidge administration and its supporters in congress on the other. Both sides are preparing for battles in the house and senate before the adjournment of this session.

The corn belt leaders proclaimed today the sealing of an alliance with the cotton growers of the south in support of their surplus control bill designed to raise the prices of farm products on the domestic market above the export market price, the export loss to be met from equalization fees assessed on the producers.

See Coalition Victory.

With the cotton growers in line, the corn belt interests believe they have formed the basis of a combination between western Republicans and southern Democrats in congress that will overcome the opposition of the administration and bring about the immediate establishment of their proposed price-boosting machinery in all essential features.

While President Coolidge looks with disfavor upon the surplus control bill framed by the farm organizations as a fixing scheme, by indirection Secretary of Agriculture Jardine has made some important concessions to the demands emanating from the Des Moines conference and is drafting a bill which he will submit to the agriculture committees of congress next week.

Would Omit Equalization Fees.

Secretary Jardine's measure will provide for the creation of a farm board to deal with the surplus problem, as proposed by the farm organizations, but will omit any provision for collecting equalization fees from the producers. The corn belt would finance the price boosting operations from a $250,000,000 revolving fund advanced by the government. Secretary Jardine will not provide for a revolving fund, but is working out a plan for a loan either by the government or private capital for financing operations in the orderly marketing of surplus products.

The administration regards the equalization fee as an essential part of any price fixing plan and is opposed to it for that reason and also because it is believed the fee would be looked upon by the farmers as a tax, which would make the whole scheme unpopular.

"Our plan is not price fixing," said George N. Peek of Illinois, chairman of the committee of 22 representing the Des Moines conference of north central states.

Essential to Plan.

"But the equalization fee is essential to the success of our plan. Any bill for agricultural relief that leaves out the equalization fee will be only a gesture and we cannot accept it. We believe we now have the votes to put through our plan. The opposition to our bill emanates from eastern leaders in the Republican party who do not understand the plight of the farmers.

"I do not think these leaders will persist in their opposition to adequate farm relief legislation when they come to realize that they will only be inviting the defeat of their party in the coming elections thereby."

Leaders Are Exercised.

Administration leaders in congress are exercised by the maneuvers of Mr. Peek and his associates to form a bloc of western Republicans and southern Democrats. They accuse Mr. Peek of being actuated mainly by a desire to breed disaffection in the Republican party and thereby advance the interests of the Democratic party in the middle west, asserting that the farm organization he heads is financed largely by Barney Baruch, one of the angels of the Democratic party. The house committee on agriculture has evinced a desire to question Mr. Peek on this matter the next time he appears before it.

While the farm organizations are manifesting great impatience with the delay in acting on farm relief measures the leaders in congress counter with the assertion that the delay is due to the failure of farm organization leaders to agree on a bill.

Only $50 Now Puts Hart Into Your Heating Plant

Nothing more to pay until October 1

Now for action with the forehanded folks who prefer to be at least two jumps ahead of Howling Winter.

Do you realize the benefits that will come to you through ordering your Hart Oil Burner now? Here they are—sound and substantial benefits—check as you read:

In this kind of weather the Hart can be installed without a moment's inconvenience to you or your family. A workmanlike job in five hours' time.

In the swift changes of Spring, you'll appreciate more than ever, the convenience and thrift of the Hart Oil Burner. It will keep your home at the right temperature. It operates only when heat is wanted.

Having a Hart now will make you thoroughly familiar with its ease and effectiveness of operation before putting to the test of zero weather.

By ordering this month you are certain to get prompt delivery and unhurried installation. Last fall we had more orders than we could fill.

The initial payment is only $50. Regular payments commence October 1. In the meantime your family enjoys the convenience, comfort, cleanliness and security of the best Oil Burner ever built.

Remember this: Hart marks the furthest advance in reliability. Of course endorsed as standard by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc.

The day you sign the order, you sign your resignation as chief coal shoveler and assistant ash remover. Your wife will like that too. Goodbye soot, goodbye grime!

We are as near as your telephone. Give us a ring and our representative will call.

PUTNAM DRAWS SECRET PLANS OF FIXED BRIDGES

Council, Sprague Clash on Roosevelt Road.

Maj. Rufus W. Putnam, United States army engineer in Chicago, has evolved a secret plan, to be known first to the war department, which will reduce the anticipated cost of fixed bridges over the Chicago river to a "comparatively attainable minimum," he announced yesterday. He added that his plans would meet the city's traffic needs.

"I am confident that such opposition as may have developed to the fixed bridge program will be eliminated when the results of our survey are made public in Washington," Maj. Putnam said.

Costs Within Reach.

"Instead of the staggering costs that some of the opponents and even the friends of the project have visualized, the improvement plan now worked out, if adopted by the war department and congress, will prove an immediate economy over the system now in effect."

Maj. Putnam, in speaking of water diversion, said he had completed his report of the survey of the sanitary district's improvement in living up to government requirements under the terms of the permit for water withdrawal. The government engineer pointed out that the permit was subject to cancellation at this time, but that his findings had been such that he had recommended a continuance of that grant.

ROOSEVELT ROAD CLASH

Charges by Ald. Henry L. Fick that the solvency of merchants is endangered by delays in relieving the traffic congestion on West Roosevelt road caused the city council to adopt a resolution yesterday calling on Commissioner Sprague to start work on a new bridge over the Chicago river.

Col. Sprague declared that was impractical as not allowing for river straightening which may change the channel.

"The railroads have agreed to go into the river straightening work, paying $7,500,000, while the city would pay only $750,000 to $1,000,000.

"As the government permit expires Jan. 1, 1927, we must get started soon, if the job is to be done in the next fifty years. The report of the citizens' committee will be ready this week. An ordinance should be passed by June 1 and work started this summer."

Advance Police Station Project.

The council approved an order from the finance committee authorizing the commissioner of public works to advertise for bids for the proposed new Municipal courts and police building at 11th and State streets to cost several millions.

Mayor Dever announced the appointment of a committee of 200 citizens to survey the city's playground facilities, to plan for the future. Among the members of the committee are Miss Jane Addams, Lorado Taft, Potter Palmer, Edward S. Beck, Col. Edward B. Ellicott, and Mrs. Edith Rockefeller McCormick.

SUSPECT HELD IN SWINDLE MAY BE LOST MAGNATE

Albion, Ind., April 7.—[Special.]—Although descriptions differ slightly, Bell county authorities believe that the Charles Edgar Morris, whom they are holding here on a charge of fliching Hoosiers in a bogus Canadian land sale may prove to be Ambrose J. Small, Toronto millionaire missing since December, 1919, and for whose whereabouts a standing reward of $50,000 has failed to bring results.

Morris, his attorney, David N. Barker, admitted today, appealed to the Dominion bank of Toronto yesterday to wire him $5,000, signing the name of the missing Toronto theatrical magnate. His client also wired John Doudhey of the Grand theater at Toronto. Doudhey was Small's secretary. No response to the telegrams has been received.

Morris was arrested at Fort Wayne last March 10. While held for Albion authorities he confessed, police say, to an amazing record as a swindler.

His swindling operations began in Chicago recently, when he appeared there with a will which stated he was heir to $6,000,000 from an uncle named Jennings provided he married before July of this year. This he admitted was a fake, as was the grant to sell Canadian public lands which he used to filch gullible Ohicans and Hoosiers.

FOUND DEAD ON TRACKS.

TRIP-LEX
WHITE
in Semi-Paste Form

Something New in Paint

A Practical Paint for the Practical Man—A wonder paint for the amateur. An entirely new combination of pigments and linseed oil. A product of the highest quality that will supply a long felt want. It is so superior to white lead and oil paint that it will revolutionize painting practice. Ten important points why you should use Trip-Lex White:

1. Requires one-fourth the time to break up to be ready for use. Semi-Paste means Semi-Liquid.
2. Has greater hiding powers—two coats do the work of three coats of white lead and oil.
3. Covers 20% more surface than white lead and oil—requires less paint for the job.
4. Is non-poisonous—will not injure the health of the user.
5. A Whiter White that stays White.
6. Does better work with less labor and material and wears longer.
7. When tinted with Oil Colors, makes clearer and more permanent tints.
8. Will not chip or crack and leaves a perfect surface for repainting.
9. Slow to chalk—prolongs the life of the paint.
10. Leaves a smoother coat with more adhesive qualities and is easier to apply.

One test will convince you. Purchase a can of Trip-Lex White for your next painting job—you will be agreeably surprised. Also put up in Liquid form for those who prefer an article that is ready for use.

HIGH SCHOOL ROW ON FRATERNITIES SPLITS STUDENTS

A spirit of rebellion that has sputtered with varying degrees of intensity during more than twenty years seems at last to be active at the Hyde Park High school, 6220 Stony Island avenue, where the matter of secret high school fraternities and sororities is causing a rift in the relationship between teachers and pupils, and between the fraternity members and the remainder of the student population.

Recent developments in the situation stirred up by the secret societies, which exist outside the pale of the law, as Illinois long ago enacted legislation prohibiting such organizations, includes a physical encounter between two dissenting students, the resignation of the senior class president, postponement of the February elections for class officers, the withdrawal of one of the nominees for senior class president, and the suspension of several students known to be members of the organizations.

The somewhat one sided encounter between John Thoney, ex-football captain, a nonfraternity man, and Dunning Brown, president of the senior class, precipitated the present state of agitation and was the immedaite cause of the postponement of the election.

Specific charges against the organizations were outlined yesterday by Hiram B. Loomis, principal of the school for the last two decades.

"Ever since I have been connected with the Hyde Park High school these secret societies have existed," Mr. Loomis said. "Their influence is antagonistic in every way to school discipline. In addition to fostering a narrow and snobbish spirit they bring into close contact the freshman of thirteen and the senior of eighteen years and over, sworn to fealty to each other.

"They draw their membership almost entirely from the type of family that can only be designated as social climbers. Doting parents, flattered that their children are favored with an invitation to join, furnish the funds and wink at the illegality of the matter. And the funds they are called upon for are far from being inconsiderable."

The Hyde Park Weekly, the school publication, has carried little else in the last two issues than statements regarding the incident of the class meeting of March 24, during which the elections were discussed, and following which the lie was passed between Thoney and Brown, and the latter, who had been presiding, was struck in the face by the ex-football captain. Thoney charged that Brown was attempting to " throw " the election to the fraternity forces.

Brown subsequently resigned as president of the class, while asserting his innocence.

ILLNESS OF WARR CAUSES CLASH IN LEITER SUIT

William J. Warr's absence yesterday morning from Judge Denis E. Sullivan's court, and a resultant battle among the attorneys as to whether his reported illness was physical or legal, brought to a halt, just as it began, the thirteenth day of the Leiter lawsuit.

Today, with Mr. Warr, according to reports given out by his physician late last night, still confined to his home, but with the attorneys' battle in a fair way to be settled by a conference of doctors at eleven o'clock this morning, the case will proceed.

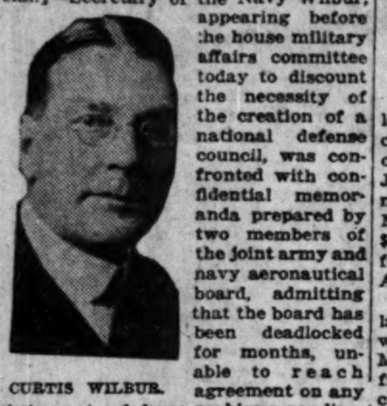
WILBUR DISPUTES NEED OF NATIONAL DEFENSE COUNCIL

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, appearing before the house military affairs committee today to discount the necessity of the creation of a national defense council, was confronted with confidential memoranda prepared by two members of the joint army and navy aeronautical board, admitting that the board has been deadlocked for months, unable to reach agreement on any of the major defense problems pending before it.



CURTIS WILBUR.

The memoranda, prepared by Lieut. T. P. Jeter and Capt. Robert Oldys, navy and army members respectively, was read into the record by Representative James [Rep., Mich.].

"Does that not indicate a need for such a board or council as is under discussion?" Mr. James asked Secretary Wilbur.

"No, it does not," replied Mr. Wilbur. "In the first place, I don't think many of the problems you have mentioned should have been referred to that board. They should have been submitted to the joint planning board of the army and navy. There will always be points of contact and conflict between the army and navy. The disagreements will disappear in times of exigency."

CONTRACT LET FOR NEW EDGEWATER CHURCH GROUP

The Edgewater Presbyterian church last night voted unanimously to accept the report of the committee on church building and let the contract to James Shedden & Co. The new community house, at Kenmore and Bryn Mawr avenue, to cost in excess of $400,000, will be built first and ground for it will be broken on Saturday, April 17.

The church auditorium, to be built later, will cost another $350,000, and will be erected at the corner of Bryn Mawr avenue and Sheridan road. The frontage of the church plant will occupy the entire block. The material will be Indiana limestone. Dr. Asa J. Ferry, the pastor, is also the moderator of the Chicago presbytery.

ACCIDENTAL SHOT KILLS AUNT.

Paris, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—Mrs. Deliha L. Poor, living near Marshall, was fatally injured today by accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of her nephew, who had just returned from a hunting trip.

BRITISH KING AND QUEEN SPAT OVER PRINCE'S LOVE

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

LONDON, April 7.—Now that the prince of Wales is recuperating from his recent illness, the gossips are busy again with his matrimonial intentions, and THE TRIBUNE is informed by a good authority that a first class row has blown up in Buckingham palace over the selection of a future queen.

Both the king and queen have been urging him to marry, and both have made efforts to select a wife, but the prince has replied that he is not in a hurry and, at any rate, he insists on selecting a bride himself. His selection is said to be Lady Mary Cambridge, and this is the cause of the family trouble.

Lady Mary is a daughter of the earl of Athlone, who is a brother of Queen Mary and Lady May, and therefore is the prince's first cousin, and is barred by the table of consanguinity which the king had prepared some years ago by the royal physicians and to which he attaches great importance.

The queen, however, is anxious to see her own niece succeed her as queen, and encourages the prince's desire, flatly opposing King George. It also is said that the queen does not like the prospect of the duchess of York, who is not of royal blood, succeeding to her position, as she is sure to do if the prince is not married and she and the duke of York outlive him.

MACKAY CALLS PUBLICITY OVER ELLIN MALICIOUS

New York, April 7.—(AP)—Clarence H. Mackay today broke the long silence he had maintained since the secret marriage of his daughter Ellin to Irving Berlin to protest against the "relentless and malicious" publicity involving his name by "a certain type of newspaper."

In a statement which he authorized an associate to issue to the Associated Press, reports that a reconciliation with his daughter was imminent as a result of intervention by Mrs. Kenneth O'Brian, his eldest daughter, and Mrs. James A. Stillman were denied.

Mr. Mackay, the statement said, considers that much of the publicity following the marriage of his socially prominent daughter to the song writer to have "sadly stretched the limits of decent journalism." He characterized this publicity as "vulgar and lying."

It originated, he believed, "from press agent sources only too apparent."

INFANTRY OFFICER SHOT.

Omaha, Neb., April 7.—(AP)—Capt. Frank G. Foley, supply officer of the Seventeenth infantry of Fort Crook, was shot and possibly dangerously wounded while supervising pistol practice on the post range this afternoon.

TOWNSHIP VOTE AT HERRIN GOES AGAINST KLAN

Herrin, Ill., April 7.—(AP)—The nonpartisan ticket labeled as anti-Ku Klux Klan, won in the Herrin township election yesterday by majorities ranging from approximately 200 to 400. The conservative ticket, generally designed as pro-klan, was headed by former Supervisor T. C. Kearns for reëlection. J. E. Grzzell headed the nonpartisan ticket for supervisor. Six assistant supervisors, a town clerk, assessor and school trustee were also elected.

HOW THIN PEOPLE PUT ON FIRM SOLID FLESH

People who are thin, underweight and run down can put on firm, solid flesh and build up health and energy by taking Coco Cod, the wonderful cod liver oil tonic that tastes like chocolate.

Coco Cod contains, in addition to the cod liver oil, the essential health vitamins from eggs, yeast and vegetables, making a nutritious system-builder superior to the ordinary cod liver oil preparations. Coco Cod is flavored with cocoa, making it pleasant to take by people with delicate stomachs.

Coco Cod is especially valuable as a spring tonic for people who are weak and run down. It quickly builds them up, re-invigorates their systems and gives them new interest in their work. One patient writes: "I had no idea that a tonic could act as promptly as Coco Cod did in my case. I lost my appetite and usual liking for work. Thanks to Coco Cod, I had both back in two weeks."

Coco Cod is recommended by physicians everywhere. Begin to-day—take Coco Cod for health. All druggists.

Pinkerton The Knitted Coat

Permanent Elastic Pinkerton Fabric
Stretches twice as far as ordinary knitted fabric without losing its elasticity.

Full-Sized Arm-Holes and Sleeves
Roomy—no binding. Plenty of give for all movements of shoulders and arms.

Snug-Fit Over Hips
Coat hangs straight; doesn't climb when turning or bending over.

WARMTH —with "Shirt-Sleeve" Freedom

Closely knit of medium weight wool, the Pinkerton Knitted Coat keeps you warm and limber—free from the stiffness occasionally experienced on these cool Fall days.

In teeing off, there is plenty of "give" for a full swing back and a powerful downward sweep. There is no binding at the elbows or across the shoulders. This coat is knitted to insure exceptional elasticity and is tailored large enough in the sleeves, shoulders and chest.

The Pinkerton is comfortable and yet stylishly trim. As popular for business and home use as for outdoor activities. Holds its shape perfectly through years of steady service. Made extra strong at points of wear—shoulders and pockets taped, seams hand sewn, button-holes double stitched, and buttons secured with fourteen stitches instead of the usual seven.

A wide variety of styles, sizes and colors assures your getting exactly what you want. All priced in your favor. See your dealer today.

Why sugar should be in packages

When you buy nameless sugar in paper bags, you cannot tell what you're getting. It may have been exposed for weeks to dust, dirt and germs! That is the reason for Domino Package Sugars. They are always highest quality, weighed, packed and sealed by machine. And you know your sugar is clean and pure. Domino Syrup is also a great table and kitchen convenience.

Next time you order, think of the importance of sugar in your diet! 98.9% of its caloric energy is available to the body. It gives you 17.5% of the total energy in your diet. You will realize instantly the necessity of pure sugar protected for your use.

Have Color in Cheeks

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

That cold may turn into Flu, Grippe, or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once.

Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster; does the work without blister.

Rub it on with your finger tips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

ARCTIC FLYERS BACK; SET NEW NORTHERN GOAL

Fairbanks, Alaska, April 7.—(AP)—Capt. George H. Wilkins and Lieut. Carl B. Eielson, returned to Fairbanks today after an airplane flight of 150 miles beyond Point Barrow on the Arctic coast. They found no land but sighted many unbroken stretches of ice, possible places for landing.

On their return trip yesterday the pair was lost in the air eight hours before sighting Circle City, 150 miles northeast of here, where they stopped for the night.

Plane Stood Trip Well.

The flight to Point Barrow last Wednesday was made in approximately four hours. A landing was made in a blizzard which continued two days. After the storm the fliers and available natives worked on the field smoothing it for future flights.

The Alaskan, a single engine plane, withstood the trip well. An examination after its landing here disclosed only a leaking oil line.

Boosts Future Flights.

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—Vilhjalmar Stefansson, the arctic explorer, said tonight that the Wilkins-Eielson feat meant a flight of 700 miles from Fairbanks, Alaska, and seventy miles further than any explorer had previously gone in that section. Mr. Stefansson declared that Wilkins' flight definitely established the usefulness of airplanes in polar exploration.

MOTHER WILL RENEW FIGHT FOR CUSTODY OF GIRL

Mrs. Ada Morris, 3136 Flournoy street, who lost a fight for the custody of her 15 year old daughter, Alice Beatrice, in a sensational court battle a year ago, will renew the contest soon, it was learned yesterday.

James Nuttall of Waukegan who was given custody of the girl by Superior Judge Joseph B. David died recently, the mother learned. His wife was unable to care for the girl so the mother is the logical guardian, she told the judge. The latter advised her to consult an attorney who would draw up an adoption petition.

The girl was awarded to her foster parents in preference to her mother because the judge felt the former were able to provide a better home.

DRY LAW HARD ON CIDER FIRMS, SUITS DISCLOSE

Folks have turned from cider to moonshine and gin the last few years, according to revelations in bankruptcy petitions filed yesterday against three Chicago cider manufacturing concerns.

According to involuntary petitions presented in the United States district court here, the Barrett Cider and Vinegar company, 361 West Ontario street, did a thriving business for many years after its establishment more than 20 years ago. Then, it was said, prohibition came and destroyed a great part of the market among formerly temperate beverage users until the liabilities of the organization grew to $100,000, the amount set out in the petition yesterday.

Action was precipitated by the Pioneer Cooperage company of St. Louis, with a claim of $13,827; the Chicago Cartage company, $1,631, and the Redlich Manufacturing company, $48.

The other cider concerns hit by petitions were the Bangor Cider company and Barrett & Barrett Co. The principal claimant against the two organizations is Louis Corsiglia, who listed indebtedness of $17,380.

80 JAPANESE LOST.

TOKIO, April 7.—(AP)—A message from the Hokkaido, the northern island of Japan, reports that more than 80 persons are missing as the result of the capsizing of ten fishing boats in a storm yesterday.

Jack Durand Must Stay in Prison Pending Appeal

Jack Durand, foster son of the Scott Durands of Lake Forest, must serve out his sentence in the penitentiary for robbery, the Supreme court ruled yesterday, denying his appeal for a writ of supersedeas which would liberate him while his appeal is pending. The apeal itself will be heard soon. Durand was sentenced to from three to twenty years for the robbery of the home of F. Edson White.

SPECIAL SESSION URGED ON SMALL IN DAIRY CRISIS

A special session of the legislature to aid dairymen, shut off from a market by Chicago's pure milk law, was asked by State Representative Ralph N. Hoar [14th] yesterday in an urgent telegram to Gov. Len Small.

Describing the situation as "desperate," the message asserted that "farmers will be bankrupt if forced to await a regular session." More money should be provided immediately, it added, to reimburse them for cattle lost in tuberculin tests.

State Action Injures Farmers.

Representative Hoar's move, it is said, grew out of an order from S. J. Stanard, head of the department of agriculture, withdrawing all state veterinarians from initial test work because of a shortage of funds.

As a result, hundreds of farmers, unable to have their herds tested, are without a market. Meanwhile, an offer of federal officials to join with resident veterinarians to carry on the testing is being delayed by Stanard's failure to approve the program.

Contempt Proceedings Tomorrow.

Another phase of the milk war will shift tomorrow morning to Geneva, Ill., where Frank J. McCarthy, attorney for the Milk Producers' association, will start contempt proceedings against Health Commissioner Herman N. Bundesen and other Chicagoans for interfering with the delivery of untested milk, contrary to a court injunction.

Precautions against violence to Health Commissioner Bundesen were taken by aids of his office last night after a farmer from Palatine, Ill., had made threats.

HOUSEWIFE DIES AT TASKS.

Mrs. Catherine Sale, 55, of 6402 South Laflin street, collapsed yesterday while cooking in her home. She managed to call a neighbor who summoned a doctor, but he was unable to save her. She died supposedly of heart disease.

LOSS IN OIL TANK FIRE $10,000,000; IS STILL BURNING

San Luis Obispo, Cal., April 7.—(AP)—Fire raging in four huge crude oil tanks on the tank farm of the Union Oil company near here has caused a loss of $10,000,000, it was estimated late today. The fire was started by lightning.

Workmen were hastily throwing up an earthen barricade around the tanks to protect other storage on the farm.

Company officials expressed the belief that the oil in the flaming tanks would boil over and that it might break the barricade and set fire to other tanks.

The fire is said to be the greatest in the history of the American oil industry.

HOLDS AMERICAN MERCURY IS NOT SMUT MAGAZINE

Boston, Mass., April 7.—(AP)—H. L. Mencken, editor of the American Mercury, was acquitted in Municipal court today on a charge of possessing and selling obscene literature. He was arrested Monday when he sold a copy of the April issue of his magazine on Boston common.

The arrest was made at the instance of the Rev. J. Frank Chase, secretary of the New England Watch and Ward society, which had caused suppression of the April issue of the magazine because of an article entitled "Hatrack," dealing with conditions in a small western town.

The case was heard yesterday and decision was reserved to give the court an opportunity to read the article. Judge Parmenter held today that the story was "not salacious and did not tend to corrupt the morals of youth, as charged."

The judge sustained the argument of counsel for Mencken that the magazine was distributed primarily for an intellectual group and that the article itself "would not tend to bring lascivious thoughts to any person of that type."

McKinley's Consistency

The keynote of the career of Senator William B. McKinley has been consistency.

He is a consistent Republican.

He believes the Republican party should consistently adhere to the platform pledges approved by vote of the people.

He has consistently voted with his party in carrying out these pledges and supporting the Republican President.

He is one of the leaders who helped the administration reduce federal taxes 50 per cent and inaugurate a budget system for the reduction of government expenditures.

He stood with the President and the Republican majority in opposition to the United States joining the League of Nations.

He supported the Republican platform and the President in favoring the American Plan of peaceful arbitration in the settlement of international questions without resort to war.

He insisted that the Republican platform be adhered to in reservations which would protect this country from entangling alliances.

He stands with the President in refusing to send delegates to the League of Nations.

TO HAVE DONE OTHERWISE IN ANY OF THESE PARTICULARS WOULD HAVE BEEN TO BETRAY THE TRUST OF THE PEOPLE WHO OVERWHELMINGLY ENDORSED THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Do you want an inconsistent Representative in the Senate?

Are you in favor of electing a man who declares brazenly that if he had been Senator he would have ignored the party platform, would have repudiated the President, and would have voted with seventeen insurgents and malcontents?

Or do you want a man like McKinley who consistently obeys the will of the people as expressed at the polls?

THIS IS THE REAL ISSUE IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

Forget the buncombe and get down to "brass tacks."

McKinley is constructive. He has accomplished much for Illinois and the Middle-west, because he is loyal to the people and works with and not against his party in the Senate.

Illinois Needs Him in the Senate!

Radio Wagner Gets Applause from Elmer

'Flying Dutchman' Meets 'Pinafore' on Air.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Not so good.

An off night offers the tempting opportunity for a reviewer to indulge in dangerous digressions, therefore I must proceed down this line at least thoughtfully, and as cautiously as possible.

The Chicago Heights Woman's club chorus, John Minema directing, WLS, 7:25—the hour's best offering. Pleasing selections pleasingly arranged and pleasingly sung.

I couldn't get any special kick out of anything coming on the air at 8 o'clock until upon passing WJJD, 8:15, a brass quartet was found juggling notes in an unusualy spectacular manner, followed by applause from an audience. This turned out to be the preliminary musical entertainment at the sixth anniversary meeting of the Moose Greater Chicago lodge No. 3 at Medinah temple. Speakers followed, the first being Ed J. Henning.

The Metropolitan male quartet, WMAQ, 8:30. Standard quartet selections, sung with standard quartet quality; also duets and solos.

Another woman's chorus: Chicago South Side Woman's chorus, Carl Craven directing, KYW, 9 to 10. Now, had the choral numbers and solos been presented in groups, say of some twenty minutes' duration, instead of soprano, tenor, piano, chorus in alternation, this would have been the evening's best attraction. There was a certain melodiousness about their singing that was appealing.

Right here, two things dead sure, and this applying to all stations: alternating numbers of dissimilar character do not make for program effectiveness; and, ditto for long winded announcing.

The Wagnerian picture concert by the WLS instrumental trio, 9 o'clock, came near the pretentious. Their leit motives number from "The Flying Dutchman," deserves special mention The soloist, Wolfgang Wittich, tenor was doubly interesting for his light, but pleasing voice and the added thought that he is the husband of Doris Wittich, the WLS trio's pianist.

"Pinafore" in tabloid through W-G-N, from New York had orchestral background, which made it a bit different from the usual presentations of this and similar works here, there, and everywhere.

CHIEFS PRAISE POLICEMAN FOR KILLING ROWDY

The story of what happened yesterday morning in Eddie Tolff's saloon at 2954 Lyndale avenue, where Policeman Benjamin McCarthy killed John Devine, ex-convict, and the policeman and another man were wounded, was pieced together later in the day by Capt. Patrick Harding.

Arthur Donaldson, an ex-convict paroled five months ago, and George "Sharkey" Carson, also an ex-convict and at present employed in the city license bureau, were with Devine in a drinking bout, the captain learned.

The three men became engaged in a quarrel with Ray Dalton, ex-pugilist, 640 North Drake avenue, and commenced shooting at Dalton. Policeman McCarthy was off duty and on his way home. He heard the shots and ran into the saloon, where he was immediately fired upon.

He returned the fire, killed Devine, wounded Donaldson, and was himself shot in the right arm and thigh.

Policeman McCarthy was warmly commended by Chief of Detectives Schoemaker, and it was said would be promoted to a sergeantcy. Deputy Chief John Stege called attention to the fact that police this year had killed thirteen gunmen, while only one policeman had lost his life.

Today's Winners in W-G-N's "Old Time Favorites" Radio Contest

THE first prize of $50.00 in today's "Old Time Favorites" contest, conducted by W-G-N, THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE station on the Drake hotel, is won by C. F. Henthorne, 334 Central avenue, Whiting, Ind. The three songs played last Thursday are: "I Love You Truly," "There's a Long, Long Trail," and "'Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold." The winning sentence submitted by Mr. Henthorne is: "As the soft strains of that haunting war melody, 'There's a Long, Long Trail,' come creeping through my radio the smoke from my pipe seems to form a hazy vision in 'no man's land'—and as the sinister distant rumbling of heavy artillery rolls like a thousand thunderbolts—I hear my buddy murmur in a last breath, 'I'm going down that long, long trail we used to sing about, Slim. We'll meet some day in that unknown land of dreams, won't we?'—And that was all."

The third prize, $10, goes to Leila V. Coss, Losant, Ill.

The fourth prize, $10, is won by Mrs. A. J. Ehrmann, 592 Douglas avenue, Aurora, Ill.

All five winners may receive their prizes by calling at or writing to "Old Time Favorites," Tribune Tower, Chicago.

$2,000.00 in cash prizes for letters about

DUZ

Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

You can win one of these prizes—

If you have never used DUZ we'll be glad to send you a free sample package and booklet

All you need do is write us a letter about how DUZ helps you with your washing

As you probably know, DUZ does more than just wash out dirt and grime.

DUZ also washes stained and yellowed white things as snowy-white as if they had been hung out and beautifully bleached in the sunshine. Yet it does not fade fast colors or harm the texture of silk stockings, filmy lingerie, fine linens or fluffy woolens.

It washes away all trace of perspiration, fruit juices, tea, coffee and cocoa, grimed-in grease, grass-stains and even blood—everything in fact except iron rust—without the help of stain removers and without weakening the finest fabrics.

And DUZ does away with all washboard rubbing, boiling, bluing and washday backaches. You just put about a half cupful of DUZ in a tub of warm water. (It will whisk right into abundant suds, even in hard water.) Then put your wash to soak—preferably overnight. By morning there'll be nothing left for you to do but rub the worst spots, cuffs, neck-bands, etc., between your hands—and rinse! Your clothes will be spotless, snowy-white and sweet.

DUZ kills germs as it washes! When baby's clothes or your personal underthings come out of a DUZ washing they are safe to bring in contact with the most sensitive skin. This fact has been verified by one of New York's leading bacteriological laboratories.

And DUZ is wonderful for dishes: a tasteless, odorless suds, that doesn't redden or roughen the skin, but cuts any grease and kills germs even in lukewarm water. No more "dishpan hands" when you use DUZ!

260 PRIZES for letters

105 Prizes (each)	One case DUZ (48 packages)

Rules of Contest:

1. Open to all experienced DUZ users and beginners.
2. Prizes will be awarded, by the judges, for the best letter (i. e. fullest and most interesting) on these subjects: (a) the success with which you washed delicate colored and silk fabrics in DUZ; (b) an unusual instance in which DUZ proved its stain-removing qualities; (c) what you most appreciate of all the things DUZ does for you.
3. Name the newspaper in which you read this announcement.
4. Letters must be received no later than midnight of May 10th, 1926.
5. The DUZ Company shall have the right to publish the names of prize-winners and to use all prize-winning letters in its advertising.
6. Address all letters and requests for Free Samples to DUZ Contest, Room 801, 381 Fourth Avenue, New York, N.Y.

PARIS DECREES A WHITE MAKEUP

Paris, Nov. 3—Fashionable women are now appearing everywhere with pale, white faces, which are almost startling after the old highly-rouged make-up. To be correct the skin must be a clear, unblemished milky white, unadorned except for dark red lips. This new make-up is very taxing for the woman with yellow or sallow

Whiten Your Skin Almost Over Night!

THE latest decree of fashion is a clear, snowy white makeup, relieved only by dark red lips, with little if any rouge on cheeks. And now science has made a new discovery which clears and whitens your skin with amazing quickness. Almost overnight you can clear your skin of freckles, pimples, redness, roughness, blotches, muddiness, or any blemish. This new safe, harmless discovery of science brings you back the smooth, clear, transparent skin of a baby. Make this test tonight. Smooth some of this cool fragrant creme on your neck and shoulders. Tomorrow morning see how the skin has already begun to clear.

So wonderful—so quick—are the results of this new, scientific creme that we absolutely guarantee it. Get a jar now—today. Use it for only five nights. Then if you are not delighted and amazed with the transformation your money will be instantly refunded. Ask your dealer for a jar of Golden Peacock Bleach Creme.

Sold by all Walgreen Stores, Boston Store, The Fair, Hillman's, Davis Company, Buck & Rayner, The Owl Drug, MacLean's Drug Stores, The Three Wieboldt Stores, L. Klein's Dept. Store, 12th Street Dept. TRACE EXPERTS' MOVES THROUGH BANK ACCOUNTS

Auditors Are Called to Stand in Suit.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

The task of tracing the bank accounts of the real estate experts who are defendants in the suit before Judge Hugo M. Friend was begun yesterday by attorneys for THE TRIBUNE through witnesses from various Chicago banks.

The connected story of the accounts will be woven together later by Ralph Gettys, expert accountant, who has been familiar with the accounts since the days of the special grand jury which investigated the expert scandal in 1923. Old deposit slips were produced in evidence and accounts of withdrawals shown as a basis for the Gettys testimony.

Auditors Called to Testify.

The following were witnesses:

William R. Monroe, auditor of the Standard Trust and Savings bank; on the account of Ernest H. Lyons.

C. C. Ahrensfield, auditor of the Central Trust company; on accounts of Koch & Co. and Edward C. Waller.

Clarence Anderson, auditor's clerk for the Union Trust company; for account of Charles M. Nichols.

Benjamin A. Nelson, assistant auditor of the Continental and Commercial National bank; for account of Arthur S. Merigold in the old Fort Dearborn National bank.

D. D. Kleder, assistant secretary of the Chicago Trust company; for account of Charles M. Nichols in old Michigan Avenue Trust company.

W. N. Antonisen, vice president of the Universal State bank, for account of Arnold H. Brautigam.

Tells Purpose of Evidence.

Asked to state the purpose of the Koch and Brautigam evidence, Attorney Weymouth Kirkland said to the court:

"We expect to show a transfer of certain funds that Brautigam received from Merigold to an escrow account in Koch & Co. and from an escrow to a trust account; that one-third of it was set aside for somebody in a trust account.

"We purpose to show other items in their accounts that went to the credit of Mr. Richert (a former member of the firm), and in that way we expect to show pretty conclusively, at least to us it seems pretty conclusive, who that one-third was set aside for."

Asked to explain a particular item of the Merigold account, Mr. Kirkland said to Attorney Albert Fink:

"It will take too long, Albert. I think it will take an accountant some time to tell you about it. I would like to know why he was paying his secretary so much money, for one thing."

Son Held for Stealing Bonds from Aged Mother

Albert Cohen was held to the grand jury in $15,000 bonds by Judge Max Custer yesterday on a charge of stealing $5,500 in bonds from his 63 year old mother, Mrs. Rebecca Cohen, 2435 Polk street. The son took the bonds from a deposit vault on a forged order, it is charged, and his mother notified the police.

CRIMINAL COURT.

Otis Lewis, robbery, sentenced to the penitentiary for from 1 to 10 years; Scott Mitchell, robbery, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in Pontiac reformatory, by Judge John P. McGoorty.

Twenty-six prisoners, among them Grandma Eliza Nusbaum, and her co-conspirators, Mrs. Delilah Martin, Edward Goff and Marion Stringham, were taken to the penitentiary yesterday to start serving their terms, ranging from one year to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Nusbaum, who is to serve a life sentence, and Mrs. Martin, were weeping when they were hustled into one of three automobiles. This is the largest shipment ever made at one time.

John Walton Winn, who is under sentence of death, apparently has despaired of receiving any clemency for his part in the murder of Mrs. Nusbaum's husband. He called newspaper men to his cell yesterday and announced he and grandma are innocent of the murder and he gladly would hang immediately, if that would exonerate her.

Sam Vinci, convicted of the murder of John Minatti, whom he shot during the inquest over his brother, Mike Vinci, was among those sent to Joliet. He is to serve 26 years.

In the Section of Moderately Priced Frocks

This Extraordinary Sale

Means an Exceptional Opportunity

EXTRAORDINARY is well applied to this sale. For it is so far from the usual in the values it brings that it will be regarded as an event decidedly out of the ordinary. In this section noted for frocks which smartly interpret current fashions at a moderate price, there have been assembled special groups of—

Silk Frocks Greatly Reduced To $15 and $20

The Styles	The Fabrics	The Colors
Frocks for Day-Time Wear	Supple Silk Crepes	Bois de Rose
Frocks for Afternoon	Soft Crepe Satins	Browns and Blues
Informal Evening Frocks	Printed Silk Crepes	Grays and Black

The four frocks sketched above are merely representative, but, if the details in these are noted, it will be easily realized how exceptional the values are in this sale. There is not every size and every color in every style, but throughout the assortment there is a selection which also emphasizes this sale as extraordinary.

COONEY PICKED TO FILL JOB AS CUB SHORTSTOP

Shannon Unsteady in Coast Tryout.

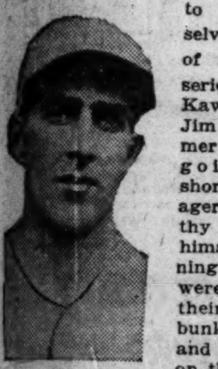
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]



JIMMY COONEY
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Kansas City, Mo., April 7.—[Special.]—If the weather permits the Cubs to show themselves in the first of a four game series with the Kaws tomorrow, Jim Cooney, former Cardinal, is going to play shortstop. Manager Joe McCarthy so declared himself this evening as his charges were piling out of their Pullman bunks after two and one-half days on the train from California. Another change that the silent leader intends to institute is the switching of Hack Wilson and Joe Munson in the batting order, and this alteration along with the insertion of Cooney at short probably will be in effect when the Bruins start the pennant grind next Tuesday at Cincinnati.

Shift Was Expected.

The substitution of Cooney for Shannon at short was the thing that everybody has been expecting since the training jaunt was two weeks old. McCarthy had great faith in Shannon, and stuck with the lad until the last minute. Now it's up to Cooney to make good on his reputation as a fielder. If he flops, McCarthy may be forced to move Adams to short and place young Beck at second. The latter is a good fielder but a light hitter.

Switching Munson and Wilson in the batting order was done for two reasons. Wilson gives indication of being the best swatsmith the Cubs possess, so the cleanup position is the logical place for him. With Munson, a left handed sticker batting third, there is less danger of double plays. Adams and Heathcote, both good men at getting on base, will precede Munson, so the man batting third is going to have plenty of chances at critical periods.

Alex for Opener.

For the opener against the Kaws tomorrow, McCarthy plans on using both Alexander and Cooper. That means one of these two is in line to hurl the season's inaugural against the Reds, and the one will be Alex if nothing happens to him in the interval.

The one thing that McCarthy now fears is cold weather. Practically every day of the seven weeks spent in California was hot or comfortably warm, so a sudden change would raise havoc with the finely trained muscles.

It Rained Out Sox, So Jim Turns to Golf

Memphis, Tenn., April 7.

Dear Don:

They didn't play any ball game here today because there was a little rain here. Now, a little rain always will stop frail fellows like ball players, but it never stops hardy golfers, as, for instance, one of the scribes and myself went out to the Country club this morning and played a couple of Memphis scribes, and I hate to say what happened. We finally got back to the clubhouse, but we looked like a couple of rats that had been drowned out of a hole. And worse than that, we left an autographed dollar bill here for these guys to put on the wall, showing that we had been properly licked.

Well, Don, getting away from the national pastime and getting back to baseball, it seems that our Sox players were disappointed today in not playing this game against the Memphis Chicks. I don't know why they call them Chicks with such fellows as Clyde Milan on the team, because I can remember in my youthful days what a swell base runner he was.

But it was all set today for Red Faber to hurl nine full innings, and Red is no kid. He and I grew up in Cascade, Ia. And I can remember his dad wheeling him in a baby carriage in the year of the World's Fair in Chicago; he was trying to get out of the carriage and walk, so you see he's no juvenile.

Well, they are going to let old Red pitch tomorrow against the Little Evas in Evansville, and the old boy from Cascade allows he will pitch the full nine innings.

Ted Lyons, the Baylor university kid, will pitch the second game against the Evas. He, too, will be asked to go the full route. Don, you know Ted was one of the best pitchers in the American league last season. I am predicting he will pitch against George Sisler's Browns next Tuesday afternoon at Comiskey park. Hollis Thurston and Tommy Thomas are about ready and will get their chance against Casey Stengle's Mud Hens Saturday and Sunday.

Well, Don, I must get ready to take the White Sox special to Evansville.

Best wishes,
JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

Chicago Lad Beats Medalist at Pinehurst

Pinehurst, N. C., April 7.—(AP)—The opening round of championship play in the annual north and south amateur golf tournament was featured today by the downfall of George T. Dunlap, Jr., youthful medalist, who was eliminated by another junior, Robert MacDougal of Chicago.

MacDougal won 2 up. The Chicago boy had a hole advantage at the turn and was never headed.

Arthur Yates of Rochester, N. Y., defending champion, won, 4 and 3, over Ellis Maples of Southern Pines, N. C., but was forced to play par golf to do so. Yates shot even fours.

Eugene Pomans of Englewood, N. J., junior Metropolitan titleholder, defeated Ellsworth Giles Jr. of Princeton, 4 and 3 and C. Ross Somerville of London, Ont., eliminated Donald Parson of Youngstown, O., 3 and 2.

Lawrence Sherrill of Tampa, Fla., won from Joe Bydolek of Buffalo, 1 up and Richard Wilson, Southern Pines, won from Palmer Maples, of Pinehurst, 2 up. N. Edgerton of Raleigh, defeated H. T. Curtiss of Greenwich, Conn., 4 and 3. The other match went to Page Hufty, Washington, over F. C. Newton, Brookline, Mass., former north and south amateur champion, 5 and 4.

ESTATE SUES FOR HALF INTEREST IN CARLARIS

San Diego, Cal., April 7.—(AP)—A half interest in Carlaris, winner of the Tia Juana Derby and Coffroth handicap, is claimed by the estate of Carl Withington, Tia Juana concession owner, in a suit filed today in Superior court by Lyle W. Withington, executor of the estate, against W. T. Anderson, in whose name the colt races. An accounting of a partnership formed in November, 1923, between Carl Withington and Anderson is asked by the executor.

This partnership was formed, the complaint declares, for the purpose of "buying, selling, dealing in, training and racing horses." Carlaris was bought by Anderson for the partnership Aug. 15, 1924. The partnership was dissolved by Withington's death on Oct. 23, last.

An interest in other horses in Anderson's stable, many of which have been sold to or claimed by other owners is claimed.

Arrow Pictures Creditors File Bankruptcy Writ

New York, April 7.—(AP)—A petition to have the Arrow Picture corporation declared in bankruptcy was filed by creditors today. The corporation came into prominence last year when it signed Red Grange, professional football star, to appear in motion pictures and announced that Grange had been given a check for $300,000 as binder.

On Monday the concern was placed in equity receivership in what officials of the company called "a friendly action" brought on by the eagerness of certain creditors whose claims could not be met at the time.

In today's petition, it was charged that the company had committed "acts of bankruptcy" making preferential payments amounting to $5,000 while insolvent.

EDMONTON GIRLS BEATEN AFTER 53 WINS IN ROW

Cleveland, O., April 7.—[U. P.]—After winning 53 games in a row the Edmonton Commercial Graduates of Canada went down to defeat before the Newman-Sterns of Cleveland in the first of their series to decide the girls' world championship. The final score was 23 to 16. It was the Canadians' first defeat in four years. The Edmonton girls worked the ball down the floor time and again, but always seemed to weaken as they reached the Cleveland girls' basket.

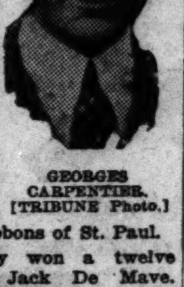
Georges Signs for Huffman Bout in N. Y.

New York, April 7.—(AP)—Georges Carpentier of France, former light heavyweight champion, and Eddie Huffman of California, today were matched to fight ten rounds at Madison Square Garden on May 21.



GEORGES CARPENTIER.

The match will mark Carpentier's first ring appearance of his present American invasion. On his visit here in 1924 he suffered a technical knockout at the hands of Gene Tunney and lost a decision to Tom Gibbons of St. Paul.

Huffman recently won a twelve round verdict over Jack De Mave. Later he boxed a draw in Newark, N. J., with Ad Stone, and lost a decision to Jack Sharkey, Boston heavyweight.

RED SOX BUY EMORY RIGNEY

Boston, Mass., April 7.—(AP)—Emory Rigney, shortstop of the Detroit Tigers for three years, has been purchased by the Boston Red Sox and will report April 15, President Bob Quinn announced tonight. The purchase price, all cash, was not disclosed. Due to differences with Ty Cobb, Detroit manager, Rigney refused to report to Detroit this year.

Jimmy Blouin Robbed of $685 and Diamond Pin

James Blouin, nationally known bowler, was robbed last night while on his way to his home at 314 Vernon avenue, Blue Island. His loss was $685 and a diamond stickpin. Blouin was in his own automobile and driving south at 123d street and Vincennes avenue when his machine was forced to the curb. There were four men in the bandit car. One held Blouin while another searched him, and the others made sure he had no revolver in the automobile.

ATTACK ON DILG AT MEETING OF WALTONS LOOMS

Foes Will Try to Force Him Out of Presidency.

Charges of mismanagement of the Izaak Walton league, which has grown to a membership of 200,000 out of doors sportsmen in four years, and deliberate attempts to ruin the league may be lodged against Will H. Dilg, founder and president of the organization, when the fourth annual convention of the Waltonians opens this morning in the Hotel Sherman. The convention will run three days.

CHARLES W. FOLDS.

The charges will be kept from the floor if Dilg will accept a post as president emeritus of the association, his accusers said last night. But should he decline the majority of the national executive committee, headed by Jack R. Cunningham, chairman, is prepared to back another candidate to head the league. The committee will have the support of Charles W. Folds, Chicago banker and national treasurer of the society.

Officials Write Charges.

In letters written by league officials Dilg is charged with saying "It was his league and he was going to run or ruin it," and that he suggested one of the league's creditors put the organization in bankruptcy. It also is charged he suggested widely known authors discontinue contributions to Outdoor America, the league's magazine, and that he had Zane Grey and a number of other authors withdraw their manuscripts.

Folds threatened to resign from the organization in a letter written Dec. 28, 1925, unless there was some change in the management.

"At the last convention, when Mr. Dilg in an address told of how he worked for love and never would take a salary, I had in my hands an accountant's statement showing Mr. Dilg had in the twelve months preceding drawn from the league $13,000 for traveling expenses, and the former Mrs. Dilg during the six months she was with the league drew $4,500," Folds wrote.

Dilg Founded League.

Dilg founded the league four years ago, with a membership of 100 in Chicago. Since that time it has grown to a membership of 200,000 in the United States, with some 3,000 chapters.

Conservation of the streams and forests and the wild life will be the keynote of the convention. Conservation of the country's natural beauty has been one of the league's most important planks since its organization, but today the measure is viewed as a financial question as well as an altruistic one.

After an address of welcome by Mayor Dever, W. S. Phillips, better known as El Commancho, hunter, trapper, and an authority on trees, will launch the drive for conservation.

IN THE WAKE OF THE NEWS

CLEVERNESS VS. PUNCHING.

SHUFFLE CALLAHAN'S technical knockout by Tommy Freeman at Cleveland was a blow which carried clear from the Forest City arena to Chicago Heights, where visions of a welterweight champion were rising. Callahan is comparatively new in the game. He is not too old to come again, if he has the stuff in him and can develop a defense to complement his punching.

Callahan's popularity was based largely on ability to polish 'em off. That is not sufficient for a champion or championship aspirant. Unless he can avoid some of 'em, he's likely to get one on the chin.

The old argument of cleverness vs. punching never will down, but our most successful boxers have possessed both qualities. Among lighter men, Joe Gans, Benny Leonard and our own Jimmy Barry were notable examples.

Looking back in ring annals, we find the great John L. Sullivan a slugger who paid little attention to science. None of his day could match his punches and they were not clever enough to avoid him until James J. Corbett came along as Sullivan was fading with age and wore him down. Corbett was the greatest boxer who ever held the title, but held the soporific punch and fell before Bob Fitzsimmons, probably the greatest fighter of his weight the ring has ever known.

Jeffries, who defeated Bob with about 50 pounds advantage in weight, was not a natural fighter by instinct, but was big and strong. He learned a crouching defense with a left hook which with his physical superiority kept him on the perch until he retired, emerging later merely a shell against Jack Johnson. Tommy Burns, in the meantime, was an accidental champion and no match in size for Johnson.

Johnson could hit. He was especially clever when his opponent came to him. He could counter and uppercut to sufficiency. He was on the down grade before Jess Willard, not a natural fighter, beat him. Willard, like Jeffries, had great strength and weight, but was not as good a miller, in our opinion. Willard rusted out from inactivity and was easy prey for Jack Dempsey, a fighter by instinct who could hit and hit hard and also had a defense when he chose to use it, although he did let the clumsy Firpo sneak one past which nearly cost his honors.

So, looking over this array, we find not a single title holder, except "Jawn L.," who rushed in regardless. Dempsey's one attempt to do so nearly proved his undoing. The lesson, if any, suggests attack alone will not suffice.

It's Spring.

A little birdie sang today,
As I sauntered down the way,
"It's Spring! It's Spring!"

A bushy squirrel in a tree
Chatted merrily to me,
"It's Spring! It's Spring!"

A bunny sitting in a field
Said in language well revealed,
"It's Spring! It's Spring!"

But how, you ask me, do I know
What the wild folks say and know—
Well, I'll tell you how I know,
It's because—it's Spring!

Suzanne National Figure.

Helper "Uncle Billy," who has just returned from the Riviera, in discussing chances for Suzanne's visit to this country, says, "Mlle. Lenglen is a national institution in France, comparable to Georges Carpentier before his defeat. She will consider not only her own but also French prestige before endangering her laurels in this country. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, even $100,000, is a great deal of money in France these days, if it's real money. It will be an interesting decision on her part."

BRITONS PROVIDE HISTORY OF GOLF BALL AT SHOW

Exhibit Tells of Early Play 400 Years Ago.

BY MORROW KRUM.

To the golfer who has a taste for history and a desire to know all about things, the exhibit of the North British Rubber company, Ltd., at the national golf and country club show, American Exposition palace, 666 Lake Shore drive, has an unusual interest.

This exhibit tells the story of the golf ball, from infancy to its present high flying perfection. If you have time to listen, a man with an accent, an accent of London and of Canada mixed, will tell you the tale.

And Here's the Story.

The story briefly follows:

The origin of the game is lost in antiquity. But in 1457 golf came into disfavor. A statute was passed that "the futeball and golfe be utterly cryit doune and not be usit," lest it interfere with archery. At that time golf was played with a ball which was a mass of feathers compactly stuffed within a hand sewn leather casing. Although used for more than 400 years it was not a good ball, for the paint came off and it wouldn't fly when wet.

In 1848 the first gutta percha ball made its appearance at St. Andrews. These were smooth spheres of gutta percha, molded by rolling in the hand. They flew heavily. Later the surfaces of the balls were rouched by pounding them with a hammer, and it seemed the roughness made the ball sail farther. The market ball was more resilient and did not "duck" at the end of flight.

Others Became Popular.

In 1898 the Haskell ball came into being. It included a rubber core, wounded with rubber thread and covered with gutta percha. In the early days of the rubber wound ball the center was made of gutta percha or vulcanized rubber, hard or soft. Since then the cores have been of many different materials. In one case a small steel ball was used in the center to give the required weight. Another patent was a pneumatic ball, having compressed air in a rubber bag in the center. Golf balls with liquid or semiliquid centers have become popular in recent years.

2,000 Want Jobs on State Boxing Comish

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—[Special.]—Gov. Small has taken no action on appointment of a state athletic commission under the boxing bill, which passed the legislature at the last session. He has 2,000 applications for places on the commission, but it is not likely that any of these will be named.

It is said that in the event the governor names a commission, he will offer the chairmanship of the board and perhaps the other places, to men who had experience with athletics in the army, or in nonprofessional training. In this connection, Gens. John Garrity and Milton Foreman have been suggested.

Quincy has voted to adopt the terms of the athletic bill and is ready to act under it when a commission is named, but a question exists on Quincy's approval. The law says it may be voted on at any general election or primary. Quincy adopted it at a township and city election. It has been expected that the Green law would be attacked in court, but nothing has developed.

CINCINNATI "Y" NEARS N. A. A. U. TEAM HONORS

Miss Geraghty Clips Breast Stroke Mark.

Point Standing

Cincinnati Y.M.C.A.	29	Olympic club, San Francisco	5
Chicago A. A.	16	Brooklyn Y.M.C.A.	4
Illinois A. C.	13	Stanford university	3
Germany	5	Detroit Yacht club	1
Venice, Cal.	5

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Two more world's records were shattered and the Cincinnati Central Y. M. C. A. practically clinched the team honors in the third batch of National A. A. U. men's indoor swimming championships held yesterday in the Loyola university and the C. A. A. pools.

ERIC RADEMACHER.
[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Erich Rademacher of Germany smashed all records for the 220 yard breast stroke by covering the distance in 2:46. The former record of 2:48 1-5 was held by Robert Skelton of the I. A. C. The German's time is by far the fastest ever made over any short course and his performance stamps him as the greatest athlete in the world at this style of swimming.

Spence Makes Game Fight.

Rademacher, however, was pressed closely by Walter Spence of the Brooklyn Central Y. M. C. A., who was the champion last year in this event. The American and German swimmers swam stroke for stroke until the final lap, when Spence got off his course and Rodemacher gained a two foot lead, which he held to the finish. The German used a powerful stroke, one which reminded swimming coaches of the style used by Mike McDermott of the I. A. C., who held the national title in this event for ten consecutive years.

The other world's record to fall was the women's 100 yard breast event for 60 foot pools. Miss Agnes Geraghty of the women's swimming association of New York covered the distance in 1:31, which broke the world's long course record of 1:31 4-5, held by Miss I. Gilbert of England. Miss Geraghty swam the distance without competition, which made her performance all the more commendable.

Arne Borg of the I. A. C. retained his title in the 220 yards free style swim. The tri-color star went into the lead at the start and never was challenged seriously, although Harry Glancy of the Cincinnati Central Y. M. C. A. finished about two yards back. Walter Laufer of the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. finished third, but did not extend himself. He went into the race to win the point for third place and accomplished his purpose.

C. A. A. Wins Relay.

The 200 yards championship relay race was held in the Loyola university pool yesterday afternoon and resulted in a victory for the C. A. A. by a touch. This race was a repetition of the 400 yard relay held the previous night when the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. defeated the I. A. C. and C. A. A. in the greatest relay race ever held in a Chicago pool. The Cherry Circle quartet covered the distance in 1:38.

Johnny Weissmuller, the swimming ace of the I. A. C., did not compete in yesterday's events. Johnny left a sick bed to swim in Tuesday night's relay and the strain proved too much and he was ordered by his physician to keep out of the remaining events. His absence practically means the loss of the championships, an honor which I. A. C. teams have held for years.

With six events yet to be decided and Cincinnati leading by thirteen points, victory for the Ohioans is almost a certainty. Laufer should win or place in the 100 yard free style and medley swims to be held tonight. Glancy should score in the 500 yards' swim tomorrow night, and Laufer is expected to take the 150 yards back stroke. Cincinnati will not be represented in the water polo competition.

Events Tonight at the I. A. C.

The scene will shift tonight to the I. A. C. where the 100 yards free style swim, high springboard diving, medley swim, and preliminaries in water polo will be held. In the medley, the contestants will swim 100 yards free style, 100 yards back stroke, and 100 yards breast stroke. Summaries:

200 YARDS RELAY—Won by C. A. A. [Jones, Topp, Greenberg, Breyer]; Cincinnati Y. M. C. A., second; I. A. C., third. Time 1:38.

220 YARDS BREAST STROKE—Won by Erich Rademacher, Germany; Walter Spence, Brooklyn Central Y. M. C. A., second; Donald McClellan, Detroit Yacht club, third. Time 2:46 [new world's record].

220 YARDS FREE STYLE SWIM—Won by Arne Borg, I. A. C.; Harry Glancy, Cincinnati Y. M. C. A., second; Walter Laufer, Cincinnati Y. M. C. A., third. Time, 2:15 4-5.

Tonight's program will be concluded with exhibitions by men and women swimmers.

FIGHT FOR GAS TAX REVIVED BY CUT IN EXCISE

Illinois One of Five States Without Fuel Levy.

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Reduction of two per cent in the excise tax levied by the federal government on the sale of new cars is the signal for various state campaigns to increase gasoline taxes and other forms of motor levies, according to officials of automobile clubs and manufacturers' associations who are preparing now to combat the increased tax proposals expected to appear this summer and fall.

Motorists of the United States paid a total of $126,709,932 in gasoline taxes last year, the clubs point out. A part of this money went into the building of new roads or improvement of old ones, but a large percentage went into entirely unrelated departments of state governments. Some of it was used to retire ancient state debts in the south, contracted long before the automobile made its appearance. California car owners and visiting tourists paid a total of $13,737,892 in gasoline taxes alone, contributing more than 10 per cent of the total fuel levy.

Illinois is one of the five states in the union that does not levy a gasoline tax despite its mammoth highway pavement program and its huge road expenditures. Two sessions of the legislature have considered gas tax measures, the last furore subsiding only after the state highway department officially announced that this additional revenue is not needed to carry on the state road improvement program.

Rumors of a new fuel tax campaign are again in the air, according to reports from various cities downstate. The campaign is not expected to reach serious proportions, however, because of the delay in completing the state's original $60,000,000 bond issue system of paved roads and the consequent tieup in beginning the second $100,000,000 bond issue work. The second bond issue funds are available for new road work, but cannot be used until all gaps are filled in the original highway system.

HUMBLES SIGNS FOR MAT CLASH WITH HADJICK

Lee Humbles, the colored middleweight, and Tony Hadjick, Portage Park's Bohemian grappler, have been matched in the windup of the show at the Broadway armory next Wednesday night. It will be a finish contest, best two in three falls. The windup will be supported by three other bouts between middleweights.

Marin Plestina, under the management of Steve Savage, will meet George Hills in the feature of the bouts at the Star and Garter tomorrow night. Jack Sherry and Charley Darwin will be the principals in the other contest.

Postoffice Baseball Loop Elects Officers for Year

Members of the Chicago Postoffice baseball league elected officers for the 1926 season at their weekly meeting held in the Federal building last night. Carl Soderquist was elected president; Walter De Laby vice president, William McEvoy, secretary and chief of umpires; W. Mulich, treasurer, and Alex Trostrud, publicity director.

Commercial League Has Room for More Clubs

The Chicago Commercial league will open May 1; the twilight zone starting the following week. There is room for a few more clubs in the circuit, officials said last night. Industrial managers will meet tonight at 37 South Wabash avenue, sixth floor.

Noah Wins by 3 Lengths in Bowie Mud

Bowie, Md., April 7.—Noah, from Harry Payne Whitney's stable, galloped to an easy three lengths victory over Storm King and Cudgeller in the Princeton handicap of 5½ furlongs here today. Four horses started and Chink the extreme outsider was last most of the way. The time was 1:07 4-5 and was considered good over the heavy track.

Springlike weather brought out a big crowd. In the companion feature, an event for 3 year olds, Nat Evans won after an exciting brush with Harry Payne Whitney's Rapture.

Jockey Froggate took the riding honors with three winning mounts. He was first with Blacksmith in the second, won with MacBeth in the third and was first home on Eager in the sixth.

JEWISH SOCCER TEAM ON WAY FOR U. S. PLAY

A cable was received at the Chicago offices of the Hakoah Sport club that the famous Jewish soccer players had left Vienna, Austria, for the United States. Eighteen members of the squad, headed by Dr. Felix, composed the party. They will arrive in New York on April 16.

The Hakoah club's first appearance here will be against Sparta, leaders of the Major league, at Comiskey park on May 9.

Four Games on K. of C. Basket Card Tonight

Four games constitute tonight's round of play in the Knights of Columbus basketball championship series at Broadway Armory.

Marquette is billed against Damen in one of the feature contests and some of league's followers see a possibility of Marquette's first defeat in the title round. Marquette has won its first three contests, but Damen's powerful showing against De Soto last Sunday indicates that the leaders are in for a hard battle.

De La Salle, central division champ, will meet Setters. Both fives have accurate basket shooters and a high score is anticipated.

De Soto and Loyola-Hyde Park will collide in a game that may mean elimination from the flag race for the losing team. Each team has lost one game in the title round. Calumet and Fort Dearborn clash in the other tilt.

True Stories of Service Rendered Motorists
No. 2

The Chicago Motor Club maintains branches in 38 counties in northern Illinois and northern Indiana. In this territory members receive free touring, legal, and mechanical first aid service. Read what Mr. P. H. West of Gary has to say about the service rendered him:

"During the past few weeks I have had occasion to use the Motor Club service in Gary considerably, owing to ignition trouble on my car, and I wish to thank the Gary branch for the very prompt and careful service rendered in response to each call.

"Recently my son had the car in Chicago and was stalled completely. He called your headquarters, a service car was sent and the mechanic used his best efforts to start the car, but was obliged finally to have it towed in to the C. & B. Service Garage at 6107 Prairie Avenue, where the car was later repaired and put into operation at a nominal expense.

"I wish particularly to compliment the C. & B. Service Garage for their very good service. Also on request from me by phone they took the trouble to notify my son that the car was ready to run and could be had when called for."

This letter is typical of thousands received by the club. Let us tell you how you can cut your motoring expenses through membership in the club:

HASSEL'S SHOES

Hassel's
"Princeton"

"The Princeton" is a wonderful combination of smart style, excellent quality and fine workmanship. In rich imported tan or black calf, $9.

Judging by the number of men who are coming here, it would seem that everybody is doing spring shoe buying now.

There are thousands of Chicago men, young and old, who come here, year after year, whenever they need shoes; because they always find just what they want. Hassel's shoes always fit; they're worth every cent we ask for them.

More than that; they know that if we ever make a mistake; sell them a poor pair, or the wrong shoes, we'll make it right. Our "satisfaction or money back" guaranty takes care of that.

CHICAGO AND NORTH WESTERN LINE

MANDELL, BROWN HONED TO RAZOR EDGE FOR BOUT

Both in Line for Shot at Title.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Harry Brown of Philadelphia and Sammy Mandell of Rockford, who meet in the windup of the boxing show at East Chicago tomorrow night, finished training yesterday and will engage only in light gymnasium workouts today.

Both Brown and Mandell are in line for a match with Rocky Kansas for the world's lightweight championship. Managers of both battlers have offered the title holder substantial sums to meet their fighters, but Rocky intends to hold the title until he is forced by the New York athletic commission to meet the logical challenger. Eddie Kane, manager of Mandell, is now in Detroit trying to close for a Kansas match which will involve the championship.

Callahan to Take Lessons.

Other boxers on the East Chicago card came through the final day of boxing without injury and the card will stand as advertised, according to Promoter Mullen.

Shuffle Callahan of Chicago Heights, who was knocked out by Tommy Freeman at Cleveland last Tuesday night, returned to Chicago yesterday a disappointed fighter. Callahan is convinced he must learn some of the fundamentals of boxing, and to accomplish this will start to take lessons next week. Shuffle, while disappointed, is not disheartened. He intends to make a fresh start to regain the position he held in the welterweight ranks before the Freeman match.

The only consolation Callahan got out of the fight was that he was not counted out. The referee stopped the bout when Shuffle was helpless on the ropes in the eleventh round.

Freeman Too Clever.

Callahan's defeat was the chief conversation along the boxing rialto yesterday. Many claim Manager Eddie Kane should not have matched him with such a clever fighter as Freeman. It was admitted on all sides that Callahan will knock down most any fighter he can hit, but he was unable to get a square sock at Freeman's jaw because of Tommy's uncanny knack of slipping punches and weaving in and out and up and down.

Jimmy Goodrich of Buffalo, the former world's lightweight champion, passed through Chicago yesterday on his way to the coast, where he is matched to meet Ace Hudkins and Tommy O'Brien next month. Jimmy worked at Mullen's and took an evening train for Los Angeles.

Phil Collins, a member of Naval post No. 372, American Legion, announces his organization solidly behind the boxing bill, which will be voted upon next Tuesday. Collins states members of the various Legion posts will be stationed at the polls to aid in the passage of the measure.

Billy Gibson, manager of Gene Tunney, the American light heavyweight champion, is positive his fighter will meet either Jack Dempsey or Harry Wills for the world's heavyweight title in the east this summer or early fall.

Sally Montgomery, former football player of Center college, who stopped his last two opponents in one round, was matched last night to box Jack Renault in a ten round bout at St. Louis April 22.

TEX POSTPONES TRIP TO CHICAGO UNTIL APRIL 15

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—The contemplated trip of Promoter Tex Rickard to Chicago has been deferred until after April 15, the promoter announced today. Whether the visit will have any connection with his plans for a heavyweight title match between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney, Rickard would not say. He insisted the trip would be made in connection with his plans for building an arena in Chicago.

At the same time, however, it is significant that April 15 is the date on which the contract for the proposed Dempsey-Harry Wills fight, signed at Niles, Mich., stipulates cash forfeits guaranteeing a Dempsey-Wills bout must be posted or the contract will be automatically abrogated.

Reiselt Beats Maupome in Two Three Cushion Games

Cleveland, O., April 7.—[Special.]—Otto Reiselt of Philadelphia, beat Pierre Maupome in both of their National three cushion billiard league games here today. He won the opening contest, 50 to 49, in 58 innings, and the second, 50 to 37, in 45 sessions.

Women Track Stars to Race in Meet Here

Although chief interest in the bankers' track meet at the Broadway armory tomorrow night will center about the performance of Charley Hoff of Norway, world's pole vault champion, and Dehart Hubbard, colored athlete, who holds the broad jump mark, the girls' events are attracting considerable attention.

Nellie Todd on Program.

Chief among the women track stars who will perform is Miss Nellie Todd, the diminutive Midwest A. C. star, chief rival of Helen Filkey for the title of all around champion. Miss Todd holds the world's record in the 80 yard high hurdles. She will run in the 70 yard dash and in the Midwest A. C. relay team. Other members of the Midwest team are Norma Zilk, world's champion in the 80 yard dash; Dorothy Smith, Dorothy McWilliams, Catherine Hopp, and Myrtle Born.

Hoff After New Mark.

In his second appearance in Chicago, Charley Hoff will again attempt to better his own indoor record in the pole vault. Entered against him are Harold McKown, I. A. C.; Laddie Meyers, C. A. A., and Ed Knourek, I. A. C.

Hubbard will compete in the special 70 yard low hurdles. Other entries include Taylor of the I. A. C. and Wallace, Brickman, and Vilas of the C. A. A.

The bankers' mile, another feature event, will bring together such stars as Ray Dodge and Egil Krogh, I. A. C.; Jimmy Cusack of the University of Chicago, and his conference rival, Alvo Martin of Northwestern.

Cleveland Beats Brooklyn in First Title Cage Game

Cleveland, O., April 7.—(AP)—Overcoming Brooklyn's lead two minutes before the game ended, Cleveland tonight won the first game of the series for the world's American league basketball championship. The score was Cleveland, 36; Brooklyn, 33.

McGraw Peers Into Future; Sees Park Seating 100,000

New York, April 7.—(AP)—A Washington-New York world's series next October, and an era of baseball prosperity, which will soon find stadia seating at least 100,000 spectators in every major league city, were forecasts of John McGraw today on the fifty-third anniversary of his birth.

JOHN McGRAW.
[Thompson Photo.]

Linking the financial success of the national pastime with its development in this city, the veteran Giants' pilot asserted that winning teams in New York were necessary for continued prosperity of the game. "When interest languishes here, it soon falls off all over the country," he said.

"In the light of my experience in baseball, I can see only bigger and better things, with new and greater stadia all over the major circuits.

Pirates Cheap in 1890.

"Some idea of the growth of the game may be found in the fact that in 1890 I could have bought the Pittsburgh Nationals for $35,000. You could not buy the club for any amount now.

"When I broke into New York twenty-five years ago as manager of the Giants, major league baseball was a losing venture. The clubs at the top usually made a little money, but at least five others always lost. Now it's a rare thing for a club to finish with a deficit. Twenty years ago you would have been lucky to draw 300 or 400 at an exhibition game in the south. Now at least four or five thousand fans turn out.

Raw! Raw! For Gotham.

"Behind all this success you will find New York. We took the lead in raising the standard of the personnel. We also showed the way in providing better accommodations for the spectators, putting up the first steel and concrete stadium in the game.

"I am more than eager this year to win the National league pennant. On paper we look like the best team.

"In the American league, I expect the Senators to come through again. I have a high regard for Mack's Athletics, but they do not impress me as being as well balanced or as smart a team as the Senators."

YANKEE TEAM TRAILS FIELD IN PARIS BIKE RACE

PARIS, April 7.—(AP)—The end of the first 48 hours of the six day bicycle race found the French team, Ougnot and Baron, in first place with 125 points, and a total distance covered of 1,214 kilometers [about 820 miles].

The American team, McNamara and Horan, was still a lap behind the others, having been penalized for Horan's absence from the track the first night because of an accident.

HAGEN TO PLAY IN AUSTRALIA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SYDNEY, April 7.—It is stated here that Walter Hagen will compete in the Australian golf championships at Adelaide at the end of August. The following Australian golfers are preceeding to England to compete in the British championships, and afterwards going to America:

Tom Howard, professional champion of Australia; Frederick Popplewell. open champion; Carnegie Clark. former open champion; and Harry Sinclair, amateur champion.

Five parks participated for the championship honors.

Kieckhefer Finishes Third in Three Cushion League

By breaking even with Gus Copulos of Detroit, Mich., at the Kieckhefer recreation room yesterday Augie Kieckhefer closed his National Three Cushion Billiard league season's schedule in third place, while Copulos finished fourth. A few games are yet to be played to decide the national championship. Augie won the first block yesterday, 50 to 39, in 49 innings, while Copulos took the evening game, 50 to 46, in 47 innings.

Flycatcher Uses Castoff Skins of Snakes in Nest

BY BOB BECKER.

Monticello, Ind.—[To the Editor.]—I would like some information on correct sizes of nesting boxes and entrance holes in them for the following birds: Crested flycatcher, chicadee, and nuthatch. I see the chicadee and nuthatch at my feeding station all winter. GEORGE BIEDERWOLF.

Answer—Have you any pieces of castoff snakeskins? Better gather a few together for the crested flycatcher, as he is keen about reptilian decorations for his nest. A nesting box for this species should have a floor cavity 6x6 inches, depth 10 inches, and entrance hole (2 inches wide) 8 inches above the floor. Make the box of natural wood with the bark on and put it up not higher than 20 feet or less than 8 from the ground. The natural nest of the crested flycatcher is made in a hole in a tree and consists of roots, grasses, and twigs, with generally a piece of snake skin.

A nesting box for a chicadee should have the following dimensions: Floor cavity, 4x4 inches, depth of cavity 8 to 10 inches, entrance above the floor 8 inches, diameter of entrance 1⅛ inches, height above the ground 6 to 15 feet. Put the box on a post of a dead tree in an old orchard or woods in the lowlands.

Sometimes you can induce Mr. Blackcap to occupy a nesting box close to a feeding station. Why don't you try it? The white breasted nuthatch will take a box of these same dimensions.

CHICAGOANS WIN IN CUE TOURNEY

Four games were played yesterday in the midwest amateur championship three cushion tournament at Mussey's Madison street room. Because of illness Richard Hester, Chicago entrant, was forced to withdraw from the race. His place was filled by Fred Smith, another Chicagoan. Both the newcomer and Roy Olde of Detroit, Mich., were defeated during the day's play.

Robert Lord of Chicago beat the Michigan player, 50 to 29, in 68, after which Ed Fisher of Chicago also handed the loser a 50 to 47 beating in 86 sessions. Smith dropped the first contest to L. C. Hine, Chicago, 50 to 39, in 87 sessions, and the second in 71 innings, to Gene Deardorf of St. Louis, Mo., 50 to 36.

CHICAGO PLAYER REACHES INDOOR TENNIS FINALS

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—C. Suydam Cutting of New York, and George Huband of Chicago, will meet in the final round of the National amateur court tennis championship at the Racquet and Tennis club tomorrow.

In the semi-finals today Cutting defeated J. W. Appel Jr., of this city, 6—1, 6—0, 6—3, while Huband advanced after a hard fought match with W. C. Wright of Philadelphia, winning 6—4, 6—4, 7—5.

The winner of tomorrow's match may capture the national championship without the necessity of meeting Jay Gould in the challenge round. The Philadelphia master, who has held the title since 1906, had not decided today whether he will defend the honors.

LATE RALLIES BOOST WHEAT; CLOSES AT TOP

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Local traders were decidedly bearish on wheat early, and with pressure from houses with eastern connections, and unloading by some of the operators who bought on Tuesday, May declined to a low of $1.56⅛, or 1⅝c under the finish of the previous day. A heavily oversold condition, however, was disclosed toward the close and general short covering carried prices up 1⅛@1⅝c from the low point with the finish about the top with prices unchanged to ⅝c higher. May closed at $1.58 to $1.57⅞; July, $1.36⅛ to $1.36, and September, $1.31¼.

Coarse grains showed a decidedly firm undertone throughout the day and closed about the top with all deliveries of oats at a new high on the present movement. Corn finished 1⅛@1⅝c higher with May 72⅜c to 72¼c, and July 76⅝c to 76½c, while oats were ⅜@½c higher with May 41⅝c, and July 42¼c. Rye led the advance in all grains and was up 1⅝@2c with May 89½c, and July 90⅝c.

Outside Trade Light.

Trade in wheat was almost entirely of a professional character, but the way in which the market absorbed the eastern pressure caused some change in sentiment, and the rally was easily attained, as the local element were oversold when values started upward. There was a noticeable lack of export demand at the seaboard with sales of not over 250,000 bu in all positions.

Foreign markets showed strength with Liverpool wheat ¼@½d lower, May there going to 5¼c over Chicago against 4⅞c over at the finish on Tuesday. Buenos Aires closed unchanged to ½c higher with May $1.41 and June $1.43¼. Minneapolis May was ⅝c higher, with May there ⅝c under Chicago. Winnipeg was ⅛@¼c higher at the last. Cash demand here was only fair with the basis somewhat easier on hard winter. Exporters took 35,000 bu durum.

More moisture was forecasted for the southwest overnight and all reports from that section were of a favorable character. Foreign crop cables generally told of favorable conditions, although the season in some countries is late.

Corn in Sharp Advance.

The pit element were on the selling side of corn futures early, with May selling off ⅝c to a low of 70⅞c, but the break was taken advantage of by commission houses to buy on a moderate scale, and a wave of short covering came toward the last which lifted values 1⅝@1⅝c from the inside figure. There was nothing in the news to account for the buying, and the eastern demands remains slow. Weekly weather and crop report said little field work had been done owing to unfavorable weather. Sales of 150,000 bu were made to go to store.

Continued wet weather is causing a serious delay in oats seeding and with other grains strong prices advanced to a new high on the present movement with the finish at the top. Outside interest is increasing slowly. There was considerable spreading between May and July at ½c difference. Export sales at the seaboard were small. There was little pressure on rye and with buying by houses with seaboard and foreign connections an advance was easily attained.

ALL HAY IS WANTED

All hay was taken freely yesterday, even marsh hay and straw moved faster and the market held strong. Shippers were fair buyers, and arrivals 33 cars timothy and clover and 2 cars South Dakota prairie. Prices follow:

CASH·GRAIN NEWS

Export demand for grain at the seaboard was decidedly limited, and it is doubtful if sales of wheat in all positions exceeded 250,000 bu. Possibly 100,000 bu barley was sold abroad, but claims of a liberal business in oats could not be confirmed.

Chicago handlers sold 8,000 bu wheat, 65,000 bu corn, 30,000 bu oats, and 10,000 bu barley to the domestic trade, with 35,000 bu durum wheat to exporters. There was 150,000 bu corn sold to go to store.

Basis on cash wheat here was easier, with No. 2 red nominally 5@8c over May and No. 2 hard was 2½@7c over. Premiums on red winter at St. Louis and Kansas City were 1c higher and on hard winter unchanged. Minneapolis reported a better demand, with spring wheats unchanged to 1c higher compared with May, and shipping sales of 70,000 bu, including 20,000 bu to the east at opening of lake navigation.

Offerings of cash corn were not large, but the demand was only fair and the spot basis ½c higher to 1c lower. No. 3 grades brought 1⅝@3c, No. 4 grades 4@8½c, No. 5 grades 10@11¼c, and No. 6 grades 11½@13½c under May. Outside markets were ½c lower to 1c higher.

Demand for cash oats was fair, with the basis steady to ¼c better. No. 2 white sold at ⅝@1c and No. 3 white at ½@¾c over May.

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Wednesday: Wheat, 5 cars; corn, 103 cars; oats, 46 cars; barley, 14 cars.

NEWS OF THE CROPS

"Winter wheat is generally in good condition in the southwest, and is heading in the lower valleys of Arizona," says the government weekly weather crop bulletin. "Oats and barley were slightly damaged by the freeze in Kansas and Oklahoma, but are generally fair to good in Oklahoma. The heavy snowfall over the greater part of the winter wheat belt, while retarding growth, was beneficial in protecting the grain from cold and supplying needed moisture. Planting of spring wheat was delayed and growth of all small grains was at a standstill on account of cold wet weather, although there was some progress in the south. Early planted corn was damaged in Oklahoma, and germination was slow, both in that state and in Texas, necessitating much replanting. Little preparation for planting was possible in the corn belt, and field work was practically suspended by reason of cold and wet weather."

"The week was the most wintry ever known so late in the season," says the Kansas weekly weather report. "A foot of snow, or more fell in some eastern counties. The snow furnished abundant moisture for wheat and spring crops in all parts, except a few northwest sections. Oats were up in the southern section. Oats planting in northern counties has not been completed, and crop was damaged but not serious.

RALLY IN PROVISIONS

Provision prices after declining early on renewed liquidation on stop orders ran into a good class of buying, and the early loss of 10@15c in lard futures was regained at the last, the close being at the best prices with values unchanged to 5c higher. Short ribs were neglected and unchanged, and bellies unchanged to 5c higher. Late strength in grains helped to create a better feeling. There has been a decline of late of more than 1c per lb and a rally was due.

Cash trade in provisions was slow, and all weights of dry salted bellies were ½c lower, and heavy green and sweet pickled picnics were ¼@½c lower. Exports were light.

Hogs closed strong and higher with arrivals small, although the western run was in excess of a week ago. Slaughtering in the west last week as given by the Price Current-Grain Reporter was 441,500 hogs, against 529,100 the previous week, and 395,000 hogs last year. Prices follow:

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET NEWS

The trend of May wheat values is depending on the action of a few traders who are selling on bulges and buying on breaks. So far as known there has been no change in the position of the leading interests, who are credited with being heavily short. In some instances a few large operators are apparently trading on their prestige and of late have made numerous successful turns.

Selling of May wheat and buying of July is on a liberal scale by professionals and commission houses. The impression is that longs are getting out of their May and putting their lines into July. Yesterday's spread was 21⅞ to 22c.

Cash haldlers say there is no profit in bringing No. 2 northern spring wheat here for May delivery, even though it is only 3½c over the May. It is well for the trade to remember that No. 2 northern spring is deliverable here at 8c under the new May. It was said a cash handler bought 10,000 bu wheat in Minneapolis to come here for the milling trade as such wheat is scarce in Chicago.

"The south is short of May wheat and long July," said S. P. Arnot, who has spent the last three weeks in that section, mostly in New Orleans and Texas. "They are selling May on the big premium over the July, regardless of the fact that there is no stock of wheat here and May is a different proposition from July. He expresses himself as bearish on everything except May wheat.

"When the trade gets to a point where nothing has any value, and it looks as though it would never go up, it is about time to get off the bear side." This was the opinion expressed by a large cash handler, who added: "It looks as though that was about the situation in corn."

Part of the advance in corn was due to covering by a local short, who had offers bought and got in partly through them at the last. Those who had them sold were forced to protect themselves and in doing so helped to advance prices because of the light offerings.

COTTON MAKES GAINS

Cotton values were strengthened by shorts covering on unfavorable planting reports. Liverpool was strong and closed 9@10 points higher. A bullish situation regarding planting was given by the government's weekly crop report, and there was no selling of consequence until prices had made a fair advance, when profit taking developed and prices eased. At the close futures were 2@12 points higher, and spots up 10@15 points. New York spots were 19.30c and New Orleans 18.35c. Prices in leading markets follow:

WALL STREET NOTES

NEW YORK, April 7.—(AP)—Heavy profit taking in the baking and public utility shares turned the course of prices irregularly lower in today's curb market. Continental Baking A dropped more than 6 points to 87⅛ and then rallied to 88⅛, and Continental Baking B and General Baking A showed net losses of 1⅛ and 2⅝, respectively.

American Light and Traction broke 13 points to 204. Electric Bond and Share slumped nearly 4 points to 65⅛ and American Power and Light, Associated Gas and Electric, Commonwealth, and Electric Investors lost a point or so.

Prairie Oil and Gas reacted a point and Reiter-Foster 1⅝. Goodyear Tire, which sold as low as 34 in the early trading, rallied to above 35 in the last hour. Electric Refrigeration, Foundation Company Foreign, Victor Talking Machine were heavy, the last named duplicating it year's low of 74. Lambert Company rallied 3 points and a further gain was recorded in Freshman Radio.

The committee on listings of securities of the curb market ruled today that all contracts made on the exchange in the new Pittsburgh and West Virginia preferred and common stocks were void because of the abandonment of the road's original plan for a change in capital structure.

A vigorous forward movement took place in the bond market. The demand embraced a wide assortment of representative bonds, including the American Telephone issues, New York Telephone 6s, Southwestern Bell Telephone 5s, Bell Telephone of Pennsylvania 5s, Consumers Power 5s, Public Service of New Jersey 6s, Detroit Edison 6s, Toledo Edison 5s, and Consolidated Gas 5½s.

Belgian bonds responded to the brighter outlook for the negotiation of an international loan. French, German, and other European issues joined in the advance.

A firm undertone prevailed in the carrier bonds. Atchison general 4s sold at the highest level of the year and Delaware and Hudson convertible 5s, International Great Northern adjustment 6s, Missouri Pacific first 6s, New Haven 3½s and 4s, Seaboard Air Line first 4s, Southern Pacific collateral 4s, and Wabash second 5s scored substantial gains.

Some of the so-called receivership bonds, including American Writing Paper, Wilson & Co., and Virginia-Carolina Chemical issues, gained 1 to 4 points. Skelly 6½s were heavy.

Belgian francs rallied nearly 20 points to above 3.90c. Demand sterling and French francs held firm around $4.85⅞ and 3.48c, respectively. Japanese yen were slightly firmer, but the other far eastern exchanges were weak, Indian rupees falling below 36c.

New Corporation to Take Over United Cigar Stores

New York, April 7.—(AP)—Control of the United Cigar Stores Company of America will pass to the newly organized Union and United Tobacco corporation, a $250,000,000 Maryland concern, it was reported in Wall street today. While no official comment is available, it is understood that the United Cigar Stores stock held by the Tobacco Products corporation will be transferred to the new corporation, which has made sufficient purchases for its own account, combined with the Tobacco Products holdings, to give it ownership of between 90 and 95 per cent of United stock. The new corporation, which is a holding as well as an operating company, may eventually offer to exchange its own shares for minority holdings of United stock outstanding.

Eastman Kodak Company Earnings Are $18,467,113

Rochester, N. Y., April 7.—(AP)—Earnings of the Eastman Kodak company in 1925 reached $18,467,113, according to the annual report made public tonight. The earnings in 1924 were $17,201,815. The company paid dividends of $8 a share on common stock, the dividends totalling $16,231,640 as compared with $16,267,400 in 1924. Surplus for the year is estimated at $1,751,731.93 after charging off depreciation and providing for dividends on common stock and four quarterly dividends of one and one-half per cent on preferred stock.

JADWIN NAMED AS ARMY CHIEF OF ENGINEERS

BRIG. GEN. EDGAR JADWIN.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—Brig. Gen. Edgar Jadwin was named today to succeed Maj. Gen. Harry Taylor as chief of engineers, United States army. The appointment will take effect on June 26, when Gen. Taylor retires on reaching the age limit. The appointment runs for four years and during that period Gen. Jadwin will wear the title of major general.

Promotions, appointments and reappointments affecting eight other high ranking army officers were sent to the senate today by President Coolidge.

Col. Herbert Deakyne was named to be assistant chief of engineers, Col. Harry F. Rethers to be assistant quartermaster general, and Col. William P. Jackson to be brigadier general.

CANADA PUTS O. K. ON ST. LAWRENCE ELECTRIC PLANT

Ottawa, Ont., April 7.—The Canadian parliament today indorsed the principle of development of the St. Lawrence river for power purposes. The development which is proposed by the Ontario hydro-electric commission in conjunction with the United States involves some 6,000,000 horse power on both sides of the river, which will be divided between the two nations if the American government participates.

Included in the resolution of Representative Church, Toronto Conservative, which the government permitted to pass, was the declaration that the Ontario hydro-electric commission should also be given power to use an increase flow of water from the Niagara river for power development purposes. This proposal is under discussion with the American government.

Charles Stewart, speaking for the Canadian government, said the report of the joint engineering board was expected in June, after which a development permit would immediately be forthcoming. What Canada and the United States were endeavoring to decide now was whether there should be American and Canadian developments or a single joint plant.

Representative MacLean, Ontario, urged that the canalization of the St. Lawrence plan be approved at the same time and entry provided into Lake Ontario for ocean vessels.

Bond Salesmen
WANTED

One of our clients, a member of the New York Stock Exchange, has openings for three bond salesmen with clientele. To the right men seeking permanent positions they offer an opportunity to sell the highest grade of investment securities, including the offerings of the large houses of issue; compensation in the form of salary plus substantial commissions; the personal direction of experienced executives; a broad territory, as this sales organization is still comparatively small.

The Right Time to Buy Bonds

BOND MEN are often asked the question—"Is this a good time to buy bonds?" One who asks this question is confusing speculation with investment.

Good Municipal, Public Utility and Industrial Bonds have a stable value. They should be bought for safety and income—not with profit-making possibilities in mind. Their price fluctuations, from day to day, amount to very little. Even if one could always "guess" the market correctly, the slight gains he might make by buying at a lower price would, in a majority of cases, be more than offset by the interest loss on his funds while he was withholding them from investment.

There can be but one answer to the question as to the right time to buy bonds. The right time to buy bonds is whenever you have money to invest.

UNITED FUEL & SUPPLY COMPANY
Detroit, Michigan

FIRST MORTGAGE 6% GOLD BONDS

Authorized: $5,000,000
Dated April 15, 1926
Outstanding: $2,400,000
Due April 15, 1941

Principal and semi-annual interest (April 15 and October 15), payable at Detroit Trust Company, Detroit, Trustee, or at The New York Trust Company, New York. Coupon bonds in denominations of $1,000 and $500, registerable as to principal. Redeemable as a whole or in part at any time upon 30 days' published notice, at 105 and interest up to and including April 15, 1932, and thereafter at ½ of 1% less each year to maturity. Interest payable without deduction for Normal Federal Income Tax not in excess of 2%. The Company agrees to reimburse the holder, if requested within 90 days after payment, for the Pennsylvania and Connecticut Four-Mill Tax, for the Maryland Four and One-Half-Mill Tax, for the Massachusetts Income Tax not in excess of 6%, and for any future Michigan Income Tax not in excess of 4%.

Company

United Fuel & Supply Company, a Michigan corporation, has acquired certain of the assets and business of Superior Sand & Gravel Company and United Fuel & Supply Company (old company), as well as certain of the assets formerly owned by Delta Brick & Tile Company, Superior Plaster Company, Birmingham Sand & Gravel Company, and Detroit Steamship Company, together with a 55% stock interest in Huron Sand & Gravel Company.

The Company engages in the distribution of building supplies in Detroit and adjacent territory, the largest business of its kind in Michigan, and one of the largest in the United States. It also conducts extensive operations in the sale of fuel and the manufacture of plaster and cement products. The yards, docks and plants are, in the opinion of competent engineers, especially adapted by their location to the efficient and unified operation of the business. The Company operates 18 yards with a total area of 121 acres. Eight yards, aggregating 56 acres, are extremely valuable dock properties, located on the Detroit River. It also owns a fleet of 7 steamships, and 148 motor trucks, cars and tractors, and has over 1,000 employes.

Security

This issue will be secured by a direct first mortgage on all fixed tangible assets of the Company, except marine and motor equipment, and leasehold interests.

The real estate alone has been appraised by the Detroit Trust Company, as of January 1, 1926, as follows:

Land	$4,643,449
Buildings and Improvements	862,565
Total Value	$5,506,014

The machinery and equipment under this mortgage have been appraised by The J. G. White Engineering Corporation, as of January 1, 1926, at $826,082, making a total appraised value of the mortgaged property of $6,332,096. The total tangible assets, including net current assets of $2,283,183, amount to $10,197,129, or over 4.2 times the amount of these bonds.

The issue of additional authorized bonds, except for $300,000 of bonds issuable at any time, is restricted by the indenture to an amount not to exceed 50% of the appraised value of real estate hereafter acquired.

Earnings

From statements furnished by independent auditors, the earnings of the properties acquired by the Company, available for bond interest, depreciation and Federal Taxes, are shown as follows:

Calendar Year, 1925	$754,577
Average, 3 years ending 1925	956,193
Interest on This Issue	144,000

Earnings for 1923 and 1924 include earnings of Birmingham Sand & Gravel Co. and Detroit S. S. Co. on the basis of the fiscal years ended March 31, 1924, and March 31, 1925, and for 1925 include such earnings for 8½ months ended December 14, 1925.

These average net earnings are equivalent to more than 6½ times the maximum interest charges on this issue of First Mortgage Bonds.

Sinking Fund

The indenture will provide a sinking fund, which it is expected will retire a substantial amount of this issue before maturity.

Management

The Company is under the management of men long experienced in this business in the city of Detroit. The J. G. White Engineering Corporation, which assisted, as engineers, in the formation of the Company, will continue to act in an advisory capacity.

All legal matters pertaining to this issue will be subject to the approval of Messrs. Satterlee & Canfield, of New York and Messrs. Beaumont, Smith & Harris, of Detroit. The Company's real estate has been appraised by Detroit Trust Company, and its other physical properties by The J. G. White Engineering Corporation or Charles H. Lincoln, Esq. These Bonds are offered, subject to approval of counsel, and when, as and if issued and received by us.

Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land Banks

Five Per Cent Bonds

Price 103 and Interest

To yield about 4⅝% to the optional date (1936) and 5% thereafter

Due March 1, 1956, redeemable at par and interest on any interest date on and after March 1, 1936. Acceptable at par as security for Postal Savings and other deposits of Government funds.

Of these bonds $1,000,000 are obligations of the Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land Bank of San Francisco and $750,000 of the Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land Bank of Los Angeles. The officers of these Banks are among the most prominent and successful bankers on the Pacific Slope and the Land Banks are owned or controlled by the stockholders of nine Pacific Coast Banks and Trust Companies, having total resources of more than $500,000,000.

The Banks operate under Federal charter and Government supervision. The issuance of their bonds and the collateral pledged as security have been approved by the Federal Farm Loan Board, a bureau of the Treasury Department of the United States Government.

These bonds are secured by either first mortgages on farm lands or United States Government bonds or Certificates of Indebtedness deposited as collateral. The liability of the banks' stockholders is double the amount of their stock.

We recommend these bonds for investment and shall be pleased to send circulars describing the issues in detail.

Reduced supplies strengthened prices in practically all divisions of the live stock market yesterday. Hogs made a strong comeback on the second smallest Wednesday receipts of the year. Prices ruled steady to 15c higher, with top 155 lb averages steady at $13.50 and average price up 10c at $12.00, showing 5@15c gain over the previous Wednesday. Market finished at the high time of the day, in view of a moderate run of only 20,000 for today, which was considerably under general expectations. Only 3,000 remained in the pens at the close, larger packers buying sparingly, due to the short supply. Outsiders took 6,500, over 50 per cent of fresh receipts, against shipments of 3,802 previous Wednesday.

Yearling Steers Advance.

Yearling steers recovered 10@15c of the recent sharp loss, while other cattle showed strength and closed in a healthy condition. An advanced estimate of 6,000 for today added tone to the late trade. Market for lower priced steers was less congested and range of prices narrowed some. Extreme top at $10.25 was paid for 1,109@1,464 lb steers and for 660 lb baby beef heifers to outside buyers. Few loads of steers passed $10.00, with only a few plain, thin steers selling below $8.00. Butcher stock sold steady to strong, with heifers in spots slightly higher. Bulls ruled strong to unevenly higher. Calves slumped 25c. Stockers and feeders were unchanged.

Lamb Declines Checked.

Sheep receipts yesterday at 11,000 were the third smallest of the year for Wednesday, and, with only 13,000 expected today, declines in lamb prices were checked, despite a further break of 25@40c at Buffalo. Lambs without fleece were preferred and in spots sold to slightly better advantage, showing gains of 50@60c since a week ago, while woolskins are up 25@35c. Top wool lambs reached $13.85, with best shorn at $11.75 showing a "spread" of only $2.10, against over $3.00 two weeks ago. Matured sheep held firm at the previous day's late upturn. Yearlings were scarce and steady, 112 lb shorn yearlings and twos bringing $9.00.

Receipts at Chicago for today are estimated at 6,000 cattle, 20,000 hogs, and 13,000 sheep, against 8,060 cattle, 20,227 hogs, and 9,393 sheep the corresponding Thursday a year ago.

PROFIT TAKING CHECKS WEEK'S GAIN IN STOCKS

YESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

	High.	Low.	Close.	Net chge.
25 railroads	86.76	85.86	86.11—	.29
25 industrials	146.86	144.77	145.41—	.82
50 stocks	116.81	115.31	115.76—	.55

New York, April 7.—(AP)—Reactionary price tendencies developed in today's market after an uninterrupted advance of nearly a week. The selling represented profit taking by traders who had bought stocks for a turn and sporadic bear attacks on a few industrial issues, based on the theory that the market was due for a technical reaction.

Trading was extremely quiet during the morning, but picked up in the afternoon, the day's sales aggregating 1,223,200 shares. The late selling movement was checked by a spirited rally in the rubber stocks as the result of a drive against the short interests. U. S. Rubber common was bid up nearly four points to 70½, closing near the top and Fisk, Goodrich and Kelly Springfield advanced a point or so.

Money Rates Ease.

A further softening took place in money rates. Funds on call renewed at 4 per cent and held at that figure all day with large sums available. Time money is reported to have been placed as low as 4⅜ for some of the shorter maturities. Completion of quarterly payments, drastic reduction of brokers' loans, heavy gold imports from Canada, and relatively light discounting of commercial paper are among the reasons ascribed for the relative cheapness of money.

Motor shares were featured by the strength and activity of Packard, which was bid up two points to 37¼, in anticipation of a special dividend distribution in June, but part of the gain was lost on realizing. Hudson closed ¾ lower at 77⅝, after having fluctuated between 76 and 79¼, and Mack Trucks showed a smaller fractional loss at 111⅞ after having touched 113¾.

U. S. Steel Is Lower.

U. S. Steel closed a point lower at 122, but substantial gains were recorded by shares of some of the independent companies, particularly Vanadium, Otis Steel preferred and Midland Steel Products preferred. The increase in crude oil production last week tended to restrain bullish operations in the oil shares and net changes, as a rule, were fractional. Good buying was noted in Allied Chemical, International Combustion Engineering, Philadelphia Co., and Pittsburgh Utilities preferred.

American Beet Sugar dropped 2½ points to a new low at 23½ and marked heaviness also developed in Foundation company, General Electric, R. H. Macey, Pathe Exchange, and U. S. Cast Iron Pipe.

Trading in the rail shares was sluggish, strength of Chicago Great Western preferred, St. Louis-Southwestern and the "Soo" issues being counteracted by the heaviness of Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio, Delaware and Hudson, Lackawanna and Missouri Pacific preferred.

Eastern New Jersey Power Company

First Mortgage Gold Bonds

5½% Series of 1949

Dated January 1, 1926 Due January 1, 1949

The Company agrees to pay the normal Federal Income Tax to the extent of 2%, and to refund, upon application within 90 days after payment, the Pennsylvania and Connecticut Personal Property Taxes, not exceeding 4 mills per annum, the Maryland Security Tax, not exceeding 4½ mills per annum, and the Massachusetts Income Tax, not exceeding 6% per annum on income derived from the Bonds.

Free of Personal Property Taxes in the State of New Jersey

ISSUANCE SUBJECT TO AUTHORIZATION BY THE NEW JERSEY BOARD OF PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSIONERS

Mr. H. L. Clarke, President of the Company, summarizes from his letter as follows:

BUSINESS: Eastern New Jersey Power Company owns and operates electric light and power properties serving a rapidly growing residential area along the Atlantic Coast, in Eastern New Jersey, in which are located Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Bradley Beach, Belmar, Avon, Deal, Allenhurst and adjoining communities. The territory served is essentially a continuous community within commuting distance of New York and Philadelphia. The Company also operates in a combined residential and industrial area located in the center of the state, serving Hightstown, Jamesburg and adjoining communities.

The Company supplies power to, and operates through subsidiaries, an electric railway line of about sixteen miles, and also a water distributing system in Ocean Grove.

SECURITY: The First Mortgage Gold Bonds are secured by a direct first mortgage on the entire property of the Company now owned and by a direct mortgage on property hereafter acquired except securities not specifically pledged. All the outstanding bonds and capital stock (except directors' qualifying shares) of the electric railway company and the water company are pledged under the Indenture.

COMBINED EARNINGS:

Twelve Months Ended December 31,	1925	1924
Gross Income	$1,370,681	$1,227,329
Operating Expenses, Maintenance and Taxes	746,770	626,852
Net Income Available for Interest and Federal Taxes	$ 623,911	600,477
Annual Interest Requirements on First Mortgage Bonds (including this issue)	$ 287,250

Net income, as shown above, for the twelve months ended December 31, 1925, was in excess of twice the annual interest requirements on the First Mortgage Gold Bonds outstanding, including this issue. The statement as shown above, does not include earnings from the recently acquired properties at Ocean Grove, and other properties. The gross earnings from these properties amounted to approximately $200,000 during the past year.

TERRITORY: The territory served by the Company is growing very rapidly in population, so that the normal increase in demand for light and power is substantial. The Company has recently taken over a considerable industrial area in the central part of the state, extending its high tension lines into this area from its central power plant at Allenhurst. A considerable amount of power business in this section has already been acquired. In addition to this, the Company has been taking on considerable power business in the rapidly developing shore section.

Legal matters in connection with the issuance of these Bonds will be passed upon by Messrs. Seibert & Riggs, of New York. Bonds of the above issue are offered when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to the approval of proceedings by counsel.

Exclusiveness
That Pays

An "exclusive" insurance company may seem like an odd idea; but the "L-M-C" began with successful business men as its only members and careful selection has since then enabled the company to return to policy holding members dividend savings of 25% of the automobile premium annually.

FORD CO. REPORT INDICATES PROFIT OF $94,560,397

BY O. A. MATHER.

The Ford Motor company was one of the few large automobile concerns to show smaller profits last year than in 1924, although it produced nearly half of the country's total output. This is indicated in the annual financial statement filed yesterday with the Massachusetts commissioner of corporations.

The Ford company produced 2,103,578 cars, trucks, and tractors, of which 1,967,117 were turned out in domestic and 136,461 in foreign plants. Although no income statement is issued, the balance sheet indicates 1925 operating profits of $94,560,397, based on an increase of $79,890,397 in surplus and assuming the usual dividend payment of $14,670,000. Profits in 1924 were $115,105,416, based on an increase of $100,435,415 in surplus.

Family Gets It All

The profits, of course, go to Henry Ford, his wife, and their son, Edsel B. Ford, who hold the entire capital stock, consisting of 172,645 shares, or $17,264,500. The profits were equivalent to $547.71 a share, compared with $667.48 a share in 1924. In computing last year's profits it is assumed that a good will item of $20,517,985 appearing the 1924 report was transferred last year to "patent rights, etc.," and that the usual dividends were paid. If good will was eliminated or dividends increased, the indicated earnings would be correspondingly larger. The balance sheet, with comparisons, follows:

Nash Profits Increase.

Indicative of this year's progress in the automobile industry, the Nash Motors company reported profits of $4,137,508 for the three months ended Feb. 28. This is equivalent to $1.05 a share on 2,730,000 shares of no par stock. Net profits for the first quarter of last year were $3,099,293.

"The demand is continuing to tax our production resources despite increased manufacturing facilities," President C. W. Nash said. "Retail deliveries of cars during the last three weeks marked the biggest three weeks in consecutive order we have ever had. At the same time, sales of used cars were the largest ever achieved and stocks declined 20 per cent. As to the future, I can see nothing except conditions of good business which justify an attitude of sound and healthy optimism on the part of men in nearly all lines of commerce and industry.

Steel Production High.

The midweek reviews of the steel industry again emphasize the high level of operations and large consumption, but at the same time call attention to a decline of 50 cents to $1.50 a ton, in pig iron.

"Production of steel so far in April has been maintained at the remarkably high rate of March," the Iron Age says. "The output of the larger companies has, if anything, been increased in the last week. New business, except in the Chicago district, shows some signs of falling off, but the release of specifications and new orders combined are giving full rolling schedules a number of weeks ahead. There are no signs of additions to supplies of semi-finished steel, and this in the face of numerous new production records reported from three production centers."

Stover Manufacturing & Engine.

J. E. S.—Stover Manufacturing and Engine company reports net income of $134,639 for 1925. This is equivalent, after allowing for preferred dividends, to $1.01 a share on the 56,200 shares of common stock of $25 par value.

In 1924 the net income was $34,466. Last year was the first year since 1920 in which it earned the full dividend on the preferred.

No dividends have been paid on the common stock since 1922.

Ajax Rubber.

C. G. R.—Ajax Rubber company, Inc., reports net profit of $1,005,069, or $2.01 a share on its 500,000 shares of no par capital stock, in 1925. This compares with $664,128, equivalent to $1.32 a share in 1924 figured on the present capitalization.

The year 1925 was the best year since 1919.

The company started 1926 with net working capital of $6,498,722, compared with $4,910,928 at the start of 1925.

No dividends have been paid since 1920.

The position of the stock has improved over that of recent years, but it is still a speculation.

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS

Wednesday, April 7, 1926.

Day's sales ....35,900 Year ago ....36,000 Total, 1926 ....4,083,000 Previous year 3,982,800

Chicago stocks were dull yesterday. Auburn Automobile was among the few active shares and moved up 1⅛ to 50½. Adams Royalty gained ⅝. Stewart-Warner was off ⅞, and Union Carbide declined ⅝. Wrigley was ¼ lower. On small sales, Diamond Match gained a point. U. S. Gypsum was off 4 points, and Kraft Cheese eased down a point. A gain of $350,694 in total sales of John R. Thompson for the first quarter over the same period in 1925 was reported by the company. Sales were $3,539,453, compared with $3,188,759 a year ago. For March, sales were $1,228,637, against $1,093,697 in March, 1925, an increase of $134,940. Bunte directors declared only the preferred dividend, but the opinion was expressed that consideration will be given the resumption of common dividends in July, when all the directors are expected to be present. The governing committee approved for listing 51,000 shares of no par common stock of the Central Public Service company and 160,000 shares of $25 par participating preferred stock of the Merchants and Manufacturers Securities company. Additional issues listed are: United States Gypsum company, $1,322,180 of $20 par common stock and $113,600 of $100 par preferred; Federated Utilities, $753,700 par value, series A, first mortgage 6 per cent gold bonds.

NATIONAL LOSS IS SEEN IN DROP IN FARM PERSONNEL

BY HARPER LEECH.

Announcement of the department of agriculture's estimate that our farm population fell off nearly 500,000 last year should occasion surprise—that the decrease was no greater.

Such an announcement was as sure to follow the publication of the preliminary figures of the agricultural census of 1925 as night follows day. Those figures, out March 30, showed a decrease of farm owners, a decrease of farm acreage, decrease of farm animals, and a shrinkage of land values greater than the national wealth of considerable nations, since 1920.

True the land value decrease is no national loss—the land is still there and its money value was and is principally a scarcity value—but the shrinkage reflects a decreased buying power of 30,000,000 Americans.

Now, we can be philosophical about this if we choose to adopt a purely mechanistic view of economics. The pet explanation of certain official economists would be something like this: "The function of price is to determine the relative quantity of commodities which should be produced. If too many commodities of a certain kind are produced, the price falls and the number of people engaged in that line of effort decreases. If farmers are moving to town, they are moving to better themselves. Not only will they better themselves, but as their removal will lessen the number of farmers, and therefore decrease the production of farm commodities and increase their price, the movement of population will help those farmers who stay on the farm." Very plausible, eminently true from one standpoint, and quite consoling to the nation at large.

However, the feeling is growing that such reasoning sometimes borders upon fetichism. After all, the price system is a method by which the human race works—not a divinely ordered, perfect, and self-executing thing. By and large, the determination of production and distribution by price movements has proved so far superior to other historic systems, or those which have occasionally been substituted for it in our own time, that some of our financiers may unconsciously be coming to regard it with idolatrous veneration.

But the science of economics cannot escape the evolutionary concept and avoid metaphysical sterility. The historical and inductive methods must be given place. If we look at the present situation of American agriculture from the historical standpoint, we cannot be so easily reconciled to its shrinkage in importance and the decrease and threatened deterioration of its personnel. Our urban industrialism is historically a sequence and consequence of the colonizing and conquering movements which founded American agriculture.

Those colonizing and conquering movements were the consequence of historical and social values which are not taken account of in the conceptions of mere economics. American agriculture largely grew up in the age of barter, when the functions of price were not so all pervading as now.

Must we alter our farm system to fit our price ond profit economy, or temper our industrial and financial systems to preserve the political and race values of an agriculture carried on by independent landed proprietors? What civilization which got rid of them ever prospered in the long run?

PRODUCE MARKETS

Demand for butter was slow, and all markets showed a weaker undertone, with prices here and at Boston ½c lower, while New York was off 1½c and Philadelphia 1c on top scores. Sales of 64 cars fresh standards for April made here at 39¼@39⅜c, with 8 cars storage standards for December at 41⅛c. Cheese was taken in small lots, with prices little changed, but undertone was easier.

Fresh eggs declined ¼c, with receipts 35,823 cases. Sales of 3 cars fresh firsts, April, made at 28¼@28⅜c; 98 cars storage packed firsts, April, at 29⅝@30c; and 151 cars refrigerator standards, December, at 33¼@33⅜c.

Potatoes in good demand and prices 10c higher, with receipts 100 cars, and 328 cars are on team track. Live poultry unchanged. Receipts 3 cars and 1,315 coops.

STANDARD OIL DOUBLES MONEY FOR EMPLOYES

Employés of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana have accumulated nearly $25,000,000 worth of stock of the company in the last five years. But under the company's plan of adding 50 cents for each dollar contributed by employés for stock purchases the employés actually have paid only $11,800,000, although their stock at yesterday's market price was worth about $24,600,000.

Before the end of this month 15,300 employés will receive about 390,000 shares they have been purchasing by partial payments over the last five years. Now a second purchase plan, to run three years and with subscriptions limited to 10 per cent of employés' salaries, instead of 20 per cent, is announced.

The announcement of the end of the first plan stated that employés now hold more than 4 per cent of the company's stock. The enhancement of $12,800,000 in value of employés' holdings over what they paid represents a profit of more than 100 per cent in five years. Chairman R. W. Stewart urges employés not to sell their stock, unless forced to do so by circumstances, as this would be unfair to themselves and to the company alike and would nullify its purpose of bringing about employé partnership.

FINANCIAL NOTES

The Harris Trust and Savings bank, William R. Compton company, and Halsey, Stuart & Co., will offer today $1,750,000 of Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land banks 5 per cent bonds. Of these $1,000,000 are obligations of the Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land bank of San Francisco and $750,000 of the Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land bank of Los Angeles.

A new issue of $1,350,000 first mortgage gold bonds, 5½ per cent, series of 1949, of the Eastern New Jersey Power company, will be offered today by Hoagland, Allum & Co., Bonbright & Co., and W. C. Langley & Co. The bonds are due Jan. 1, 1949, and the price is 97½ and interest to yield about 5.70 per cent.

The United States government filed suit in the Supreme court of the District of Columbia against the Alaska Packers' association for $439,210 alleged to be due the government on war time contracts for salmon.

The Northern Pacific has ordered 500 automobile cars each from the Pressed Steel Car company and Standard Steel Car company. The Rock Island has ordered 5 baggage cars from the American Car and Foundry company. The Santa Fé Transportation company has ordered 17 motor busses from the White Motor Car company.

The American Smelting and Refining company reduced the price of lead from 8.20c to 8.00c per lb.

The First Texas Joint Stock Land bank has called for redemption on May 1 some $490,000 of its bonds dated May 1, 1919, and $300,000 dated Nov. 1, 1919. Both issues are due in 1939.

B. F. Goodrich company proposed to reduce the authorized preferred stock from $42,472,000 to $41,284,000.

Elkhorn Coal company has sold its undeveloped oil and gas rights in Kentucky and West Virginia to the Louisville Gas and Electric company for about $700,000. The sale does not include any of the developed oil and gas property. No dividend was declared by Elkhorn on the ordinary shares. In view of the recent writing down of the capital, it was necessary to write off further depreciation for 1925.

The balance of about $3,000,000 of the original $10,700,000 Mexican Seaboard Oil company 7 per cent debentures held by the Sinclair Consolidated Oil corporation, has been sold to an individual said to be close to the management of Mexican Seaboard. More than $7,000,000 previously had been retired.

Stockholders of the American International corporation voted to cancel the 9,000 shares of managers stock now held in the treasury, leaving the corporation with only 490,000 shares of common stock outstanding in a total authorized issue of 750,000 shares.

RAILROAD NOTES

Producers and shippers of dozens of commodities stormed the interstate commerce commission with an avalanche of briefs in protest against increase in freight rates as requested by western railroads. Twenty-three briefs set forth voluminous arguments against higher rates in the west, and generally throughout the country, while three others dealt only with the commission's inquiry into entire rate structure as ordered by congress.

Directors of the St. Louis and San Francisco railway elected H. P. Wright of Kansas City a director in place of the late Sam Lazarus. R. E. Lee Wilson of Wilson, Ark., was elected a director to succeed the late A. G. Becker.

Receivers of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad asked the interstate commerce commission for authority to issue $1,750,000 of receivers' certificates in renewal of a like amount, now outstanding and due in April and May.

The interstate commerce commission has vacated, effective midnight tonight, its order issued in December, and opened up all available routes on freight traffic to and from Florida.

Class 1 railroads paid wages of $239,788,434 in January to employés numbering 1,730,071, compared with $243,359,868 wages to 1,728,333 employés in December, 1925.

Interest payable without deduction for federal normal income tax not exceeding 2%. The trust indenture will provide for the refunding of Pennsylvania personal property tax, not in excess of four mills, and Massachusetts income tax not exceeding 6% of annual interest, to holders who are residents of these respective states, upon proper application.

Mason B. Starring, Esq., President of Pittsburgh Utilities Corporation, summarizes his letter to the bankers dated April 7, 1926, as follows:

Pittsburgh Utilities Corporation owns over 52% of the common stock of Philadelphia Company which through its subsidiaries controls the comprehensive public utilities system providing electric light and power, natural gas, street railway and other public utility services in the city of Pittsburgh and vicinity. The combined annual gross earnings of the system are over sixty million dollars ($60,000,000).

SECURITY

These notes will be the direct obligation of Pittsburgh Utilities Corporation and will constitute its only funded indebtedness. They will be secured through deposit under a trust indenture with the First National Bank of the City of New York, Trustee, by a first lien on

$24,200,000 Par Value Philadelphia Company Common Stock
(484,000 Shares of $50 Par)

This Stock is to remain deposited during the life of the Notes. The trust indenture will contain a covenant that there will at all times be subjected to the lien of these Notes a majority of the stock of Philadelphia Company entitled to vote for directors. This Stock has a value at present market price (April 7, 1926) of more than $35,000,000, which is equivalent to over 3½ times the amount of this issue. Dividends from the stock pledged have not been less than 2½ times the annual interest requirement of these Notes in any one of the last 15 years, and during that period have averaged annually nearly 3¼ times the requirement. In 1925 dividends received from the pledged Stock amounted to $1,936,000, or over 3¾ times such requirement. Total net income of Pittsburgh Utilities Corporation available for the payment of interest on funded indebtedness, for the year ended December 31, 1925, was $2,100,573, or more than 4 times the annual interest on these Notes.

PHILADELPHIA COMPANY

Philadelphia Company organized in 1884, controls through entire Common Stock ownership, the Duquesne Light Company, which does substantially all the electric light and power business in Pittsburgh and in the greater part of Allegheny and Beaver Counties, Pennsylvania, a territory of approximately 1,000 square miles, and owns or controls through subsidiaries, an extensive gas producing, transporting and distributing system in Pennsylvania and West Virginia, supplying a large part of the gas consumed in the City of Pittsburgh. It also owns securities of the Pittsburgh Railways Co. representing the equity in the electric railway system in Pittsburgh and vicinity. In addition the Company owns or controls all the stock of subsidiaries engaged in supplemental operations including steam heating, mining of coal for power plant operation, bus transportation and other businesses.

Philadelphia Company has paid dividends on its common stock in every year since 1885 except 1897 at rates averaging over 6% per annum. Dividends are now being paid at the rate of 8% per annum.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE

The proceeds from the sale of these Notes will be applied to the payment of United Railways Investment Company Collateral Trust Sinking Fund 5% Gold Bonds due May 1, 1926, which were assumed by Pittsburgh Utilities Corporation.

We offer these Notes, if, when and as issued and received by us and approved by our counsel. All legal proceedings will be subject to the approval of Messrs. Cummins, Roemer & Flynn, Chicago, counsel for the company, and Messrs. Van Vorst, Siegel & Smith, New York, counsel for the bankers. Definitive or temporary notes will be delivered against payment in New York funds on or about April 23, 1926.

PRICE 100 AND INTEREST, TO YIELD 5%

By Amelie Rives
[Princess Troubetzkoy.]

SYNOPSIS.

Celia Gibbs is left an orphan by the death of her father, who bequeaths her to the care and charity of Hilary Fraser, one of his few friends. Hilary's sister, Laura Eversham, relieves him of his charge by placing Celia in a French convent and, when she is eighteen, taking her into her home to live. Two years later Laura dies, and Hilary is greatly disturbed as to what to do about Celia. A young Russian sculptor proposes to her, but she refuses his offer, and Hilary, in desperation, proposes to her himself in order that she may live in his house with propriety. Celia is happy in the arrangement until she overhears some gossip about herself and her "white marriage." She learns for the first time that her father had left her penniless. Hilary goes to Europe, and Celia decides to get herself a job. She applies to Abe Sieburg of the Sieburg theater, who agrees to take her on in a fancy diving stunt. She gives up her job the day before Hilary is due back in the country. She tells him of her adventure, and, greatly to her surprise, he is amused by it. Celia becomes restless at the inactivity of the life she leads in Hilary's house. She meets a young musician, Padraic O'Shea, who is greatly attracted to her. Hilary believes that Celia is in love with Padraic and would like a divorce.

INSTALLMENT XL.

DONOVAN GROWS OBSTINATE.

Hilary opened the door for Celia, and watched her slowly mounting the shallow stairway.

"Lord! What horrible things 'scenes' are," he muttered, as he turned back, closing himself in with peace once more. He smiled acidly.

"I might as well be really married," he reflected.

Then all his compassion for this queerest of queer girls flooded him again, and he wished that he could simplify matters by pommeling Padraic O'Shea within an inch of his life and kicking him into the streets.

Going instead to his writing table, he called up Maestro Giannini and asked him to come for a half an hour of fencing.

Celia felt that she couldn't put off any longer letting Donovan know that she was awake, and as much as she wanted to be alone just then, she wanted even more to have her hair unbound and brushed. Her scalp had such a hot, stiff feeling, just as though it had been pasted on her skull with hot glue. She really couldn't think with any clearness while her head felt like that, and she must think clearly, as well as quickly. . . . Three days—she had only three days in which both to think and act. Why hadn't she asked for a week? But perhaps he wouldn't have granted her a week. After all, it would be better to get through with it in a short time. . . .

She opened the communicating door into her sitting room and said:

"I'm awake, Nurse, will you please come and brush my hair?"

"Now, Miss," said she, "what call had you to go and dress yourself, and me sitting close by all morning and afternoon? It would seem like you want to be sick again. You look something awful," she wound up with a milder expression, as she took in Celia's deathly pallor and the mauve shading about her eyes. "You really hadn't ought to have got up at all."

She wanted to undress her and put her promptly to bed again, but Celia insisted she couldn't lie still until her hair was brushed.

"As for that, I can brush it and you in your bed, where you ought to be," said Donovan.

But knowing Celia's stubborn side of old, she didn't keep on insisting, and having got her out of the black velvet and into a peignoir, began to take out the big, shell hair pins that by now seemed to Celia each one as large and heavy as a pair of fire-tongs.

"Tell me, nurse," she said again, "were you ever in love?"

"O, that's good, Nurse . . . that's good . . ." she kept murmuring, as Donovan's accustomed fingers first carded out the long masses, then began to pass the comb gently through them.

"O Nurse! You can't think how delicious it is . . ." she said aloud, wishing to stop these unpleasant thoughts. . . . "It's better than all the medicine in the world. . . ."

But the word "medicine" had brought up the corollary "food" to Donovan's mind, which had set its stiff machinery to regard Celia as a "patient." The soothing comb stopped half way down a tress, and was lifted out and laid firmly on the dressing table.

"But why?" asked Celia, fretfully.

She knew that Donovan was quite as obstinate as she was, when the mood took her, that she had some reason for stopping and wouldn't continue until she saw fit.

"Have you had one single bite to eat since you woke up?" demanded Donovan, stepping from her place behind Celia's chair, so that she could look into her face.

"No, but really I can't eat. . . ."

"Yes, you can," said the other flatly. "And until you do, not another stroke of comb or brush do you get from me, Miss."

Celia felt too weak and dispirited to argue, so without further demur she let Donovan depart for a bottle of certified milk and some rye bread.

Resting her elbows on the dressing table, she set her chin upon her palms and looked sadly at her image in the mirror.

"I'm really very ugly—when I'm not dressed in those lovely clothes he designs for me," thought she. "And I haven't any gifts—I'm not even clever. Why should he have been so kind to me? And why does Padraic love me? Then I'm lazy, too—except for swimming and walking—I've never done anything worth doing in my life. . . ."

She recalled her venture at the Sieburg theater.

". . . I made some money—I could do that again. But anybody can make money, I suppose, if they set their minds on it. . . ."

The jargon of the psychoanalysts was familiar to her, as it was just becoming a fad then in her "social circle," but she knew that what she was suffering from was no "inferiority complex." It was the truth, simple and plain.

By nature she was inferior, not by vain imaginings.

"I didn't use to care whether any one loved me or not—I wonder why I should have begun to care?"

She looked questioningly at her image, which looked questioningly back at her. There was no answer.

Donovan returned with the milk and bread. Celia ate quickly, anxious to feel the soothing comb in her hair again.

"There, now," said Donovan, taking the tray from her when she had finished. "I promise I'll brush and comb you a solid hour, if you want I should."

"Please," said Cecelia.

As Donovan was fulfilling this promise Celia began to study the reflection of the stern face which now appeared above her own in the mirror.

"Nurse," she asked suddenly, "was I drunk last night?"

"Lor, Miss! What a word to use!" exclaimed the other, scandalized. "Of course, you wasn't."

"I believe I was," said Cecelia, "but I suppose you won't tell me the truth?"

"I ain't going to tell you what ain't so, just because you think it's so," said Donovan stubbornly.

Celia sighed and gave it up. She was more and more convinced that the champagne had gone to her head, and that she had said horrid, shameful things which, of course, Hilary wouldn't admit that she had said. She fell to studying her nurse's face once more. The mouth was a lipless line, and the gray eyes vitreous, yet when Donovan smiled, which was very seldom, her face became kindly and even humorous. The humor didn't go with the kindly look, though such specimens as Celia had heard were of a grim, somewhat sardonic nature.

"She must have had lips when she was young," thought Celia. "Perhaps they were red, too."

Donovan's one claim to good looks was her smooth, pearly, rose-tinted complexion, which had kept its purity in spite of many thread-like wrinkles. Her hair was dust color, very fine and thin. Celia tried hard to imagine her a young woman, but in vain. Ever since she could remember Donovan had always looked like this.

"Tell me, Nurse," she said again, "were you ever in love?"

Donovan stopped brushing, and a look of supreme disdain pinched her mouth and the nostrils of her tight little nose still more.

"I always did hold that was the silliest expression," said she. "Talking of being 'in love,' as if love was a bath or a box—or a fix," she concluded tartly.

Chicago Is Best, Says Dr. Mason, Back from West

President Max Mason of the University of Chicago returned from California yesterday, bronzed from golf, to refute the ancient and honorable epigram of "Go west, young man, go west." Chicago and the midwest, he said, offer far more opportunities.

"Chicago," Dr. Mason said, "well may boast of the great strides its men make. The farther west you go, this time of year, the better climate you find; but that does not apply to phases of labor or business opportunity. This great city and its urban communities give to the young man all he could ask for to make a success of himself."

The five weeks' vacation, the first he has had since taking over control of the university, gave Dr. and Mrs. Mason the opportunity of visiting all the large California cities, particularly those which contained educational institutions.

At Pasadena they called on Profs. Robert A. Millikan and George E. Hale, both former U. of C. men, now engaged in research work at the California Institute of Technology. Prof. Millikan is making progress in his experiments in electronic physics, Dr. Mason said, as is Prof. Hale doing great work in the study of the sun's behavior.

While in California President Mason spoke at several University of Chicago alumni luncheons, finding many graduates engaged in business or professions there. But Mrs. Mason added that golf had engaged most of his time.

Speaking before the Association of Commerce luncheon at the Hotel La Salle yesterday, another Illinois university president, David Kinley of the state university, delivered a warm defense to the charge that colleges and universities are too large.

"Successful operation in education as in other things is a matter of proper organization and subdivision and individual work," he said. "No matter how many students are pursuing some study at the same institution at the same time, there is no reason to think that the work they do or the teachings they get will be any less good and efficient simply because they are at one place than they would be if they were at ten or a dozen places, if we can divide the number into sufficiently small classes.

"For a thousand pupils, we have, say, forty classes of twenty-five each in the subject. Why cannot the instruction be as efficient and the studying as good as if these forty classes were in several places? We will not succeed in getting any better ones if we scatter them than we will if they are all in one place.

"Statements that there is no personal contact, no personal supervision, no intimate knowledge of each student by the university officers in large institutions have no foundation in fact," President Kinley concluded. "Any of our students can know, if he wishes, a larger number of our faculty than the whole staff of a smaller college. There is no charm in knowing them all."

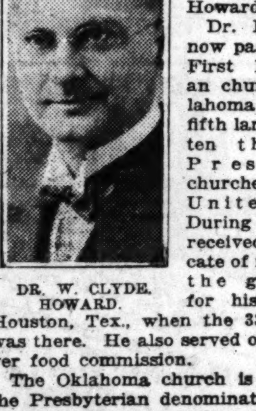
Oklahoman Called to Second Presbyterian

By a unanimous vote the Second Presbyterian church, 20th street and Michigan avenue, last evening called to its pastorate the Rev. W. Clyde Howard, D. D.



DR. W. CLYDE HOWARD.

Dr. Howard is now pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Oklahoma City, the fifth largest of the ten thousand Presbyterian churches in the United States. During the war he received a certificate of merit from the government for his work in Houston, Tex., when the 33d division was there. He also served on the Hoover food commission.

The Oklahoma church is known in the Presbyterian denomination as the laymen's church. It has 3,100 members. The Second church is one of the largest in Chicago, with 1,500 members and an endowment of nearly $500,000.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Tribune will pay $5 for each question accepted for the Inquiring Reporter to ask. Send name and address with your question to "The Inquiring Reporter," Chicago Tribune. For today's question Mrs. S. A. Weeden, 6115 South Kilpatrick avenue, was awarded $5.

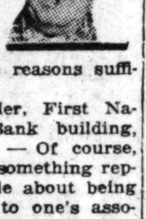
The Question.

Should a criminal be given a lighter sentence because he turns state's evidence?

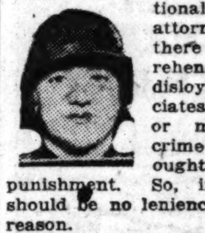
Where Asked.

Criminal Court building.

The Answers.

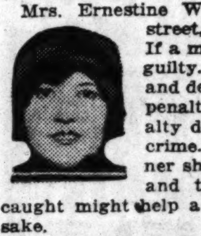


James E. McLaughlin, 1128 County building, adult probation officer—there are three reasons why a lighter sentence should be given in that case: It helps the state punish accomplices; justice can be done to all parties; it saves the state money. And those are reasons sufficient.



Miss Bertha C. Moller, First National Bank building, attorney — Of course, there is something reprehensible about being disloyal to one's associates. Still, when two or more commit a crime each participant ought to get the same punishment. So, in reality, there should be no leniency shown for any reason.

Henry Weil, 4520 Drexel boulevard, real estate—Yes, often it otherwise would be impossible for the state to convict the accomplice. The state owes some debt for the assistance thus rendered. He who turns state's evidence is furnishing valuable information and he is entitled to some reward.



Mrs. Ernestine Waldo, 2322 State street, housewife—No. If a man is guilty he is guilty. Though caught, and destined to pay the penalty, yet the penalty does not undo the crime. His guilty partner should be punished and the man who is caught might help a bit, for justice's sake.

Charles D. Dall, Criminal Court building, deputy sheriff—Under the law the criminal and his accomplices are equally guilty. For a successful prosecution it is sometimes necessary to get one of them to turn state's evidence, and for that assistance he is entitled to a lighter sentence.

Charity Fund Drive Starts with $30,484

$300,000 Is Goal to Be Raised in Ten Days.

The emergency drive of the United Charities, by which it is hoped to raise $300,000 within ten days to wipe out a deficit accumulated in the last four years and to enlarge the annual budget to meet operating expenses, got off to a running start yesterday at the inaugural luncheon at the Hotel La Salle.

Rating slightly more than an even tenth of the total amount, contributions totaling $31,484 were received within an hour and a half after the start of the luncheon, with plenty of indication that the pace would be maintained and the quota achieved if not surpassed.

Mayor Dever, endorsing the United Charities and its work among the poor of the city, pointed out in his address the dire need for such organizations, and emphasized the appreciation of the city government for the efficient manner in which this particular organization has met every demand made upon it.

Joel Hunter, superintendent of the United Charities, read a communication from Anton J. Cermak, president of the county board, who was unable to keep his appointment to speak at the luncheon because he is in Washington. Mr. Cermak's message was in effect a commendation of the work of the organization, which he characterized as "the most soundly and intelligently organized body of its kind in the world."

"We have borrowed some of your outstanding features, and have established a social service bureau of our own," Mr. Cermak wrote.

Three hundred guests, including representatives of many social service organizations and of practically every nationality to be found in Chicago, attended the luncheon.

Gifts of more than $1,000, announced by Edwin C. Jones, financial secretary, were as follows: $5,000, Samuel Insull Sr.; $2,500, James A. Patten; Albert W. Harris; $1,015, Harold F. Swift; $1,000, Charles F. Glore, general chairman of the drive; William McCormick Blair, Howard Fenton, Walter S. Brewster, Mrs. Joseph T. Bowen, John P. Wilson, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Haddon McLean.

Passavant Drive Workers Report $309,127 Obtained

Passavant Memorial hospital's drive to obtain $1,500,000 for a new structure to be erected on the McKinlock campus of Northwestern university on the lake front had brought in a total of $307,127 when reports of the various teams were made at yesterday's campaign luncheon in the Palmer house.

Several memorial rooms and a memorial laboratory were among the gifts announced by Howard Elting, chairman of the men's division, who presided. Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Pierce donated $1,800 for the laboratory. The rooms, costing $3,000 each, were donated by George L. Cragg, F. F. Norcross, Krenn & Dato, and by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Munroe.

A mammoth silver loving cup and the accompanying statue of a nurse, the trophy which is to stand in the lobby of the hospital as a memorial to the team making the best showing in the drive, was exhibited at the luncheon.

THEATER

The fourth in the Messrs. Ascher's list of new plays for the Adelphi is "The Masked Woman," something in which Lowell Sherman has acted elsewhere.

The Players' Club of the Jewish People's institute is to appear Sunday night in three short pieces—"His Children," by Rufus Learsi; "Helen of Troy," by Philip Möller, and "Everybody's Husband," by Gilbert Canan. . . . "His Children" was the choice of the Jewish Welfare Board in a recent nation-wide "contest" for a prize. Mr. Möller describes his little piece as "The story of the First Pacifist, who started the most famous war in history." . . . And it isn't often one nowadays runs across the name of Gilbert Canan, who for a time was regarded by the reviewers as the white hope of English letters. It wasn't that he ever wrote anything of real importance, but that what he wrote seemed to indicate a big talent. A little play of his, "Miles Dixon," was in the répertoire used by the Manchester Players when, in 1913, they acted here in what is now the Playhouse.

"Play Ball!" is a new title for Theodore Westman's piece about baseball, called "Solid Ivory" when acted, in the Autumn, in New-York. Lester Bryant is trying to get a Chicago theater for it.

"The Last Warning," a who-done-it piece shown three years ago in the Blackstone, is to be restored to view Sunday night in the Central.

Marc Connelly, author of "The Wisdom-Tooth," is now acting in that piece in New-York, taking a rôle usually played by Malcolm Williams, who is ill.

Henry Miller's illness, reported by telegraph in THE TRIBUNE of Tuesday as a slight cold, is regarded by his physicians as so serious that the company engaged to act with him this week in New-York in "A Stranger in the House" has been disbanded. . . . He has had everything save good-luck in the last three years.

Two of the performers in the cast which will give "Rose-Marie" the 18th in the Auditorium were prominent in the long New-York run of the piece—Arthur Deagon, as the doughty Malone, and Miss Pearl Regay, as Wanda, the nice little Indian murderess who sings about the totem-pole. The title-part is to be sung by Miss Virginia Johnson, whose name seems new to me; and the hero will be sung by Sam Ash, who has tenor'd here in other things.

The actors' union has made Miss Raquel Meller, now performing in New-York, an honorary member; and I am curious to know what that will get for her.

"Elijah" Is Sung with Inspiring Effect by Swedish Choral Club

One seldom finds two better reasons for the performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" than were presented at Orchestra hall last night. One was the Swedish Choral club, in its entirety and in the small group that sang the semi-chorus parts; the other was Arthur Middleton.

There was a decided resemblance in the two reasons. The chorus is a skilled organization; it can raise a tone from the softest, sustained effect to a resonant inspiring shout, and did so frequently at Conductor Edgar Nelson's command, the shout, however, still remaining a musical tone. This is the same sort of singing which, translated into a solo utterance, Mr. Middleton did in the part of Elijah. For years this great baritone has been the finest of the Elijahs, and he continued to maintain his supremacy last night.

Mr. Nelson's ability as a conductor extended to all details of the performance, orchestral as well as choral, massed attack as well as accompaniments for the soloists. Among the soloists a last minute change became necessary. Else Harthan Arendt, soprano, was ill and unable to appear, and at short notice Grace Holverscheid took her place and did well, as did Flora Hardie Burditt, contralto, and Leroy Hamp, tenor.

Sixtieth Anniversary of G. A. R. to Be Observed

In celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Cook county membership of the Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War and the Sons of Union Veterans are giving a banquet and reception at the Hotel Sherman Saturday evening. Orrin R. McKenney, department commander Illinois G. A. R., and Essie Siemon and E. Fred Buck will be the principal guests. John M. Snyder, the only living charter member of the G. A. R. of Canton, Ill., will be in attendance. Judge James H. Wilkerson will be the principal speaker.

Egypt to Lose Millions of Rockefeller

Excuse Is Found to Reject Museum Gift.

BY A. STANLEY PARKER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

CAIRO, Egypt, April 7.—Prof. J. H. Breasted of the University of Chicago, who has been here with Mr. Belknap, New York lawyer, representing John D. Rockefeller Jr. in the negotiations with the Egyptian government covering Mr. Rockefeller's $10,000,000 gift for an Egyptian museum, tonight informed THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE that it is likely that Mr. Rockefeller will withdraw the offer, owing to the Egyptian government's attitude.

An obviously inspired statement appeared in the press this evening, which said that, owing to Mr. Rockefeller's insistence upon super-impossible demands, the Egyptian government probably would be constrained to decline.

Prof. Breasted gave THE TRIBUNE the history of the negotiations, as follows:

Mr. Rockefeller and his legal advisers spent four months last summer considering the intended gift and drawing up the draft of a contract designed by the interests of both sides, which above all provided for an investigation in the interests of Egyptology. The contract was signed by Mr. Rockefeller and submitted to the Egyptian government, which seemed offended at finding it already signed, although it was explained that this was done in order to save time.

Lengthy discussions ensued and Mr. Rockfeller's representatives suggested that the Egyptian government draw up its own contract for submission to Mr. Rockefeller. This was done and submitted with a covering letter from Ziwar Pasha, Egyptian premier, who promised that if Mr. Rockefeller signed the contract Ziwar Pasha would secure the acceptance of the Egyptian cabinet.

The contract was sent to New York, signed, returned, and resubmitted to Ziwar Pasha by Prof. Breasted, who was astounded when Ziwar said the contract was not acceptable, as it soon would need further modification.

Prof. Breasted told THE TRIBUNE that he will depart for New York tomorrow. He thought it quite possible that Mr. Rockefeller, when he learns the details of the Egyptian government's extraordinary attitude, will cancel his offer.

Armageddon Gives Up Secret.

[Copyright: 1926: By the New York Times.]

CAIRO, April 7.—About 300 Arab laborers will start excavations April 15 at Megiddo, near Janin, under the direction of Dr. Clarence Fisher of the University of Chicago.

"The great mound of Armageddon has spoken and is yielding up its secrets," Dr. Breasted said today. "In some exploratory trenches expert native Egyptian workmen, trained by Dr. Fisher to excavate this mound for a five year period, have found the fragment of a stone monument, set up in the tenth century B. C. for King Shashang (mentioned in the Old Testament as King Shishak), in commemoration of his conquest of Armageddon.

"The monument must have been ten feet high, nearly five wide, and twenty inches thick. If all the pieces are found and assembled the monument may bear out the Egyptian version of the capture of Jerusalem in the tenth century B. C., as narrated in the Old Testament."

Waiting for a Rudy to Come Along Is Apt to Be a Lifetime Job

BY DORIS BLAKE.

"Supposedly Popular, but Hasn't a Sweetheart," is the title of the drama. "Wondering Blue Eyes" is playing the lead in it.

She is 20, a high school graduate, and has had two years of college. She is now working as secretary to a big business man. This position she has held for two years, during which time, by her confession, she has received numerous compliments from her employer and from clients with whom business brings her in contact. She gets a good salary, dresses well, and altogether puts up a chic appearance. She is neat about herself and about everything else. She has two classes of friends—young girls and boys, older men and women. Her girl friends tell her she knows just what to say and when to say it. But—

"The sad part of it is I haven't a sweetheart," she moans.

Escorts a-plenty she could have for the nodding. The men at the office are all nice to her and a few of the single ones have hinted about her staying down town for dinner some night.

"But I ignored their invitations because I know I could never love them and consequently do not want to take up their time. My boy friends are all nice, some rich and some poor, but for the life of me I don't feel elated when I see them. They all seem like big brothers to me, etc."

Now, I ask you, Wondering Blue Eyes, if you have sense enough to hold down a good secretarial job, why you don't use some of it after working hours. How do you ever expect to get a boy interested in you if you won't accept his invitations? I'll wager you are one of those dreamers that is letting good opportunities slip by while she sits waiting for a Tommy Meighan or a Rudy Valentino to jump out of the picture and grab her off protestingly. Am I not right?

If you aren't careful the boys of your acquaintance will get the idea that you are either "queer" or that you are nursing some secret love, which would be just as queer.

If you want a sweetheart, don't pull the little sister stuff. Be one, but don't let the man suspect he is only a big brother to you. It is not the way to win a sweetheart.

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Walking on a Damp Floor.

"I am writing to ask if some kind readers have any old sheets, pillow slips, or any old white goods they no longer need. I have brought an aunt home from the hospital, an elderly woman, having a running sore, and I need a lot of clean cloths. I am also badly in need of a rug or linoleum and some old curtains. We live in a basement and it is so damp walking on the bare floor. MRS. F. H."

Housewives usually have a store of white cloths they will be glad to give to this woman for dressings. And the damp floor is not conducive to good health.

Rubber Stocking.

"I have a rubber stocking I will gladly send to any one. It is for a small woman and has never been worn. It is 16 inches from ankle to above the knee, about 14 inches around the knee, and about 7½ inches around the ankle. "MRS. G. W."

This is an offer of interest to our invalid readers. If you need such a stocking write me for it.

BY NANCY R——.

Last week some 300 invitations went out announcing that a big roundup would take place at the "Drake boys' upper ranch on the shore of Lake Michigan," and I hear that the acceptances were immediate and plentiful as well as original in form and wording.

Elk steaks are to be the pièce de résistance of the dinner; then there will be "movie pitchers," taken last summer at the ranch, a player piano for dancing, and several clever stunts arranged for the pleasure of the guests.

Louis Agassiz Fuertes, whose fame as a rancher is second only to his fame as a naturalist and painter, is coming on for the reunion from Ithaca, N. Y., to be the chief wrangler and master of ceremonies. He arrives in Chicago this morning, to be here for several days, much to the delight of his many friends in this part of the world.

Among those who will be at the dinner this evening are the Alden Swifts, the Robert Stewarts, the Huntington Henrys and Miss Camille Henry, the Nelson Barneses, the Irwin Rews, the Jack Baums, the Paul Juergens, the Fred McNallys, the Vance Roberts, the H. Newton Hudsons, and the Stuart Logans. Informality will be the keynote of the evening, and instead of the conventional black and white of men's dinner clothes and the jewels and silks of feminine costumes, high boots, overalls, wide brimmed hats, and the apparel of the great open spaces will be in order.

By the bye, I understand that the Joseph T. Ryersons and the James Offields will spend a part of their summer holidays at the ranch this year, a pleasant addition to the usual Chicago colony there.

Day's News in Society

The Arts club will give a luncheon tomorrow for Vladimir Nemirovitch-Dantchenko, one of the founders of the Moscow Art theater, and director of the Art Theater Musical studio, which Morris Gest is to present at the Great Northern theater for a fortnight, beginning next Monday evening. Augustus S. Peabody will introduce the guest and Mr. Gest, who are to speak briefly on the Musical Studio in Chicago. The guest committee includes Arthur T. Aldis, Antonin Barthelemy, Mrs. Benjamin Becker, John Alden Carpenter, Mrs. Joseph G. Coleman, Robert Harshe, Chauncey McCormick and William Nitze.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wolff of Joplin, Mo., announce the engagement of their daughter, Elspeth, to Lyell Ritchie, son of Mrs. W. E. Ritchie of Hinsdale. Both young people have many friends in Chicago. Miss Wolff's brother, A. McKay Stoddard, is a member of that group of bachelors, Dave Tabor, Malcolm Conant, and Lambert Mullins, who reside on Division street.

The Arts club announces that its professional members' exhibition is to be open on Sunday from 4 to 7 o'clock. Members have the privilege of bringing guests.

The Service club is to have its annual musical comedy on Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 5 and 6. The St. Luke's hospital annual charity ball has been changed from Nov. 5 to the 12th, so as not to conflict.

The society girls who are helping with the United Charities' drive include Edith Fairbanks, Margaret Willing, Emily Otis, Jane Naugle, Marion Dixon, Winifred Smith, Anna Louise Curtis, Edith Walker, Phyllis Walsh, Edwena Love, Virginia Vilas, and Marie Smith.

Miss Nancy Hoyt, niece of Vice President Charles G. Dawes, is to represent Jacksonville, Fla., as lady-in-waiting to the Spanish queen at the Ponce de Leon pageant at St. Augustine this week.

Kersey Coates Reed of 936 Lake Shore drive has arrived in Kansas City for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reed. He is en route back from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Belden of Lake Forest and their son, Joseph C. Belden Jr., who is on vacation from Yale, where he will be graduated this year, are at Virginia Hot Springs for a spring sojourn.

Mrs. Joseph P. Rend of 70 East Scott street and her daughter, Miss Mary Rend, are making a round of visits in New York, Atlantic City, and other places in the east.

Mrs. DeKoven Phelps of New York City is enjoying her associations with her many Chicago friends at White Sulphur Springs.

Brooks and Roger McCormick, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey McCormick of 2450 Lake View avenue, are having a good time at French Lick Springs, Ind., where the former spend a great deal of time on horseback. Miss Jean Dawes and Mrs. Walter Rompel of Evanston are also sojourning there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Jerrems have returned from Australia after an absence of three months, and are to reside at the Palmer house until the middle of May.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, April 7.—[Special.]—Miss Kathleen Cohalan of 28 East 94th street gave a dinner party at Sherry's tonight for Miss Margaret Kelly, who will be married to John MacLaughlin at St. Ignatius church on April 17.

Mrs. Walter W. Law of 950 Park avenue gave a luncheon party at Sherry's for Miss Mary Law, whose engagement to Walter N. Brown of Plainfield, N. J., has been announced.

Miss Emily Smith, daughter of the governor, whose engagement to Maj. John A. Warner of Rochester was announced recently, will be married on June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Train of 113 East 73d street will sail Saturday on the Colombo for Italy.

Dance to Aid School.

The Evanston committee of the Chicago Junior school will sponsor a musicale and dance at the North Shore hotel this evening. Mrs. Robert K. Burns, Mrs. Abram Mabie, and Miss Marion Hatch are chairmen for the evening. Proceeds go to the work of the Chicago Junior school, which cares for boys from broken homes.

ENGAGED

[Rayhuff-Richter Photo.]

An interesting engagement announcement is that of Miss Margaret Willing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Skinner Willing of 232 East Walton place, to John V. Farwell III., son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lincoln Farwell of 1301 Ritchie court. Miss Willing was presented to society at a musical given by her parents in November. Mr. Farwell is a Yale graduate of the class of 1918. The announcement is particularly interesting, because it is made public on the wedding day of Ralph Isham Farwell, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Farwell, to Miss Mary Elizabeth Waterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron B. Waterman of Grosse Pointe, Detroit.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Thomas Walker of 20 East Goethe street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marion, to Denison B. Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Denison Hull, of 4855 Woodlawn avenue and Washington, D. C. Miss Walker attended Miss Walker's school at Simsbury, Conn., and made her debut several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Wheeler of Coon Rapids, Ia., announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Joyce, to John Crocker Peirce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Peirce of Hinsdale.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. King of 611 Forest avenue, Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Prof. Paul Knaplund of Madison, Wis. Miss King is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. The wedding is to take place in June, after which they will go abroad for seven months.

Prairie Club Hike.

The Prairie club announces a six mile hike Saturday afternoon from Wheaton to Mount View. The walkers will cross the estates of Capt. Chauncey McCormick and Col. R. R. McCormick, also the adjoining estate of E. N. Hurley. The party, to which the public is invited, will leave the Wells street terminal of the Aurora and Elgin line at 1:30 o'clock.

Luncheon of Alumnae.

The Chicago Alumnae association of Monticello seminary at Godfrey, Ill., will hold its annual spring luncheon at 12:30 o'clock today at the Cordon. Mrs. Robert Pringle, Mrs. J. I. Child, Mrs. T. J. Taylor, and Mrs. Walden Shaw are to be hostesses.

Waterman-Farwell Wedding in Detroit Attracts Chicagoans

The numerous Chicagoans who are in Detroit today, for the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Waterman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cameron B. Waterman of Grosse Pointe, to Ralph Isham Farwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lincoln Farwell, went over on Tuesday night in order to be present at the festivities yesterday. The Watermans had the out of town guests at dinner at the Grosse Pointe Hunt club, and Miss Julia Buhl, the maid of honor, gave the rehearsal dinner at the Grosse Pointe club, her guests afterwards joining the older crowd for dancing.

The Chicagoans present include the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Carpenter, and the members of the bridal party, Miss Ellnor Farwell, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Marjorie Allen and Miss Emilie Hoyt, the bridegroom's brothers, John V. Farwell III, best man, whose engagement to Margaret Willing is announced today; Arthur Farwell, and Julian Farwell, Shreve Badger, Newell Augur, Harry Knott, and Thomas Dennehy.

The bridal gown is of ivory satin trimmed with pearls and with long lace sleeves and a long court train which is a panel of lace with a satin border. A tulle cap trimmed with heirloom lace is edged with orange blossoms and Miss Waterman is to carry a shower bouquet of white orchids and lillies of the valley.

After a wedding trip of three months in Europe, Mr. Farwell and his bride are to reside in Detroit.

There was a large representation of Chicagoans at the wedding in Minneapolis last night of Miss Gladys Ford, daughter of Mrs. Silas M. Ford, to Richard Ordway, also of Minneapolis. The bride's sister, Mrs. George E. Van Hagen Jr. [Ardietta Ford] was matron of honor, and Mrs. Thomas Belknap [Elizabeth Van Hagen] did service as bridesmaid in return for the same service performed last June at her wedding by Miss Ford. Miss Virginia Collins, Miss Maud Hill and Miss Nancy Heffelfinger were also bridesmaids. Dexter Cummings was best man, and Louis Suddler, and Henry N. Rawley were other Chicago men ushering.

The bridal costumes were most stunning. The bride was in a model dress of duchess lace with a satin train edged in tulle, and a tulle vail falling from a rosepoint cap caught at each side with clusters of pearls. Going to the altar she carried her mother's white prayer book marked by a shower of gardenias, and in the recessional she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias. Mrs. Van Hagen wore a model gown of white satin with a peg top skirt, and a V neck line embroidered in crystal. She and the bridesmaids wore close fitting hats of gold lame made with the material knotted in small circles on the crowns of the hats. She carried white calla lillies and the bridesmaids carried yellow ones. The bridesmaids' costumes were of white taffeta, with low V necks and bouffant skirts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ordway are to go to Honolulu on their honeymoon, and are to reside at Dellwood, Whitebear lake.

New Ice Treatment Causes Big Stir Among Beauty Specialists

American Beauty shops have been very much agog of late over the discovery recently made by an English beauty specialist and which is fast displacing the older methods of rejuvenating the skin and complexion. For years every Beauty Doctor has known the value of ice treatments for the complexion, but recently an English Specialist found that even better results could be obtained by simply rubbing the face, neck or hands with a little ordinary Ice-mint either just before retiring at night or whenever one desires to look their best. The reaction of the Ice-mint on the skin not only brings the color to the cheeks the same as an ice treatment, but it also holds the color there longer and makes the skin soft, firm and more youthful in appearance. Wrinkles will soon be a thing of the past to the woman who cares for her skin. Many have already made themselves look years younger by these simple Ice-mint treatments, and Druggists say they are having an enormous demand for it as the cost is little and it is positively a delight to any woman who loves a good complexion and nice hands and skin.

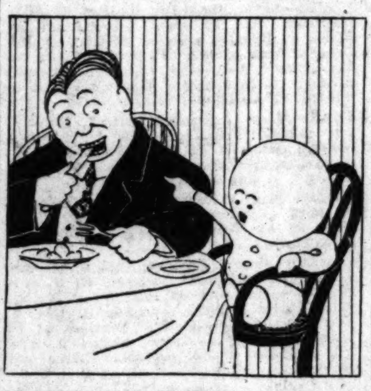
GOOPS!

A Daily Lesson in Manners for Children

BY GELETT BURGESS



[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

KNIFE-SWALLOWERS

O, never, never in your life,
Descend to eating with your knife!
Your lips and knives should never touch,
Unless you would be laughed at, much.
It is considered very rude;

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., April 7.—[Special.]—Mrs. Coolidge made the opening of the Girl Scouts' Waffle and Coffee shop on F street this afternoon a momentous occasion by being the first customer. She appeared in the gay, unique little shop a few minutes before 4 o'clock and was received by the officers of the organization, Mrs. Charles R. Lindsay Jr., district commissioner; Mrs. Henry Flather, Mrs. Theodore Wilkinson Jr., and Miss Helen Page, and Mrs. Arthur Ringland and Mrs. John W. Morse, chairman of the coffee house committee and treasurer, respectively. Mrs. Coolidge was charming in a long dark blue coat with a little gray fur collar fastened closely about her throat and a round hat with a brim of dull rose colored leghorn trimmed with dull rose ribbon.

The Vice President and Mrs. Dawes were to have been the principal guests at dinner tomorrow night, of the Secretary of War and Mrs. Dwight F. Davis, who have recalled their invitations because of the serious illness of Mrs. Davis.

The secretary of the interior, Dr. Hubert Work, had a large company at dinner tonight at the Mayflower in compliment to the British ambassador and Lady Isabella Howard.

Women Use
Then dispose of this new hygienic help easily as tissue—no laundry

WOMEN by the millions are discarding the old-time "sanitary pad" for a new and scientific way.

It is called "KOTEX." Eight in 10 better-class women now employ it.

You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheerest frocks without a second's doubt or fear.

It deodorizes, too. And thus ends ALL danger of offending.

You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitancy, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Package of twelve costs only a few cents.

KOTEX
No laundry—discard like tissue

Love Was Near Sighted.

Esther and I had had our first lover's quarrel. In order to find out if she was accepting invitations from other men, I decided to walk past her house.

Sure enough, there was a light, and there sat Esther, but I could not tell who the boy was through the lace curtain. I left the sidewalk and drew closer and closer to the front porch in order to see, if possible.

Suddenly I was startled from my search for knowledge by a voice from the swing on that porch which said, "Well, if love's blind, you certainly must be in love!" It was Esther's father. Was I embarrassed? O, boy!

Taking the Wrong Note.

The other night I was singing a solo at church service when, all of a sudden, I realized I had taken a wrong note, which threw me off for the entire phrase. I recovered on the next phrase, but I knew I had that part to do again after the next verse. So I thought I'd go easy and listen for the organ. However, the organist played softly and in the distance, and I sang that wrong note again!

It must have been painful for the congregation. If the earth would have mercifully opened up I should have been grateful.

PATTERNS BY CLOTILDE

[Registered U. S. Patent Office.]

WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

This pretty dress has drop shoulders that form short sleeves, and these may be lengthened with one piece sections gathered to wristbands. The fronts of the dress are underfaced and left open, showing a slip that is not provided with the pattern, and rolled with the collar, forming revers. A tie of ribbon is used to close the waist. There is a two piece circular skirt.

The pattern, No. 2507, comes in sizes 16 years and 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 2⅞ yards of 36 inch material with ¼ yard of 27 inch plain material and 3 yards of ribbon.

Bright Sayings of the Children

The Tribune will pay $5 for each childish saying printed. The story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Write on one side of the paper. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, The Tribune, Chicago.

Frances, aged 3, had been taken to the train several times to bid good-by to fond relatives leaving for California. On each occasion she had been extremely thoughtful in her expression of good wishes.

The time came when she herself was to make the trip. Standing on the observation platform, she shouted to a group of admiring friends and relatives, "Good-by! I hope I have a good time."

Jean was driving with her father the other day when they stopped at a dairy farm for some eggs. The owner showed her an incubator full of hundreds of new little yellow chickens.

When she got home she reported: "Mother, I never saw so many little chickens in bloom before."

"LAST EMPEROR" OF COREA DEAD; REVOLT FEARED

Prince Postpones Sailing for America.

BY RODERICK MATHESON.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

[Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.]

TOKIO, April 7.—Prince Yi Chok, whom the Japanese style the last emperor of Corea, although his reign is not recognized by the Coreans themselves, is reported to be "hopeless," which may be interpreted as meaning he is dead. His adopted son and heir, Prince Yi Jr., with his Japanese wife, Princess Masaoka, who are now in Seoul, are indefinitely postponing their trip to Europe and America.

The death of the father of Prince Yi in 1919 precipitated a nation-wide uprising in Corea. The authorities are nervous lest there be a repetition of this now.

Dogged by Tragedy.

The life of Prince Yi Jr. has been marked by tragedy, death intervening at every important event. He was born a few months after the Corean queen, his father's consort, had been dragged from bed and murdered by Japanese and Corean assassins. He was brought in boyhood to Japan, virtually a hostage after his father's forcible deposition by the Japanese. His father died on the eve of the day set for his marriage with a Japanese imperial princess, which the Coreans bitterly opposed.

His first and only child, taken to Corea for formal recognition as Corean heir, died suddenly and mysteriously in Seoul palace. Rumors said that Corean patriots had poisoned the baby because in his veins were mingled royal Corean and imperial Japanese blood.

Planned to Sail for U. S.

His European and American tour had been arranged to show the world the happy union of the Corean and Japanese ruling houses. The couple were ready to sail on April 12, when the death of Prince Yi intervened.

It is reported that extraordinary precautions have been taken to guard Princess Masaoka while she is in Corea.

John Joseph Charles to Be Buried Here Saturday

Funeral services for John Joseph Charles, president of Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co., who died Tuesday in Pasadena, Cal., after an illness of five weeks, will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. in St. Mark's church, Evanston. Mrs. Charles and one son, J. J. Charles Jr., left Pasadena yesterday to accompany the body to Chicago.

MISS MARY AMELIA TURNBULL, a school teacher for twenty-eight years, most of that time at Lafayette school, died yesterday in Highland Park hospital. She was 50 years old and lived at 1807 Green Bay road, Glencoe, with her parents. Miss Turnbull was a member of Campbell chapter, Order of Eastern Star. Funeral services will be held at the home Saturday at 2 p. m. Interment will be in Rosehill cemetery.

FARM & GARDEN

By FRANK RIDGWAY

Springtime is gladioli planting time. Many bulbs are set in the fall but gladioli cormels or bulblets are not put in the ground until April and they shoot up tall plants that are topped with spikes of showy colors.

The gladiolus' popularity keeps growing and naturally the bulblets fall into inexperienced hands. Many amateur gardeners plant all they have early in the spring and then all the blossoms come at about the same time. The flowering season can be extended easily by holding some of the bulblets so that plantings can be made every two weeks from April to June. Blossoms of early varieties open up about July 1 and there will be a succession of flowers until frost nips the plants.

Volz, a horticulturist at the Ames Iowa, state college, recommends soaking the bulblets in water for a day before planting to hasten germination. Then plant them as garden peas in rows and cover them with about an inch and a half to two inches of dirt.

According to Volz, bulblets of the early varieties, especially of the primulinus type, may bloom the first year. The bulblets are dug up in the fall and handled as mature bulbs, he says.

He advises using the smaller bulblets for early planting and the larger ones for the midseason and late crop.

"Suburban Gardening," published in The Tribune, is now serving as a guide to thousands of gardeners. Copies are available at The Tribune Public Service office, 11 South Dearborn street, or The Tribune Tower lobby, for 10 cents, or 13 cents by mail.

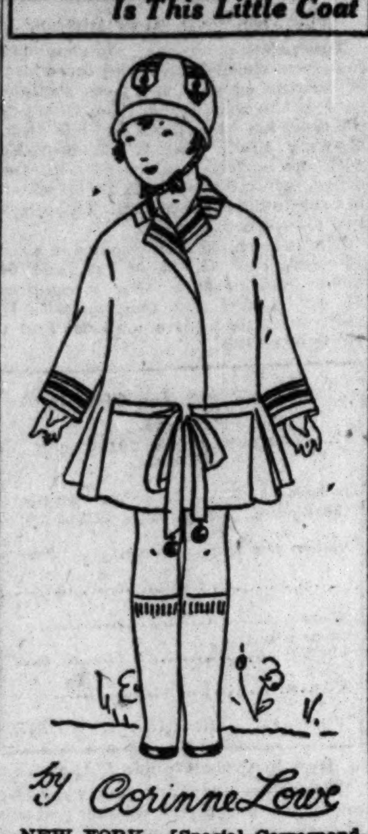
ENERGINE

"The Perfect Dry Cleaner"

Decidedly Different Is This Little Coat



by Corinne Lowe

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—Just because we indorse the doctrine that a small girl's clothes should be simple we do not need to make said clothes bromidic. There are just a thousand ways of being simple when it comes to juvenile modes, and it is always possible to endow the coat or frock of your own little Peggy or Sue with a touch that makes these garments absolutely different from those of your neighbor's little girl.

Today's little French model, designed for the small girl of from 2 to 6, is full of suggestions along this line. Nothing could be simpler, yet nothing could be more distinctive. Fashioned of navy kasha, this diminutive bit of style is trimmed with Roman striped ribbon. It falls straight and unbelted in the back and the sides are cut so as to provide a smart flare. Like so many of the grownup coats, this one assumes a narrow belt of self-material, which ties in front and is weighted with round pennant ornaments in one of the bright tints of the ribbon.

BEAUTY ANSWERS

A Pleasant Voice Carries Its Owner Far Toward Success

by Antoinette Donnelly

The voice has a great deal to do with creating a favorable impression and holding personal interest.

A clear, sweet, melodious voice, saying the nice thing and the proper thing in the nice and proper way, has won success in the business, professional, and, more important, in the matrimonial field for many a girl.

A rich, full, vital voice is the voice of a healthy person. A musical, charming voice belongs to one with a well poised and controlled system.

If you are not feeling well, you notice the voice immediately registers the lack of physical tone. If you are nervous, jerky, unpoised, the voice tells the story before you put it into words. If you have an irritable disposition, a peevish one, a whiny one, a mean one, a sarcastic one, the tone, rather than the words, gives you away. On the other hand, there are girls who have none of the unpleasant dispositional traits that are said to go with thin, high-pitched, or the metallic, rasping sounds.

They were never corrected in childhood, and have become so used to the sounds themselves that they are unconscious of any unpleasantness in them. Friends are the last to acquaint one with the fact that one's voice contributes nothing to the harmony of the world.

We can find out for ourselves, however, by comparing the quality of our own voices with that of women whose words fall easily on the ear. Certainly we know if it is badly pitched and thin. We can tell that by the requests to repeat.

As a nation, we are accused of having peculiarly defective nasal tones. Whether the charge is justified or not, one does hear those raucous sounds too frequently for the good reputation of the land. With a little training and "listening in," this fault is easily overcome by the simple process of opening the mouth and using the vocal cords connected with the windpipe, instead of keeping the lips close together and letting the sound come out through the nose.

DEATH CLAIMS DR. DOEDERLEIN AT HIS HOME

Dr. Theodore J. Doederlein, physician and surgeon, a member of the staff of Grant hospital for twenty-five years, died yesterday at his residence, 651 Kenesaw terrace. He was 54 years old. Funeral services will be held at St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran church, Greenview and Belmont avenues, at 2 p. m., Saturday. Dr. F. Pfotenhauer, president of the Missouri synod, Lutheran church, and other ministers will officiate.

Dr. Doederlein was the son of a pioneer Lutheran pastor in Chicago. He was graduated from Concordia college and the University of Illinois Medical school, and took post-graduate work in Leipzig, Germany. He spent three years as a medical missionary in India and was widely known as a lecturer. The widow and two children survive. The Lutheran Bach chorus of Chicago, of which he was vice president, will sing at the funeral. Burial will be in St. Lucas cemetery.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

A Spinach Soufflé.

In Italy they make vegetable puddings. Their spinach "budino" is a spinach purée combined with macaroni. With the idea of imitating that somewhat, we made the following: One cup cooked macaroni, purée from about half a peck of spinach cooked and sieved, one cup of white sauce, two eggs separated. Butter a baking dish of the right size, put in the cooked macaroni, then the soufflé mixture with some bits of butter on top and bake until it puffs.

The soufflé mixture is made by adding to the cup of white sauce the two egg yolks and cooking them in for a minute, then adding the spinach and folding into the mixture previously made the egg whites beaten until stiff.

We start, of course, by picking over and cooking the spinach. Do not wet it before picking it over, and for best effect use the leaves only for greens or a purée and the hearts—after they have been cooked—for a salad or a relish. Wash the leaves, lift them out of the water into a colander rather than pour the water off them, and continue to wash until there is no sediment in the washing water and it is otherwise clean.

Now blanch the leaves, which may be done over live steam to save loss of vitamins, or drop them into boiling water for five minutes—for this small quantity. Drain from boiling water and thoroughly rinse to heart of mass with cold water, then put to cook ever so gently in what water clings to them. Remember that spinach contains 95 per cent water of itself, and you want to save it, yet you do not want the finished product to be sloppy, as the spinach served often is. By the gentlest cooking in the least water one can get something so soft in about ten minutes usually that almost all of it can be easily sieved. If the purée so made is too wet, it may be quickly dried out with stirring over a strong heat so briefly that the spinach will not leave its brilliant green color.

In eating this soufflé, to which you may add a bit of nutmeg, you will never guess that the white sauce was used.

ROSEHILL MAUSOLEUM

Honored by Majestic Dignity

To give due and fitting honor to the beloved memory of those passed on, their earthly remains not only should be confined in everlasting protection, but also in the solemn dignity of imperishable beauty.

Such ideal protection and honor, many think beyond the reach of a limited income. Yet today the majesty and security of Rosehill Mausoleum is within the reach of even those hampered by modest resources, if they avail themselves of this privilege now, while space permits.

Single crypts in the new addition to Rosehill Mausoleum may be had for as little as $450; these, as well as the most costly, are doubly assured of perpetual, watchful care by a trust fund and the Mausoleum Building Special Reserve Fund. Inquiries, by mail or in person, will receive prompt and courteous attention, with no thought of obligation.

A BETTER POSITION
FOR YOU.

WITH CHICAGO'S LARGEST REAL ESTATE OPERATORS.

Salary,
Bonus,
Commission.

OWING TO our steady increasing volume of business, already averaging a million dollars a month, we will employ and train a number of highgrade men, 25 year or over, to fill well paying, permanent positions.

NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY.

YOU CAN make money now. You need not waste time experimenting. IN OUR 27 years of Proven Judgment we have evolved the most scientific, productive and best paying plan for our men to follow. This experience, combined with our great cash buying power, enables us to secure and merchandise the choice locations demanded by Chicago's growth. Naturally our volume of sales is enormous and the remuneration to our men proportionately large.

OUR MEN ARE MAKING BIG MONEY ALL YEAR ROUND.

NO DULL season. Incomes as high as $20,000 a year to men who had no more experience than you in this business.

LIVE LEADS DAILY.

WE NEED men to call on them while they're hot.

AS ALL executives are selected from the sales force you can obtain quicker promotion here than you might expect from any other concern as well known and firmly established as we are.

STOP READING help wanted ads. Come in and start work at once. You can't begin to make money any younger than you are today.

APPLY TODAY.

A MAN WITH PERSONALITY.

One who feels at home when talking to any class of people. I would like a man who owns a closed car, one who is not afraid to work all day, has children, and can give reasons why he should be worth $100 a week to start. This work is selling a higher grade of real estate, and there is no limit for the man who will apply himself.

A SALESMAN,

experienced or not; work under my direction for 1 day. If you can see then that this is one real estate connection that is different, where valuable leads, secured through newspaper advertising, are an actuality, and at least $75 a week a dead certainty to real workers, you can quit and be out no more than you would have spent the day running from one office to another, listening to Arabian Nights tales of "a thousand a week." This is the one best chance in Chicago for a serious, industrious salesman who has to be sure of making money to meet his current expenses. MR. REDFIELD.

A GOOD "LINE"

will never raise your sales average if you're trying to sell something that has no tangible facts to back you up.

You men tired of selling propositions where the sales-resistance is great and the commissions small, why don't you handle a commodity that is sold on the merit of FACTS alone? Employ your sales efforts on a proposition where the monetary return is 50% greater than in any other line, and with a concern whose congenial and co-operative spirit makes working a real pleasure.

Instead of trying to interest you with a lot of PROMISES we want you to come to our office and make a first hand investigation. We let PROVABLE FACTS and our sales records tell our story. That we may get together, address S A 159, Tribune.

SALESMEN AND SALES MANAGERS.

A proposition that is different and here's why.

At this office you work directly for the owner, which means that you get all of the commission due on every sale you make. Another difference is this: my properties are hand picked, not merely vast acreages bought at random. Our sales are made through fact and tact, not through nerve and pressure. I can also use a few experienced salesmen and executives who have handled men in other lines of business, and could adapt that ability to groups of my selling force. Foreign language salesmen and a number of part time people can also find openings here where they make under pleasant dignified conditions twice what they could elsewhere under less desirable conditions.

THIS JOB WON'T COST YOU ONE CENT.

I am considered one of Chicago's most successful and highest paid sales executives. Every year I train and start hundreds of ambitious men in new and bigger money making jobs. I make no charge for my services. It's free to you. I will give you conscientious advice on the best course to pursue. I will tell you whether you will fit into my big 1926 selling campaign. Employed and unemployed men, experienced and inexperienced men are urged to write me a personal letter. I am now starting on my newest and biggest campaign, which in my opinion will put 500 new men on "Easy Street" this year. I pick only the live selling deals—the things that are easy to sell—in demand—well advertised—substantial and strictly legitimate. The average man with me has a chance to make several hundred dollars and up per month. I offer a wonderful opportunity to Chicago salesmen to take my training and leadership through 1926. There is big money in it. Write me a letter about yourself. Address P C 511, Tribune.

Saleswomen.

A BETTER POSITION FOR YOU.

WITH CHICAGO'S LARGEST REAL ESTATE OPERATORS.

Salary Bonus Commission

OWING TO our steadily increasing volume of business, already averaging a million dollars a month, we will employ and train a number of refined women, 25 years or over, to fill well paying, permanent positions.

No Experience Necessary.

YOU CAN make money now. You need not waste time experimenting.

IN OUR 27 years of proven judgment we have evolved the most scientific, productive and best paying plan for our women to follow. This experience, combined with our great cash buying power, enables us to secure and merchandise the choice locations demanded by Chicago's growth. Naturally our volume of sales is enormous and the remuneration to our women proportionately large.

OUR WOMEN ARE MAKING BIG MONEY ALL YEAR ROUND.

NO DULL season. Incomes as high as $20,000 a year to workers who had no more experience than you in this business.

LIVE LEADS DAILY.

AS ALL executives are selected from the sales force you can obtain quicker promotion here than you might expect from any other concern as well known and firmly established as we are.

STOP READING help wanted ads. Come in and start work at once. You can't begin to make money any younger than you are today.

APPLY TODAY.

A WOMAN

Living in the city with book, bond, insurance or kindred experience is wanted, who will go to people who have seen our advertising and written in for full information and make an appointment with them to visit our property. We take the prospect out for you and make and close the sale. Position is permanent and should net such a woman from $50 to $75 a week easily. MR. JORDAN, Room 903, 109 N. Dearborn-st.

AMBITIOUS WOMEN TO LEARN SALES WORK.
SALARY, BONUS AND COMMISSION.

I am organizing a new sales department in a large real estate office, where women will have an equal chance with men to earn large returns and promotion.

Experience is not necessary, as the work is directed by expert sales managers. The company furnishes leads and assistance in closing sales.

Join our forces now at the opening of our new Million Dollar Subdivision. Attend our sales meetings and learn and earn at the same time. Nineteen years of successful Chicago real estate experience.

Co-operative Apts.

It costs us $18 per month to pay the taxes, janitor service, repairs, furnish the heat, hall lights and water for a 4 rm. apt. We have a mtg. from a life insurance company of $3,976.33 at 5½% interest on this apt., which means $18.21 interest per month. This apt. is rented until Oct. 1 for $100. We will sell it to you on the co-operative plan for $5,600. If you have not got the $5,600, but have good references and a determination to own your home we will sell you this apt. or one like it for May 1 occupancy for a small deposit down and give you a long time to pay the balance.

The building is at 2820 Cambridge-av., 1 blk. east of Broadway, at Diversey-pkwy., a location which is bound to increase in value. This bldg. is 2 yrs. old, modern in every detail, large rooms, with spacious closets and with extra in-a-dor beds in the living room.

Why buy an apt. for your landlord with your rent when you can buy it for yourself?

IF I HAD THE WHOLE

Middle west to choose from I would still pick this spot for a hotel, cottages, club or industrial playground.

A far northern lake, noted for beauty. A mile and a half of scenic shore, sandy beaches and sheltered bays. Fishing, bathing, canoeing or speed boats. Land for golf links. Surrounded by state land. No chance for other development near.

Transportation! Leave Chicago at dinner time, get the early morning fishing or golf in the real north woods. Famous Wisconsin motor road straight past it.

First time on market. Equal opportunity will never occur again, because there is none.

Phone me between 6 and 7 tonight at Milwaukee, Wis. Call West 4943M.

CADILLAC

NOT ONLY USED CADILLACS BUT ALSO

A very fine selection of good used cars of other makes are always available in the Cadillac Used Car Department. Prices range from $350 up, and satisfied customers will testify that each car represents full value.

Motor cars become the property of the Cadillac Used Car Department only after they have been thoroughly inspected, carefully tested, and appraised by men who know automobiles. Their actual condition thus is known to us and enables us to sell them at prices that you will recognize at once as honest and fair.

Any of these cars costing more than $300 can be bought on terms if desired. Your present automobile will be accepted as part payment. Demonstrations will gladly be given without obligating you to buy.

1926 Junior 8 Sedan	$2,000
1925 Jordan 8 Brougham	1,650
1925 Reo Sedan	1,000
1924 Tudor Ford Sedan	350

After Listening

to every one talk about like a CHRYSLER; runs like a CHRYSLER; gets away like a CHRYSLER; compact as a CHRYSLER, and safe as a CHRYSLER, by gosh, it's time that you owned a CHRYSLER.

We have several used CHRYSLERS that have been renewed and carry the same guarantee as our new cars that you can own at the price of inferior makes.

We offer the following:

Chrysler 70 Touring	$ 885
Chrysler 70 Brougham	1,195
Chrysler 6 Coach, 1926	1,250
Chrysler 70 Sedan	1,250
Chrysler 70 Roadster	1,245
Chrysler 70 Royal Coupe	1,395
Chrysler 70 Crown Sedan	1,750

Just note that our ads do not state mileage, for very obvious reasons. Our reputation is your guarantee of honest value.
